Mack Sennett Comedy, "The Dentist." Monday and Tuesday—Vivian Martin in "Jane Goes Awooping."

Wednesday and Thursday—Bryant Washburn in "Putting It Over."

Excellent audiences received the double attraction here at the Regent yesterday. Elsie Ferguson's latest Arctcraft picture, "The Avalanche," which is a picturization of Gertrude Bertone's famous novel scored an emphatic success.

Sharing the honors in this bill is the Mack Sennett Comedy, "The Dentist." The name of that master of comedies is enough to describe it, but this picture is unusually novel. Fun is found where few thought it ever existed—in the dentist's chair.

Bessie Barriscale, who has an enormous following in Harrisburg, is now playing at the Regent. At the Colonial Coliseum theater, in this production, "Her Purchase Price," she takes the role of a slave girl who is to be sold. But she has the privilege of naming her own price. A sentimental story well told which will add new members to her already large number of admirers.

Next week Jack Pickford will be shown in "Bill Apperson's Boy." Hundreds of people daily are attending the latest D. W. Griffith dramatic thunderbolt production which is playing at the Victoria theater, entitled "The Mother and the Law." This production is an enlargement of the great American story of "Intolerance." Thousands of people have already seen this production, although it has only been releasing several weeks. It played its first stand at the George M. Cohan theater, New York. Then it came to the Victoria, where it has been attracting large crowds.

Tom Mix, the daredevil of present day movies is coming to the Victoria theater Monday. Tom Mix is coming to the Victoria theater Monday. Tom Mix is coming to the Victoria theater Monday.

Bobby Randall, the burnt cork comedian, scored a distinct laughing hit at his initial appearance at the Regent. At the Regent, Bobby Randall, the burnt cork comedian, scored a distinct laughing hit at his initial appearance at the Regent.

BECK IN FORM IN GRID WORK
Is Setting Fast Pace For Tech Football Squad; Season Starts in Two Weeks

Two score of Tech High school candidates are turning out daily for the Maroon football team that play scholastic eleven from the District of Columbia, Maryland, New York, Delaware and Pennsylvania. Possibly no other high school aggregation in the country has a schedule that embraces five states. Should Tech capture all of the games, it will again land the high school championship of the country.

Beck Shows Form
Carl Beck is kicking well for the squad. He sent out punts that averaged sixty yards during the practice last night. He is showing more pep and dash than ever in the Tech backfield at left half. "Buddy" Lingle called signals last night and chances favor him for the quarterback post. Garrett and Wilbach complete the backfield. It is this quartet with the addition of several other reserves who are depended upon to roll up large scores for Tech.

Shooting Exhibition Free; Takes Place Wednesday
No admission is to be charged for the exhibition shooting matches of the Winchester Shooting Squad at the Harrisburg Trapshooting Association traps on Wednesday, September 17. At least a half dozen varieties of guns will be used by the members of the team, who will include J. Mowell Hawkins, of Harrisburg; Charles G. Spencer, St. Louis; John R. Taylor, Newark, Ohio; Fred G. Bills, Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ad Topperwein.

GOWDY DAY AT COLUMBUS
Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 12.—It was Gowdy day at Neil Park yesterday and the Boston National catcher made his appearance here in uniform for the first time since he entered professional baseball. Gowdy's home is in Columbus. Just before the start of the game between the Braves and the Senators, Gowdy was presented with a chest of silver, a gift from the fans of this city. Boston won the contest by a score of 10 to 4.

JACKIE CLARK WINNER
Allentown, Sept. 12.—Jackie Clark, middleweight champion in the A. E. F. outclassed Jimmy McCabe, of Philadelphia, here last night, winning every round of the ten.

YALE WINNER IN TENNIS BATTLE
Makes Clean Sweep; Garland Comes Back Strong; Scores

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—For the first time in twenty-four years Yale has made a clean sweep of the Intercollegiate lawn tennis tournament. Old Eli added this distinction to her string of athletic achievements yesterday at the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, when Charles S. Garland won the singles and with K. N. Hawks as his partner captured the doubles. Garland defeated Kirk Reid, Cornell, in the singles final, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, and he and Hawks took the measure of the other Yale team, J. B. Morse and K. R. L. Simmons, 6-1, 5-7, 6-3, 7-5. The last time that Yale took both of these events was in 1895 when M. G. Chace won the singles and with A. E. Fotte took the doubles.

Garland recovered his form and his poise in the second and Reid did not have a low level and he lost the best that Reid could do was to win the opening game. After that Garland drove with great ferocity and covered his court perfectly, winning the next six games in a row. The scores follow: Singles—FIRST SET: Reid . . . 5 0 5 1 4 6 1 2—31-4; Garland . . . 3 2 4 3 4 1 4 4—38-6

SECOND SET: Reid . . . 1 6 4 4 4 6 4—20-6; Garland . . . 4 4 0 1 0 4 1—14-1

THIRD SET: Reid . . . 4 6 5 0 2 4 4—29-6; Garland . . . 0 4 3 4 4 0 10—16-2

FOURTH SET: Reid . . . 2 4 1 2 0 4 3 1—17-2; Garland . . . 4 2 4 4 2 5 4—29-6

FIFTH SET: Reid . . . 4 4 7 3 4 4 2 4—36-6; Reid . . . 3 2 5 4 4 2 1—26-3

Doubles—FIRST SET: Reid . . . 4 4 4 2 4 5—27-6; Morse-Simmons 2 1 0 2 4 2 3—14-1

SECOND SET: Reid . . . 2 4 3 4 0 3 4 5 3 2 2—36-5; Morse-Simmons—4 1 5 2 1 4 5 1 3 5 4 4—39-7

THIRD SET: Reid . . . 4 4 3 2 4 0 1—23-3; Morse-Simmons—3 4 3 2 0 4 6 1 4 4 4—29-7

FOURTH SET: Reid . . . 3 4 3 2 0 4 6 1 4 4 4—29-7; Morse-Simmons—5 2 5 4 4 1 1 4 4 2 0 2—34-5

The Summary: Singles—Final Round: C. S. Garland, Yale, defeated Kirk Reid, Cornell, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Doubles—Final Round: C. S. Garland and K. N. Hawk, Yale, defeated J. B. Morse and K. R. L. Simmons, Yale, 6-1, 5-7, 6-3, 7-5.

strangers, as they met just before Gill went overseas, at the time Wolgast was cleaning up things in his class, but the meeting with Gill was disastrous, as Wolgast had two ribs broken in the fourth round. Since then Wolgast has met with success such men as Joe Borrell, Knockout Loughlin, Herman Miller, Joe Welsh, Len Rowlands and other classy mid-dleweights.

Billy Logan, of Allentown, the coal fields lightweight champion, will meet Angelo, in a special bout of six rounds. As Logan, who has not fought other than a star bout in three years, refused to go on the card until it was arranged as a special bout.

The preliminary bouts will be strong.
