

FAMILY OF TEN FORCED TO LIVE IN ONE ROOM

Able to Pay Moderate Rental But Cannot Find a Home SEVEN IN FOUR ROOMS Ordered to Move While Even C. of C. Can't Find Them Shelter

Three Harrisburg families are living at present under almost intolerable conditions as a result of their inability to get homes, it was learned this morning.

One family of ten is eking out an existence in one room, while two other families, aggregating seven people, are living in four rooms. The latter families must be vacated at once, and the two families are without any housing facilities whatever.

This state of affairs was brought to light at the housing bureau of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce to-day.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Mr. Schwab came to Pittsburgh yesterday, met James J. Flannery at the Bridgeville Vanadium Works, inspected the plant and then wrote out a check for $4,000,000, payable to Mr. Flannery.

Doesn't Seem to Have Any Parents

FOUR ARRESTED IN CITY MARKETS AS FORESTALLERS

Police Active in Enforcing New City Ordinance Prohibiting Price Fixing

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

Four persons, three men and one woman, were caught in the police dragnet this morning for forestalling in the biggest catch made by the city police force since the enactment of the anti-forestalling ordinance.

VULTURE WHICH PERCHED ON SHIP OMEN OF DOOM

Panic-Stricken Crew Believed in Superstitions of the Sea, Convinced Long Before Vessel Sinks She Was Doomed

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

Miami, Sept. 13.—Many hours before the storm which sunk the Ward liner Corydon in the Bahamas channel Tuesday morning with a loss of twenty-seven lives, a vulture followed the ship and perched on her spars, while a panic-stricken crew, believing in the superstitions of the sea, were convinced that they were doomed.

"DRY" CITY CUTS DOWN LIST IN CRIMINAL COURT

Child Wife to Stand Trial For Poisoning Infant Son FEW NAMES SINCE JULY Two of Three Alleged Murderers Scheduled to Face Juries This Month

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

With whiskey gone the work of the county criminal courts has been cut down by nearly half, the first trial list issued by District Attorney Michael E. Stroup since prohibition cut off the sale of alcohol shows today. The court will sit the week of September 22.

Manufacturers Now to Organize

Chicago, Sept. 13.—An actual start toward federation of employers of the country as recommended by the "Our Country First" conference was made by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association to-day by appointment of a committee representing fifteen organizations with Charles Piez, former head of the Shipping Board as chairman. The committee will ask Chambers of Commerce and sectional and other bodies to endorse the resolutions adopted at the conference which urged a federation of employers.

BRUNNER WILL OUTLINE PLANS FOR MEMORIAL

Famous Architect to Give Details For Bridge and Granite Shaft

State officials, architects and engineers will meet here Wednesday for a general conference with representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Harrisburg Railways Company and other Harrisburg utilities to discuss details of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial bridge for which the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings is opening bids on September 23. Since the hearing a few days ago questions have arisen as to location of piers and other matters relative to the city's memorial over the railroad and the Harrisburg Railway has asked for a clearer understanding in regard to the approaches and as to temporary tracks during the construction of the bridge. It is possible that some discussion of additional tracks on the Hill section and on Herr street may be taken up.

State officials, architects and engineers will meet here Wednesday for a general conference with representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Harrisburg Railways Company and other Harrisburg utilities to discuss details of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial bridge for which the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings is opening bids on September 23. Since the hearing a few days ago questions have arisen as to location of piers and other matters relative to the city's memorial over the railroad and the Harrisburg Railway has asked for a clearer understanding in regard to the approaches and as to temporary tracks during the construction of the bridge. It is possible that some discussion of additional tracks on the Hill section and on Herr street may be taken up.

State officials, architects and engineers will meet here Wednesday for a general conference with representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Harrisburg Railways Company and other Harrisburg utilities to discuss details of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial bridge for which the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings is opening bids on September 23. Since the hearing a few days ago questions have arisen as to location of piers and other matters relative to the city's memorial over the railroad and the Harrisburg Railway has asked for a clearer understanding in regard to the approaches and as to temporary tracks during the construction of the bridge. It is possible that some discussion of additional tracks on the Hill section and on Herr street may be taken up.

D'Annunzio Heads Armed Force Moving in Violation of Government Order

Rome, Italy, Sept. 12.—Gabriele D'Annunzio, the Italian poet-aviator, arrived in Fiume from Ronchi this afternoon with detachments of marines and Arditi provided with machine guns and armored automobiles, according to reports reaching this city to-night. The movement was made in violation of an order from the government. No disorders were reported up till late to-night. Government officials have been instructed to investigate and determine who was responsible for them.

Thieves Ransack Reading Station in Grantham

Grantham, Sept. 13.—Thieves entered the Philadelphia and Reading station last night and played havoc with books, papers and tickets. They carried off the gum slot machine and broke the weighing machine, securing about $4 in cash. They also took an overcoat, hat and several other articles of wearing apparel, the property of office attaches and railroad employes. The tool box outside of the station was broken open, and a wrench and small crowbar taken. These tools were used in breaking open the door of the station, and drawers were ransacked and papers and books scattered over the floor.

TRADE FAVORS SHIPPING

New York, Sept. 13.—Trade conditions favor a great expansion in shipping. P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine, reported upon his arrival here from Europe to-day on the steamer Adriatic. His company, he added, is in a position to take advantage of every opportunity to help develop American shipping by operating U. S. Shipping Board vessels or in any other way.

U. S. COAL TOO HIGH

Berlin, Wednesday, Sept. 10.—Importation of American coal in quantities sufficient to relieve Germany's need is regarded by the press as inconceivable, owing to the cost. Although German-American negotiations have resulted in an offer to send American coal to this country, it is said the price is so high, owing to freight rates and foreign exchange, that the importation of coal in large quantities is out of the question.

Generally Fair

Washington, Sept. 13.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday issued by the Weather Bureau to-day are: North and Middle Atlantic States: Generally fair, nearly normal temperatures, although still somewhat cool Monday.

GREAT FUTURE FOR HARRISBURG

HOVERTER SAYS Republican Candidate For Mayor Sees Big Things Ahead For City HE CAN SAVE MONEY Will Co-operate With Council in Every Worthy Move; to Hold His Own Hearings

"I shall be the next Republican nominee for Mayor of Harrisburg; of that I am positively assured," said Alderman George A. Hovertor to-day. "I have been making a quiet, but very thorough canvass of the city," he continued, "and I have received pledges of support from all quarters. There is no doubt in my mind as to the result, but I am not letting any grass grow under my feet and will continue active until the close of the polls Tuesday evening, and the scores of friends who have volunteered to help me will be on the job until the last minute."

"For the first time during his campaign Mr. Hovertor talked freely of his ambition to be Mayor, of his views with regard to the future of Harrisburg and his ideas of the duties of the Mayor, and his conduct of the office, if elected.

"Great Future For City "During all of my more than 40 years' residence in Harrisburg," he said, "I have been interested in the growth and development of the city. I was elected to Select Council during the period when the first big public improvement movement was in full swing, and my interest in municipal affairs naturally increased with that."

Stop Parcel Post Food Sales Sept. 25; Too Small

Washington, Sept. 13.—Postal officials here have decided to cut parcel post sales of Army food to the public on September 25 because the public response to the opportunity has been so poor. Not more than 10 per cent. of the supplies have been taken.

GIVE POLICE CHIEF NOTICE TO QUIT

Macon, Ga.—Police Chief Bowden, who has been charged with sympathizing with rioting strikers in the cotton mill troubles, was to-day given three hours in which to resign his office by the Civil Service Commission.

DECLARES U. S. WAR AIMS NOT FULFILLED

Tacoma—Reading to a Tacoma audience to-day a part of his address to Congress asking a declaration of war with Germany, President Wilson declared to-day the purpose there outlined had not yet been fulfilled and would not be until the Treaty was ratified.

OREGON SAYS HE IS READY TO REPEL U. S.

Nogales, Ariz.—General Alvaro Obregon, former Minister of War in the Carranza Cabinet and a candidate for President in 1920, announced to-day that he would take the field against the United States in the event of armed intervention by the United States.

TO HOLD SEIZED LINERS AS TRANSPORTS

Washington—Some of the seized German liners are to be retained permanently by the United States as a part of the Army transport corps, Chief of Staff March to-day told the House Military Committee. President Wilson has definitely decided on the allocation of the ships, he said, but asked to be excused from discussing the plan of disposal, which would be announced soon.

STEAMER BREAKS DOWN AT SEA

New York—The steamer Alliance, with 122 passengers aboard, on her way to Colon, broke down yesterday when 185 miles southeast of Cape Henry and is proceeding under her own steam to Old Point Comfort.

FIRE SWEEPING OIL PLANT

New York—Five alarms had been turned in at 2.45 P. M. to-day for a fire which is raging in the plant of the Standard Oil Company along Newton creek, in Long Island City. The plant covers many acres.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Forest F. Porter, Sewickley, and Laura E. Stinson, Sewickley; Gilbert G. Enders and Blanche A. Carson, Carsonville; James W. Boatman and Annie Bunnison, Harrisburg; Vernon Dittel and Frances H. K. Lenz, Harrisburg; Edward J. Hays and Edna Hays, Harrisburg; Joseph Dehli and Sarah Brown, Harrisburg; Clyde Davis, Camp Merritt, N. J., and Edna M. Nixon, Harrisburg.

BOSTON POLICE STRIKE, FIGHT TO BITTER END, STATE DECIDES

Police Commissioner Makes Announcement New Men Will Be Recruited as Offices Held Are Vacant GOMPERS' REQUEST IS TURNED DOWN

Boston, Sept. 13.—The police strike here is a fight to the finish. The offices formerly held by striking policemen are vacant. New men will be recruited. The request of Samuel Gompers that the strikers be reinstated is refused.

This is the attitude of the state as made known to-day by Police Commissioner Curtis. It appeared to mean the complete failure of the attempts at compromise. Attention is now turned to the position to be taken by the Boston firemen, electrical

Boston, Sept. 13.—The police strike here is a fight to the finish. The offices formerly held by striking policemen are vacant. New men will be recruited. The request of Samuel Gompers that the strikers be reinstated is refused.

GOMPERS' STATEMENT

New York, Sept. 13.—When informed by the Associated Press of the action of Police Commissioner Curtis, in declaring vacant the posts of the striking policemen there, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, said: "I suppose he is willing to assume the responsibility for the consequences of his action." He would make no further comment.

THE WEATHER

Harrisburg and Vicinity: Fair tonight and Sunday. Continued cool. Eastern Pennsylvania: Fair, continued cool to-night and Sunday. Gentle to moderate north-west wind becoming variable. River: The Susquehanna river and all its branches will fall slowly or remain stationary. Stage of about 3.5 feet is indicated for Harrisburg Sunday morning.