The Day's News in Cities and Towns of Central Pennsylvania

Miles of Drain; Harrisburg Is Fifth

Studies of municipal improvements in the third class cities of Pennsylvania made by the State Bureau of Municipalities, a branch of the Department of Internal Affairs, was crushed to death under a freight that class. Jeads with 180.70 miles. Wilkes-Barre is shown to be second with 131.6; Erie, third, with 118.17; Altona, fourth, with 189.7 miles, sixth, with 90, and New Castle, sixth, with 90, and New Castle, sixth, with 85.76.

New Castle, sixth, with 85.76.

The combined of sewers, while four maintain disposal plants. Reading uses a double sewer system, while 13 cities use combined storm and shall be a series of the commonwealth. Several series of the commonwealth of the commonwealth. Several series have various systems of paying for the sewer improvements.

The report made by J. Herman Kinsely, chief of the bureau, says "Reading stands approximately 55 miles ahead of her nearest competitor for first honors in sewer comstitution mileage in the third class cities of the Commonwealth. Several the Commonwealth. Several the Commonwealth of the Commonwealth. Several the Commonwealth. Several the Commonwealth of the Commonwealth. Several the Several Se rivers, creeks or cesspools and in some cases with the aid of Imhoff Marysville Will Drive tanks and sprinkling filters.

parents.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Margaret Gault and M. L. Wise, of Marysville, are visiting several days with relatives in Williamsport.
Miss Grace Pewterbaugh, of Marysville, has returned to Albright College, Myerstown, where she is a member of the sophomore class.

WILL WELCOME SOLDIERS
Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 13.—Major
Dr. F. A. Rupp, one of the best known physicians of this place who served through the war overseas, will leave to-morrow for Shenandoah, where he will deliver a welcome home address to the soldiers in the afternoon. On Sunday evening he will deliver his lecture. "A ing he will deliver his lecture, "A Bird's Eye View of the Great War as Seen by a Physician." Dr. Rupp as Seen by a Physician." Dr. is well known as an author.

RICKART-BARNICOAT

SATURDAY EVENING,

Injured Near Norristown on Third Trip Out

miles; Monongahela, 8.5 miles; Coateswille, 7.50 miles of sewers now existing in the third class cities of the State has already gone far into the millions of Municipalities shows. Reading's system is reported as being worth $2,408,373, while that maintained by Wilkes-Barre cost between $1,500,000.

Wilkes-Barre cost between $1,500,000.

Sewer costs in Harrisburg have reached $1,750,000 and $2,000,000. Sewer costs in Harrisburg have reached $1,750,000 and $1,000,000. Sewer costs in the lines, Uhrman was sent on patch the lines, Uhrman was sent on patch duty into no man's land between the German and American lines. Becoming separated from his company sent of the weak solver in the lines, Uhrman was sent on patch duty into no man's land between the German and American lines. Becoming separated from his company sent of the weak solver in the lines, Uhrman was sent on patch duty into no man's land between the German and American lines. Becoming separated from his company sent in the lines, Uhrman was sent on patch duty into no man's land between the German and American lines. Becoming separated from his company sent on the sent of the s rades, he was forced to seek shelter in a shellhole.

According to his story, the firing was so intense that it was impossible to leave the shelter for three days and three nights. It was then he was reported "missing in action" and carried on the official casualty list as such.

to Maryland to Marry been expended for that purpose. The cost in Altoona, the report shows, has been $1,500,000.

"Sewer costs in some of the other cities follow: Allentown, $300,000; Bethlehem, $352,707; Chester, $216, 567; Coatesville, $40,000; Connells-ville, $110,000; Corry, $151,062; Hazleton, $342,450; Lancaster, $700,000; Lebanon, $180,000; Mc-Keesport, $490,021; Meadville, $201,411; Pittston, $408,976; Titus-ville, $163,000; York, $600,000.
"Sewer construction is paid for invarious ways in the cities of the third class. In some cases the money is raised by general taxafion; in others there is a levy against the abutting properties; in others bond issues are made; while in other instances the city and the abutting property owners join in paying for the construction. In a number of cities too, fees ranging from 70 cents to $1.25 per foot front are charged for tappage and this money is used to help pay for sewer construction.
"For third class cities, the report sets forth, maintain sewage disposal plants. They are Altoona, Lebanon, $75,000; that in Reading, $426,324, and the York Plant $35,000. Sewage in all of the cities is disposed of in either adjacent rivers, creeks or cesspools and in tome cases with the aid of Imhoff

Marysville Will Drive Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 13.—
Marriage litenses to the following Pennsylvania couples have been issued here: William A. Bickel and Clara M. Radell, both of Sunbury; Herbert S. Crider and Florence 1. Packard, both of Lock Haven: Harry E. Fessler, Joliette, and Sadie M. Ritzman, Tar City; William I. Eberhart and Margurite E. Crider, both of Lock Haven; Isaac Banks and Mary C. Smith, both of Harrisburg; Ardie Becker and Cora Alexander, both of Williamsport; Russell I. Gelwicks and Helcn I. Frank, both of Chambersburg; Hiram B. Thomas and Wilda Passel, both of Bloomsburg.

For Legion Post Members

New Cumberland, Set. 13.—Sunay services in Baughman Memorial lethodist church will be in keeping ith Epworth League day. At 6.30 m. an Epworth rally will be

Kick of Horse Fatal For Perry County Boy

Places Are Robbed of Several Hundred Dollars

Mrs. Boyles, the mother, was badly burned in an attempt to save her baby. The contents of the house were ruined by flames and house were ruined by flames and water.

The mother was on the porch when the explosion occurred. The flaming oil, shooting over the kitchen furniture, caused the flames to spread instantly.

The entire room and the child's coach was a mass of flames when the mother entered. She attempted to reach the coach but was driven back by the intense heat of the flames.

back by the intense neat of the fiames.

Volunteer firemen were unable to enter the room until the water hose could be attached to the nearest plug and the fiames controlled. When it was possible to reach the child it had been burned to a crisp.

Luncheon at This Party

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 13.—
Complimentary to their friends, Messrs. Langhorn and Simmons, who are staying at the National Hotel, Soltan and Vance Nailor entertained at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nailor, in West Main street.

The guests enjoyed music and games and luncheon was served to Miss Betty Trough, of Carlisle; Miss Bentz, Miss Martha Anderson, Miss Eleanor Harrold, Miss Mary Fink, Miss Vera Seidle and Miss Jessie Hollinger, Messrs. Langhorn, Simmons, Frank Hollinger, Samuel Hollinger, Soltan Nailor and Vance Nailor.

Personal and Social News of Towns on West Shore

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Miller, of New Cumberland, have returned from a wedding trip to New York city.

Mrs. C. T. Prowell returned to Philadelphia after a brief visit to Philadelphia after a brief visi

Rally at New Cumberland Hagerstown Has 27,000 Persons, Compilers Find

New Camberland, Set. 13.—Sunday services in Baughman Memorial Methodist church will be in keeping with Epworth League day. At 6.30 p. m. an Epworth rally will beheld. The Sunday school orchestra will furnish music. At 7.30 the Rev. V. T. Rue will preach a brief sermor, to the young people, followed by brief æddresses and music by the Emerson Glee Club.

TYRONE

For Perry County Boy

Duncannon, Pa., Sept. 13.—Russell Frank, aged 17 years and son of George Frank, of Wheatfield township, while trailing logs in the woods with a horse Wednesday, was kicked twice in the stomach, from the effects of which he died on Friday morning. Besides his parents, he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Oscar Wagner, of this place.

DUNCANNON

Duncannon, Pa., Sept. 13.—Mr and Mrs. Charles Ebner and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tannan and son, Harold, of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lehman, Jr., and little daughter, of Marysville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lehman, Jr., and little daughter, of Marysville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lehman, Sr.—A United States Army recruiting officer is in town for two days with headquarters at the postoffice.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunkle and two children, Kenneth and Eunice, of Altoona, spent the week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sieg.—The local demand for tenant houses and none to be had is one of the problems that can only be solved and that is by a building boom.—Arthur Foose, of Harrisburg, visited relatives and friends here.—James W. Flickinger, of Tyrone township, candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner, was in town looking up his political interests.

THIRD CLASS CITY | CRUSHED UNDER | BURGLARS BLAST | GIRL BAND PLAYERS ARE IN SEWERS ARE BIG | FREIGHT TRAIN TWO SAFES OPEN | DEMAND THROUGHOUT STATE

Reading Leads With Over 180 Harrisburg Brakeman Fatally Three Hagerstown Business Beaver Springs Proud of Organization That Is Gaining Fame in Towns of Central Pennsylvania; Figures in Welcome Home Demonstration and Big Family Gatherings; Is But Little More Than Year Old

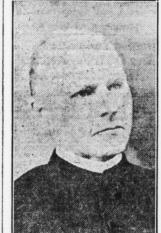

Beaver Springs, Pa., Sept. 13.—
All Central Pennsylvania is mighty proud of its girl's band, composed of young girls of Beaver Springs and of young girls of Beaver Springs and vicinity. The band was founded slightly more than a year ago by Palmer S. Mitchell, a local musician, who felt the need of such an organization in this little country town. The band numbers 36 members, and its services are in demand. Recently these girl musicians played in parades at Lewistown, Selinsgrove, Mount Union, Lewisburg and other central State

Finishes Thirty-Two

blue coats to match the skirt. In the accompanying photograph they are top row, left to right:

Misses Lou Romig, Lucile Wetzel, Janet Wetzel, Carrie Ulsh, Mary Spangler, Helen Wetzel, Alva Klinefter, Lettuce Mitchell, Nellie Krebs,

Man Whose Neck Was Years in Pastorate: Broken in Rutherford Gives to His Church Yards Awarded $25,000

REV. J. M. REIMENSNYDER

Milton, Pa., Sept. 13.—Rev. J. M. Reimensnyder has just celebrated his thirty-second anniversary as pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church here, one of the largest Lutheran congregations in the Susquehana Valley. Monday was anniversary day. Two sermon's he preached drew a large number of persons outside of the congregation. During these years he officiated at 1155 funerals, 1505 weddings, 722 baptisms, made 27,200 pastoral calls, offered 11,400 prayers for the sick, and delivered 9,168 sermons and lectures. He has contributed $5,150 to the church out of his own income and it is not large. He has seen his church grow from 300 members to more than 800.

Voters to Pass on Bond

The schools are so congested at present that it has become necessary

Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 13 .- Th3 se of J. Walter Widmyer, this city, against the director general of railroads, operating the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, which was removed from this court to Allegany county, Md., for trial, and resulted in the jury returning a verdict for $65,000 in favor of Widmyer, has been compromised for $25,000. By agreement of the attorneys the motion for a new trial and setting aside the verdict, as agreed upon. The court signed an order to this effect and also one for a settlement of the case. The proorder to this effect and also one for a settlement of the case. The proceedings ended what threatened to be a long and tedious litigation, probably reaching the United States Supreme Court. Widmyer, who was a freight conductor on the Western Maryland Railroad, was making up a train in the yards at Rutherford, Pa., when he was injured, and his neck broken.

The schools are so congested at present that it has become necessary to equip three more recitation rooms in the High School. Figures show that in the grade schools the average number of pupils to a teacher is 46, which is considered very high.

New Cumberland, Sept. 13.—The Rev. S. N. Good, of Penbrook, will preach in the local church on Sunday evening. The pastor, the Rev. C. H. Hughes, will preach at Ebernumber of pupils to a teacher is 46, which is considered very high.

LITTLE LINES FROM NEARBY

State's Oldest School Teacher Quits Duties; Taught For Sixty Years

Voters to Pass on Bond

Issue For School House

Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 13.

The Chambersburg school board has presented a resolution to submit to the electors at the next regular election the proposition of foating an $80,000 bond issue to build a new schoolhouse in the eastern section of town.

The schools are so congested at Chambersburg and Mrs. Slonaker, of Winchester, Va., were guests of their sister, Mrs. Charles Gray, East Keller street, and left tor their homes on Monday.

Miss Kate Poole, of Carlisle, spent several days in Mechanicsburg this week.—Among the Mechanicsburg this week.—Among the Mechanicsburg this week.—Among the Mechanicsburg this week attending the triennial conclave of the Knights Templar weres week attending the triennial conclave of the Knights Templar weres week attending the triennial conclave of the Knights Templar weres were down the finisher.—Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Hirshner.—Dr. E. Fisher, this city. several days in Mechanicsburg this week.—Among the Mechanicsburg people who were in Philadelphia this week attending the triennial conclave of the Knights Templar were: Mr. and Mrs. Murray L. Dick and Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Hirshner.—Dr. and Mrs. W. H. T. Collins, of Philadelphia, were guests at the home of the latter's father, J. B. Beistline, West Factory street.—Miss Alma Beck, of West Simpson street, has accepted a position in the department store of Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart, Harrisburg.—Miss Blanche Beistline, of East Locust street, left on Monday for Shippensburg, where she has enrolled as a student in the Cumberland Valley State Normal school.—Mrs. E. E. Strominger, of South Market street, was in Philadelphia this week attending the Knights Templar conclave.

Lewistown—Work again has been started on Victory Park on the river front at this place.

Waynesboro—C. B. Conner, new physical director at the Y. M. C. A., has arrived here to take up his work on the old fair grounds, where the new carpet mill of Masland & Sons is being erected.

West Fairview—The court appointed Charles Enser judge of election for West Fairview in place of Arby C. Kepford.

Shippensburg — Shippensburg's Sons of Veterans are planning a celebration in honor of the town's secure and soliors.

Waynesboro — The new Quincy was thrown open to public travel from the borough limits of Waynesboro to the Nunnery, a distance of nearly two miles.

Marysville—Lo prenching services of may be held in Zion Lutheran Church tomorrow. The pastor, the Rev. J. C. Reighard, is in Duncan non, assisting in the Welcome Home and church tomorrow. The pastor, the Rev. J. C. Reighard, is in Duncan non, assisting in the Welcome Home and the Welcome Home

SON FINDS AGED FATHER CORPSE

in Washhouse Early Yesterday Morning

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 13. acob Shugart, of South Middleton township, was found dead in the washhouse at his home early yester-day morning by his son Mervin, Mr. Shugart had been keeping house while his wife was visiting in Adams county. He was 72 years old and death is thought to have been caused by heart trouble. He was affiliated with the United Evangeli-cal Church and was well known in that locality. that locality Surviving are his wife and the cal Church and was well known in that locality.

Surviving are his wife and the following sons: Charles, of Carlisle; John, Ross G. and Mervin, of South Middleton township, and Wilbur, of North Middleton township. Also one brother, William Shugart, of Frankford township, and these sisters: Mrs. William Shugart, of Frankford township, and Miss Sarah Shugart, of Middlesex.

Acting Coroner James W. Eckels, of Carlisle, will hold an inquest.

Husband at Work in

Steel Plant Is Reported

As World War Victim

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 13.—J. W. Carothers, of this place, who served for a number of months in an engineering corps in France, during the world war, arrived at Camp Dix, early in the spring and was mustered out in April and returned to work at the Standard Steel Works where he is a rigger and its well and hearty. Yesterday his wife received a letter from the Government notifying her that her husband had been killed in France and the has should communicate with the War Department and receive full particulars of his death, also she was sent a paper to fill out regarding his insurance.

Mystic Chain Adjourns; to Gettysburg in 1920

Mystic Chain Adjourns; to Gettysburg in 1920

The William Shugart, of the ctitzens were decorated for the ceitizens were decorated for the citizens were decorated f

Youngest Naval Chaplain

ILL WITH DIPHTHERIA New Cumberland, Sept. 13.—Mrs. George Watkins, of Market street, is ill with diphthria. The house is un-der quarantine. This is the second case in Market street within a few

[Additional Central Pennsylvania News on Page 6.]

MARIETTA READY FOR ITS JUBILEE

Jacob Shugart Dies Suddenly River Borough Gaily Dressed to Welcome Home Boys From War Fronts

Marietta, Pa., Sept. 13.—Not in the history of Marietta has there been such earnest preparation for the welcome home celebration, which is to begin on Sunday and extend over Monday. The old home week celebration was a seven-day affair and a success, but because of the efforts of the various committees and their assistants this two-day celebration will go down in the river borough annals as a recordbreaker. Not only young, but old folks assisted in arranging the event.

Early in the week the homes of the citizens were decorated for the

to Gettysburg in 1920

Scranton, Sept. 13. — At the closing session of the State convention of the Knights of the Mystic Chain it was decided to hold the 1920 convention at Gettysburg at which time a drill contest of the uniformed rank will be held.

Members of the Degree of Naomi, the women's auxiliary at their concluding session placed the following in nomination for office the ensuing year: Grand commander, Mary Chaltat, Lancaster; grand toe commander, Mrs. Mary Foltz, Lock Haven; grand conductress, Mame Frankhouser, of Churchtown; Mary Brown, Pittsburgh, and Nellie Bilsher, Scranton; grand treasurer; Emma Steele, Pittsburgh, grand secretary.

Youngest Naval Chaplain

MOUNT UNION

Agreed upon. The court signed an order to this effect and also one for a settlement of the case. The proceedings ended what threatened to probably reaching the United States Supreme Court. Widney, who was a freight conductor on the Western Maryland Railroad, was making up a training the United States Supreme Court. Widney, was injured, and his Piremen to Sell Elk

Sandwiches to Pay For Truck Costing $8,200

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 12.—Citizens of this section who never aid the the company has purchased a large Elk weighing the purchased a large Elk weighing the purchased a large Elk weighing the company will help serve. The new termination of the largest funerals ever held the scool for so on October 4, at Burnham fre company has purchased a large Elk weighing the company will help serve. The new termination of the largest funerals ever held the scool for so on October 4, at Burnham fre company has purchased a large Elk weighing the company will help serve. The new termination of the largest funerals ever held the scool for so on October 4, at Burnham fre company has purchased a large Elk weighing the spurchased a large Elk weighing the surface of the surface and the scool for surface and the surf state Board of Health. It is re-ported there are ten or twelve cases in the city. The health au-thorities are investigating the milk from several dairies as being a pos-sible cause of contagion.

FARMS BRING 173,590 Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 13.—The total price paid for the farms of the James C. Packer estate in Chillisquakue county, sol dat public sale yesterday under direction of Attorney J. Simpson Kline, administrator of the estate, was $73,590.

HOME FROM ENCAMPMENT New Cumberland, Sept. 13.—William Emblek, a member of B. F. Eisenberger Fost, Grand Army of the Republic, returned from Columbus, O., where he attended the encampment.

DAY AND

NIGHT SCHOO

Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, Accounting, English, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Spelling, Etc.

Strictly Individual Promotion Register Now, Day and Night Sessions Open Now---Enter Any Time

Bell 125; Dial 4016

Two Separate Night Schools-One on Mon., Wed., Fri. The other Tues., Thurs.-7.30 to 9.30

BECKLEY'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

121 Market St. (Opp. Senate.) Catalog Free. "Harrisburg's Greatest Commercial School"