Country House Party Sends Miss Corbett Searching For Many Household Articles

Among the many prenuptial events for Miss Mary Bell Corbett whose marriage will be an event of this month, was a country house party this afternoon with Miss May C. McKee hostess at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank J. Wallis, in Dauphin.

There was a shower of household gifts hidden away in unexpected places to which the bride-elect was directed by clever verses attached to the packages. Silver, cut glass, exquisite china and linens, many of them hand-wrought, brought delight to her heart.

Supper was served on the porch among the vines and flowers to the following people: Miss Corbett, Miss Margaret Vance, Miss Katharine Herberow, Miss Margaretta Herberow, Miss Helen Beideman, Miss Constance Beideman, Miss Claire Demaree, of Newport; Miss Helen Wallis, Miss Grace Rhodes, Miss Frances Corbett, Mrs. Edmund M. Deeter, Mrs. Dean M. Hoffman, Miss Margaret Miller and Mrs. Wallis.

Another event given in compliment to Miss Corbett was a miscellaneous shower by members of the choir of the First Presbyterian Church, Steelton, of which she was a former director. The guests met at the home of Miss Catherine Fry and showered cut glass, linen, aluminum and many other beautiful gifts upon the bride-elect.

Wholesalers Admit Sale of Army Food at Enormous Profits

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Evidence that foods are being stored in furniture storage warehouses and that wholesale grocers bought canned goods from the Government at various prices and sold them at a good profit, was brought out to-day at an inquiry conducted by the city food bureau. One wholesaler said his profit was 33 1/2 per cent. Another admitted charging the city and selling the Government canned goods as his own brand.

One storage house man admitted that foods were being stored in the furniture warehouses. Another made a denial but the chairman of the bureau replied to him that he had evidence that thousands of dollars worth of food were stored in his warehouse and that Morris and Company alone had 20,000 cases there.

A wholesaler, who said such food is being stored, said that shipments to Europe were leaving little surplus in the United States. His firm bought 28,758 cans of string beans from a Government warehouse here at 8 1/3 cents a can or $1 a case of 12 cans and sold them to retailers at $1.25. One wholesaler bought canned beans from the Government at 9 cents a can and sold them for $1.35 a case. Still another bought beans at 8 1/4 cents a can and sold at $1.25 a case and admitted he had removed the labels and substituted his own.

"Early in August," Mr. Heinz said, "Attorney General Palmer requested former state food administrators, as private citizens, to ask former county administrators to appoint fair price committees and in a great many instances his request has been complied with. I felt that it was my public duty to do this and I have been endeavoring to get fair price committees appointed throughout the State as rapidly as possible, so that when Attorney General Palmer is able to obtain legislation granting authority to these committees they can begin operations."
