

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO., Telephone Building, Federal Square

E. J. STACKPOLE, President and Editor-in-Chief

W. R. OYSTER, Business Manager

G. M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor

Members of the Associated Press—The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Entered at the Post Office at Harrisburg, Pa., as second-class matter.

By carrier, ten cents a week; by mail, $3.00 a year in advance.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1919

Whom the heart of man shuts out, Sometimes the heart of God takes in.

—Lowell.

JOHN MITCHELL

GOVERNOR SPROUL'S tribute to John Mitchell, on the occasion of the noted labor leader's funeral in Scranton yesterday, was well deserved.

Nothing better has been written of his character, his life and the affection and respect in which he was held than the following by his fellows of the New York State Industrial Commission, of which he was chairman:

In his death the members of the commission have lost not only a faithful friend but also an inspiring leader, wise counselor and an energetic administrator.

THE ORGANIZATION

WILLIAM M. HARGEST, Deputy Attorney General of Pennsylvania and vice-president of the American Bar Association, made the following remarks before a meeting at Middletown Thursday evening as to why he is urging the nomination of Republican candidates supported by the Republican organization:

The issue to be determined at the primary is the personnel of the respective candidates, and their fitness for the positions to which they aspire, seems to be whether the Republican voters of this county will approve of the present Republican organization.

By Mr. Hargest's remarks are worthy of more than passing consideration. Always, about election time, there are efforts to discredit any candidate who has "organization" support, whether he be Republican or Democrat.

There are three kinds of rats in the country, according to a little booklet on the subject just issued by the Government—the Norway, or common brown rat, the common black rat and the Alexandrian rat, which is the Bolshevist of its species, a nasty, dirty creature with whiskers and a temper that would turn a wildcat green with envy.

By starving him, through the use of rat proof receptacles for food and covered metal garbage cans.

By depriving him of breeding places, through the abolition of plank yards and passageways.

By refusing him admission to the comfort of your buildings, through rat proof construction and screened basement openings.

organization sponsors such men as James E. Lentz, the best recorder Dauphin county ever had, who has not only filled his office to the satisfaction of the voters, but has given generously of his services in all manner of war work; when it supports such men as Dr. Henry M. Stine and Charles C. Cumber and others like them for public office, it commands the respect and confidence of the public.

Other county offices manned by organization men have been equally well managed.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

So, when the organization now places the stamp of its approval on a candidate there are many who accept it as the guarantee of a good manner of work.

rodents. He'll eat anything, not stopping at a very small child if particularly hungry. He has been pretty well killed off and the Government adjures all of us who see him to attack at once and crush him.

The United States Public Health Service doesn't limit rat killing to any stated methods, but says that rat proofing one's home and barns and granaries is more effective than trusting to rat catchers—mechanical or animal—traps or poisons.

Politics in Pennsylvania

More candidates for judicial elections, county and municipal officers, including aldermen and justices of the peace, ward and township and precinct officers, will be nominated in Pennsylvania next Tuesday than in almost any year since the constitutional amendments of 1909 became effective.

Judge William H. Keller, of the superior court, is not opposed for nomination for that tribunal.

Candidates for common pleas judges will be nominated in Allegheny, Philadelphia, Luzerne, Lancaster, Berks, Lackawanna, Juniata, Perry, Monroe-Pike, Somerset, Washington, Westmoreland and Lehigh counties, the latter being a newly created additional judgeship; for orphan courts in Philadelphia, Allegheny, Schuylkill, Cambria and Washington, the two latter counties nominating candidates for such office for the first time; two for municipal court in Philadelphia and one in York.

County tickets will be nominated in every county, most of them nominating county commissioners. All will be on party tickets.

Mr. Thomas: Mr. President—Mr. Norris: I would not have given Barney Baruch $150,000. I would have given $1,500 people who are to advise me unless I expected to consider their advice when it would give me a headache.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

Mr. Thomas: I did not wish to interrupt the Senator. Many of his comments and criticisms may be well applicable to me, but I do not know whether the President follows the advice of his retinue or not.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

AFTER YOU'VE FINISHED A ROTTEN GAME OF GOLF AND YOU RENOUNCE THE GAME FOREVER

AND YOU GO HOME AND TELL FRIEND WIFE YOU NEVER EXPECT TO PLAY GOLF AGAIN - NEVER!

AND THEN ONE DAY A DELIVERY BOY HANDS YOU A GOLF CLUB SENT BY YOUR OLD FRIEND GEORGE O'NEIL

AND YOU DECIDE TO GIVE THE CLUB A "TRY-OUT" ON ACCOUNT OF THE THRILL IT GIVES YOU JUST TO HANDLE IT - AND YOU HASTEN TO THE GOLF LINKS

AND YOU INFORM YOUR BUSINESS ASSOCIATES OF YOUR TERRIBLE DECISION

AND THE VERY FIRST CRACK YOU TAKE WITH IT YOU GET A RECORD CARRY - OH BOY! AIN'T IT A GR-RR-RAND AND GLOR-I-RIOUS FEELIN'?

EACH WAR A WORSE ONE

M. A. ROBERT C. COTTON, U. S. A., the editor of the Infantry Journal, the official organ of the United States Infantry Association, in an article written for the association compares the casualties and cost of the Civil War with those of the recent war, and as a result of these comparisons reaches the conclusion that "one has but to compare one war with a preceding one and the necessity for preparedness is foreboding and ominous."

"In 1860 the population of the United States was 31,443,321," says Major Cotton. "The military population of the Northern States was 3,769,020. The military population of the Southern States was 1,954,123. The military population of the border States, Kentucky, Maryland and Missouri, was 516,955."

"The total American casualties to November 11, 1918, when hostilities ceased in France, were given out by the chief of staff on November 23 as follows:

Killed and died of wounds $6,154 Died of disease 14,811 Deaths unclassified 2,204 Amputated 179,525 Missing 1,160

"Total $26,117 "On October 10, 1918, American troops held their greatest amount of front line, holding 23 per cent, or 162.3 kilometers of front, the Allied total that time being 712 kilometers, or about 425 miles.

"Before the war the United States had a very small Army, spending a few hundred millions of dollars. In the war the Army had to spend $14,000,000, and these sums were expended in such a way that there was no graft, very little waste and almost no delay in payment. Nearly half of this amount was spent to pay, clothe and feed the Army. The remainder was spent to purchase equipment, munitions, transportation and services for prosecuting the war.

"America's total war expenses totaled $23,363,000,000. We could have paid the Revolutionary War for 1,000 years.

"Of this, $2,069,000,000 represented extra war costs. Of this sum $14,000,000,000 was spent by the Government of the United States. These figures, of course, do not represent any future payments, such as insurance, claims or benefits, which will add large sums to the above.

"On May 16, 1919, the Treasury Department announced that our total credits to all Allies was $9,370,213,000.

"This goes on war was becoming more terrific, more awful to contemplate. Everything seems to be in a more concentrated form than previously. Each war is the forerunner of a worse war to follow, and yet we seem to hesitate in formulating a military policy of preparedness."

NO WONDER GERMANY QUIT

By MAJOR FRANK C. MAHIN Of the Army Recruiting Station

During the last few months of the war the Allied reserves were built up rapidly, due to the constant shortage of the lines as the Germans were driven back. The result was that in addition to the great offensives already going on from Verdun to the sea, General Foch was planning two further great offensives which would have resulted in the fall of Metz.

The first was the attack of the 2nd American Army on the front between the rivers Meuse and Moselle. It was in this region that for four years the St. Mihiel salient had thrust its nose deep into the French lines and which the 1st American Army pinched off in September. On November 11 the newly-formed 2nd Army was to drive in towards Metz, taking the fortress of Longwy and the invaluable Briey iron fields. The 1st Army was to continue its drive towards the Dutch border to the west of Metz, thus enveloping that great fortress on two sides with American troops. Of course, the 2nd Army was to take place on November 14 and was to be made mainly by the 1st Army and a few American divisions helping out. This attack was to be made through the Vosges Mountains in an area where there had never been a major offensive during the entire war.

It has been seldom that as much interest has been taken in a primary in a so-called "off year" as at present. The general impression is that there will be heavy votes polled in the cities. In a number of the judicial contests it will take some time to finish the votes. Preparations for the primary election in the Capitol to list the primary election returns as soon as received.

Representative T. J. Heffernan, of Philadelphia, has decided not to be a candidate for council in that city.

Representative Theodore Campbell also withdrew his name as a candidate for council in that city.

Charges that Philadelphia liquor dealers are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

PUNISHING THE DOLLAR

[From New Haven Register]

In the session of the American Bar Association marked by an unusual number of able and thoughtful addresses, the discourse of Judge Gary will command itself as pregnant with common sense.

At a moment in the country's industrial career when the need of an amicable and sympathetic understanding between capital and labor is more keenly to be desired than at any other period, the situation is complicated by an extraordinary coolness. And while labor is being represented from many quarters in demands and policies that are threatening the efficiency of our industries, capital is being marked with the mark of the capitalist. There can be no objection by any honest business man to the restraining of any capitalist in the use of illegitimate business methods or predatory schemes. But in restraining the capitalist it is important that capital be not impeded. The dollar, as Judge Gary points out is an absolutely innocent factor in business. Yet laws and rules of business conduct are proposed and are being seriously considered in Congress which have for the purpose not the punishment of the vicious capitalist but the crippling of capital.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

THE SPIRIT OF WASTE

[From New Haven Register]

In his address before the American Bar Association, Elihu Root put his finger on the crux of the situation by saying that in spite of all conditions calling for thrift, extravagance was never greater than now.

Benjamin Franklin might have made the speech. It contains wisdom as old as Solomon and some of it consolidates accumulations of experience dating back to the Stone Age. Under our theory of life every man should earn his own living and provide for his future obligations. Some few have provided more for themselves by others, but unless they are incompetent they are not fortunate. No able bodied person deserves a living which in any way or another is not earned by his own contributions.

If the people keep on selling ten millions of Liberty and Victory bonds daily to buy luxuries, the time will come when they will repent. People do as if there had been no death, as if there had been no taxes, as if there had been no war, as if there had been no common sense.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

—Harry W. Chamberlain, Milton attorney, was here on a Capitol business trip yesterday.

—F. W. Robbins, head of Williamsport schools, is proud of the fact that his city will start two new schools this year.

—Dr. Wilmer Krusen is taking personal charge of medical inspection in Philadelphia schools.

—The A. W. Fisher, who is also an attorney, has been developing into a walker.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

DO YOU KNOW

—That Harrisburg made steel which was used for manufacture of gun parts during the war?

—Early military companies used to drill on the south side of Market Square.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"

In urging the nomination of business men as the Republican candidates for county commissioners in Luzerne county the Wilkes-Barre Record says: "During the past year the present Democratic board of County Commissioners spent $225,000 in road improvement, but only can find $25,000 worth of improvement." During the past four years a road job has been a notorious loss.

Do you realize that along part of the Vosges from the Rhine was only 18 miles away and in plain sight from the mountain tops. Eighteen miles to go, and now the Germans are being lined up for the Bonwiller nomination in that city are being denied.

The Scranton Republican is taking a great interest in the civil service row in Washington. It says editorially: "In the House, Congressman Stevenson, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, has introduced a resolution to prevent the Civil Service Commission from attacking the President's budget."

The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph says it is glad to get out to see the real folks. Said President Wilson to citizens of Mandan, N. D. "Didn't he ever see any 'real folks' back here in the eastern Commonwealths?"