Little Lancaster Girl Is Missing

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 15. — Mary Edgerly, 11 years old, disappeared while running on an errand for her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Edgerly, of 32 Sherman street, Saturday morning. The mother sent her to the grocery store half a block from home, at 6.30 a. m. and at 9 o'clock, when the child had not returned, she scoured the neighborhood in search of her. A few blocks away, in Ann street between -East King and Orange streets, she found a package of half a dozen cakes and an empty wooden box lying in the gutter and corresponding with the items she had sent the child to purchase. Saturday evening found the little girl still missing, and the mother, after fruit-less search and inquiry, reported the case to the police, but no further clew has been found.

They will live at the Penn-Harris for a time Captain Wilson is in the government service, stationed at New Cumberland.

Investigating Charge That Burleson Is Debauching Act

Washington, Sept. 15.-Former Washington, Sept. 15.—Former Civil Service Commissioner Gallowey told the Senate Postal Committee told day that when Robert T. Wade, a Democrat, made, a lower rating in the contest for appointment as postmaster at Moorehead City, N. C., than did Cleveland Willis, a Republican, Postmaster General Burleson asked for a reclassification which reversed the ratings and gave the job to Wade.

A similar change was made, Galloway testified, in the appointment of a postmaster at Buffalo, Wyomling.
