Jazz Band Coming

Marysville may bring its jazz band with it for this afternoon's affair, but this arrangement has not definitely been made. It had been expected to make the presentation at Saturday afternoon's melee, but plans were changed only this morning and some of the arrangements have been rather hasty.

For this afternoon's affair, Kid Stricker and the veteran Harry Biever will be again sent to the mound to face each other by Manager Stees, of Marysville, respectively. These moundsman have hurled every inning of the games already played, both displaying high-class form. Honors thus far have been practically even in every respect, each moundsman winning one game and tying the third.

Same Lineup

Little change is expected in the Marysville lineup for the game. With one exception, and that not certain, the same contingent which played an unusually peppery game on the island on Saturday, will be used to-day. Freddie Lightner, right fielder, is being bothered considerably by his right ankle which was broken in the earlier part of Cincinnati Fans Ready to Back Team With Good Odds Cincinnati, Sept. 18.—With the pennant lashed securely to their flag pole, Cincinnati fans can now have the privilege for the first time in history of doping their own chances for the world's championship. The rabid Red fans believe their idols will trim the White Sox. They are betting that way at 6 to 4. Slim Sallee, veteran southpaw, will probably be Pat Moran's selection for the first contest. Pat not only figures him as one of the best of his all-star pitching staff, but he is banking on the experience of the veteran to get him over any rough places. Walter Reuther will likely get the second call. He has led the league most of the reason. Hod Eller, the "no-hit" king, may alternate with the portside pair.
