WOMEN MEET TO

DISCUSS THRIFT

Plans For Campaign Brought Up in Yesterday's Meeting
at the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, chairman for Dauphin county of Women's Thrift Work, presided at a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the John
Y. Boyd Hall in the interest of thrift work. Fifty delegates from all parts of the county were present and Mrs. Henry G. Hiestand, of Marietta, chairman of Group 1, spoke on the aim of the thrift campaign saying that the purpose is not merely to have every one buy thrift stamps but to stamp thrift on the heart and mind of everyone. She added that the Government has prepared booklets on the subject to be distributed to school children and that the county and city superintendents of schools have promised to co-operate in the movement. Arrangements are being made to have one woman in every borough and township and one from each ward in this city, to be of the Kiwanis Club held at the Penn-Harris to-day.

The luncheon was a lively one, featured by singing and all manner of laugh-bringing stunts. The speaker of the day was L. H. Dennis, of the State Department of Education, who gave Harrisburg a big boost. Mr. Dennis said he had lived in several places and was attracted to them, but that this city fascinated him beyond all others. He preached the gospel of boosting your own city and the Kiwanians gave him a big hand.

The attendance prize was won by Harry Perkins, of Bowman and Company, who carried away the walking stick and silk tie presented by Harry Messersmith. It was decided to hold the next weekly lunchen on in the grill, owing to the big convention which would take up the usual luncheon room.
