

WAR MOTHERS TO HOLD MEET AT WASHINGTON

Altoona Woman Is Member of the National Board of Directors

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 20.—War mothers all over the United States are completing plans to be offered for the strengthening and perfecting of the National American War Mothers' organization when it meets in Washington, D. C., on September 23 and 30, and October 1 and 2.

National headquarters for the National American War Mothers—the only organization of its kind that is made up solely of mothers who offered their sons for Army Navy and Marine service—are in Indianapolis, and Mrs. Alice French is president.

Any assistance the mothers can give in helping to curb the wave of unrest that has swept over the country will be given, it is said, and this subject will be thoroughly discussed. One of the features of the convention will be the meeting for mothers whose sons lost their lives while in the service. Various committee meetings also are on the program.

Mrs. J. A. Mitchell, of Kentucky, is chairman of the election board. Chairmen of other committees include: Mrs. Silver Sengard, of North Dakota, constitution; Mrs. John C. McNutt, of Indiana, publicity and Mrs. Alice Gross, finance.

The National Board of Directors are Mrs. Dorcas A. Hutchcraft, Paris, Ky.; Mrs. Emma V. W. Strandrod, Pocatello, Idaho; Mrs. Oliver Harman, New York; Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, Indianapolis; Mrs. Edith C. Mettling, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Jean Millesen, Altoona, Pa.; Mrs. John Champion, Rochester, Minn.; Mrs. Grace Fable, Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. H. R. Gould, New Orleans, La.; and Mrs. Marion Reese, Devils Lake, North Dakota.

MANY ALIENS ARE EAGER TO VISIT STATES

American Consulate in London Kept Busy With Many Nationals

London, Sept. 20.—The United States consulate here has been a veritable Tower of Babel this month. Cosmopolitan London has been pouring a varied array of nationals into the American gateway in England with the single hope that they will be allowed to go to the United States. It is a case of many knocking and few going.

No one is allowed to go unless he or she has good reason for being in the United States. The wealthy Brits who wish to escape after-war conditions here and see a country he has heard so much about recently is in the same category as the Italian or French waiter who wants to seek a job "out there." But if any one has anything to sell—these cases are in the great minority, however, as few people in England have anything now that is needed in the United States—or if they wish to go to purchase, they are given every facility.

Every morning an hour or so before the consulate opens a line of aliens forms. Often there are from seven-five to one hundred in the queue and more keep coming. An average of nine out of ten will be disappointed. A British woman, evidently of means and just as evidently lacking in diplomacy made no attempt to conceal her irritation at standing in line an hour and a half. Her reason she said for wanting to go to the United States was to visit some relatives.

"Is your presence in the United States necessary because of the financial condition of your relatives?" the examiner asked her. "Certainly not," rather haughtily. "Then I cannot grant you a visa." The examiner was then deluged with threats but it was of no avail. The next applicant was an American officer who wished to get a visa for a girl with whom he said he intended to marry when they reached the United States. Her type raised in the mind of the examiner the question whether she would be gladly received by the mother of the young man. Her case was held up for consideration. The young officer doubtless is home as he expected to sail within a few days and the fiancée has not presented herself again.

Mexican Socialists Adopt a Resolution Against Intervention

Mexico City, Sept. 20.—The Mexican National Socialist party in a resolution which El Heraldo De Mexico asserts was adopted "at a conference" of party leaders, denounced intervention by the United States and allies itself with the efforts of President Carranza. The resolution as printed in tirade against capitalism and asserts the exercise of armed force against Mexico to overthrow the Carranza government would be only to secure one "more obedient to Wall street." It issues a call to Mexican workers to unite against intervention and to prevent this "hideous rape of a young, aspiring and democracy-loving nation."

With the War Over Painters Are Getting Busy in London Again

London, Sept. 20.—London office and mercantile buildings are blossoming out in colors, now that the war is ended and the house painter has returned to his task. London is far less smoky this year than in former years because of the decreased use of coal and the increased use of gas and electricity. This prompts the use of lighter colors by the painters.

"Good Ol' King Oscar" is now 7c." Did I squeal? Buddie, I came pretty close to it 'til I remembered readin' somethin' about ol' John Rising Costs of Production. So I chips in another thin dime, grabs me five big brown K. O.'s—four in my vest an' one in my face! Oh, Boy!! — An' then I drifts down to th' corner an' plunks down a Franc—I mean Two Bits —on the cigar counter and I says careless-like, "Five K. O.'s"—almost said "Cinq Roi d'Oscars." Well, Fred (that's the cigar man) sees my two bits an' gives a little cough, like a guy that's been walkin' post in an all-night rain, an' says sort o' easy like, "King Oscar is now 7c." Well, I paid fifty bucks f'r this $25 suit an' there's one point I DO notice about K. O. sure. She ain't deteriorated none, anyway—that's a cinch!" A Doughboy. This Doughboy Is Right! K. O. Hasn't "Deteriorated None." King Oscar has been the same good nature-mellowed-filler, Sumatra-wrapped smoke for over 29 years. And here's a promise — — — Rather than cut quality, we'll quit making K. O. Keep this fact in mind, Smokers, and as long as you can buy K. O. you'll be getting the same joyful, good-natured smoke you've always been getting. John C. Herman & Co.
