BULGARIANS RETURNING TO PRE-WAR WORK

Internal Condition of Country as Peaceful, Says Ivan Guichof

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 23.—Bulgaria is one of the most tranquil states in Europe to-day, says Ivan S. Guichof, formerly Bulgarian Minister of Foreign Affairs and now minister to Switzerland.

Instead of resorting to revolution, the Bulgarians have returned to their farms and peace-time pursuits, believing this to be the only way of curing the ills caused by two successive wars, the minister adds. M. Guichof ascribes this peaceful internal condition and the opposition in Bulgaria to anarchistic or communist propaganda to the fact that the majority of the Bulgarian people, eighty-five per cent., are peasants, owners of their own land and homes. This is sufficient, he says, to show that the people so constituted as the Bulgarians will always be averse to communistic tendencies.

Another reason for internal peace is the fact that crops in Bulgaria have been good.

State Department Seeks to Check Work of Dry League in Europe

By Associated Press.

London, Sept. 23.—The American State Department is taking measures to check the extension of the Anti-Saloon League's prohibition campaign in Europe, according to the Daily Mail, which says two agents of the league have recently sought passport facilities in Paris preparatory to visiting England where they were unable to obtain the necessary visas.

"The American State Department," the newspaper continues, "is fully alive to the detrimental effects which an extension of the Anti-Saloon League's activities to Europe might have on international relations, especially at the present time, and is said to be resolved to avoid possible misunderstanding." The Daily Mail which is conducting a campaign in opposition to William E. Johnson, organizer of the Anti-Saloon League, says it is considered unlikely that many more Anti-Saloon campaigners will be allowed to embark for England at present and quotes Mr. Johnson as saying that officers of the organization are "searched at all the attention which has been focussed on the campaign here."

He Won't Drop Dead Any More

"My husband suffered terribly from stomach and liver trouble, which caused such bloating of gas as to seriously affect his heart. Doctors warned him that he might drop dead at any time from this trouble. A friend in Cleveland advised him to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and since taking it, 4 months ago, he is feeling like a young man again. All his friends are surprised at his appearance." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. H. C. Kennedy, Clark's 2 drug stores and druggists everywhere.

WILM & WINC

Hundreds of Harrisburgers saw Stewart Edward White's greatest production, "A Modern Shylock," at the Colonial Theater yesterday and liked it so much that they couldn't help liking the picture as it is hailed as the greatest story of Western life ever produced. The novel, entitled "The Westerners," has made Mr. White's name class among the great fiction writers of the present day. Many pictures produced from novels, however, do not follow the story closely, but deviate in numerous ways. The author of this famous book, however, claims the photoplay is exactly what he conceived when he wrote the novel. It is not exaggerated in any way, shape or form.

The Sterling Saxophone Four now playing at the Majestic Theater scored a tremendous audience that crowded the theater. Every member of the saxophone quartet is a clever musician of the first rank. Their offering is so jazzy that everyone in the audience felt like swaying to its catchy strains. They are only one of the five headline Keith acts playing at the theater the first half of this week. Complete with this exceptional show is a laugh-rollicking comedy. Next Monday the initial episode of the Helen Holmes serial, entitled "The Fatal Fortune," will be shown.

ABOUT PLAYERS

Lillian Hall has been receiving so many fan letters lately that she is afraid it will soon be necessary to engage a secretary. Needless to say, she enjoys the ones from Japan most of all.

Burton King is busy thinking up ways and means to kill time. He is a busy man, because the scenario compels George to sell his brain to the highest bidder. King is sure that George doesn't win by living any longer than he does. And as one man couldn't possibly keep up enough serious methods to keep a fifteen-episode serial going, the director has to help him out. Meanwhile, King is quite worried for fear they'll forget it's only a movie.

Olive Thomas, Director Ralph Ince and company have gone to Marblehead, Mass., for scenes in "Miss Thomas," the Selznick production, "The Girl From Out Yonder." It seems that a sea-coast town plays an important part in the story.

Stuart Holmes is said to be getting all his summer and camping out in Maine, so if he can't be found around the beach during the season, he is no use hunting for him in New York.

Marc McDermott, who distinguished himself in "Kathleen," has been seen as the duke who turned out to be so much nicer than he seemed at first. He will also appear in "The Amazing Lovers."

Edmund Goulding, the most prolific writer that we know in New York at the present time, is working on "The Trial of Two Normans," a story by Talmadge. Were it anyone else it would be quite safe to assume that this report would have been forgotten for a few weeks at least, but as it is, we know it will be finished and almost forgotten by the time this goes to press.

THIRST CRAZED GIRLS MOB HOT DESERT WELLS

The thousands of Armenians deported by the Turks during the time of the Armenian atrocities perpetrated in 1915, which are shown in "Auction of Souls," now showing at the Victoria, these girls walked many miles across the deserts without water. Their lips parched, their tongues cleaving to the roof of their mouths, they are seen at last approaching a well. No longer afraid of the swords or bayonets of the Turks, they make a mad rush for the water. The wildest of beastly disorders are no more insane than the charge of these women who actually suffer bloodshed to gain a drink. All cannot get water to fill their mouths, so they crouch upon the ground, touching their hot lips to the drops wrung from the garment of those who have been pushed into the water by the rush.

EILEEN VAN BIENE IN "MAYTIME," MUSICAL PLAY AT THE ORPHEUM FRIDAY-SATURDAY

Those to whom theatrical entertainment of established quality appeals are certain to be interested in the announcement that on Friday evening and Saturday matinee and night will be the first presentation here of Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert's production of the popular and "different" play with music, "Maytime." This refreshing dramatic and musical novelty with book and lyrics by Rida Johnson Young, and musical settings by Sigmund Romberg, is as most newspapers are aware, the outstanding popular success in recent seasons in New York City.

"Maytime," the brilliant Shubert musical novelty, which Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert will offer for the first time here at the Orpheum next Friday night and Saturday matinee and night.

"Maytime" is the work of Rida Johnson Young, one of America's foremost feminine playwrights. She is responsible for many successes, but none of Mrs. Young's former hits, however, approach the record for popularity with all classes of theatergoers established by "Maytime," which in New York alone was seen over half a million times during its run there that lasted over a year. The musical score, with which the story of the play is embellished, was provided by Sigmund Romberg, composer of many of the songs made popular in these elaborate winter garden spectacles. The hauntingly pretty "Will You Remember" song which recurs throughout the play, has the continent because of the large made the fame of "Maytime" across the continent. It is embellished with records and piano copies. "Maytime," which is in four acts or episodes, employs the talents of sixty-five persons, including an attractive, youthful chorus. It is staged on a sumptuous set, with elaborate finances and true to every detail of the widely varying period of New York life it depicts.

DOUBLE ATTRACTION

At the Regent Harrisburgers find that the double attraction was the best program of the season at the Regent Theater. It will be repeated today and to-morrow. The pictures are "The Dark Star" and a Mack Sennett comedy.

The big Paramount-Artcraft special, "The Dark Star," based upon Robert W. Chambers' famous novel, is a thrilling photoplay and scored a decided hit at the Regent yesterday. The picture has the most important role of a girl who lives under the influence of an evil planet.

Banking Institute to Open For Fall Work

The opening meeting of the Harrisburg Chapter, American Institute of Bankers for the coming season will be held Friday evening at eight o'clock at the Colonial Country Club. William A. Nickert, assistant cashier Eighth National Bank, Philadelphia, and member of the National Executive Council of the A. I. B., and Al. K. Thoman, cashier East End Bank and secretary of the Harrisburg Clearing House Association will talk, as will also George Ross Hull, who has been selected as instructor for the coming season. Mr. Hull will outline the course to be covered during the coming year. A buffet luncheon and informal dancing will follow.

AURORA MARDIGANIAN

the sole survivor of 500,000 Armenian girls who were captured by the Turks and sold on the slave block to the highest bidder, all because they would not denounce the Christian religion and accept Mohammed as their God.

THE ONLY PICTURE THAT EVER PLAYED AT $10 A SEAT

People in Boston, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia paid $10 to see this wonderful screen production. They were more than satisfied.

Advertising Clubs Approve Peace Pact

New Orleans, Sept. 23.—Resolutions pledging faith in the Peace Treaty and League of Nations and urging the ratification by the Senate "without amendment or reservation" were adopted by the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at their fifteenth annual convention here yesterday.

The resolution was introduced by James Schermerhorn, editor and publisher of the "Detroit Times." When a cue for a second was issued, several hundred men arose and finally a representative of the Dallas, Texas, delegation made himself heard. He announced that "three hundred and fifty Texas delegates wish to second it."

MONEY OR LOVE?

The answer to this question is most dramatically shown in the latest production, "A Modern Shylock," which the actor-evaangelist, Mr. Robert Downing, will present under the management of Mr. Arthur C. Diston at the Orpheum for three days, starting tonight with matinee Wednesday and Thursday.

WILLIAM HODGE IN "THE GUEST OF HONOR"

An event of theatrical importance and of great interest is contained in the announcement that William Hodge will appear at the Orpheum Theater for one night only, Wednesday.
