

PUPILS OF CAMP CURTIN SCHOOL TO RULE SELVES

Every Boy and Girl Enthusiastic Over Game of Good Citizenship

The student citizens of the Camp Curtin Junior High School Democracy are noticeably enthusiastic over their civic responsibilities, duties and privileges.

girl playing up to the game of good citizenship with better understanding and skill. The organization of the Camp Curtin Democracy is felt by each member of its population. The government is centralized in the law and order force, comprising Mr. Brehm, as the administrator; his three appointed officers and their committees. Charles L. Sweigart is the teacher counselor, to whom student head lieutenants, Paul Donmoyer and Millard Graeff are directly responsible. The sublieutenants in turn are directly responsible to them and have been appointed by the home room teachers.

These officers are also responsible for the conduct of their fellow citizens and for the care and protection of all interior property.

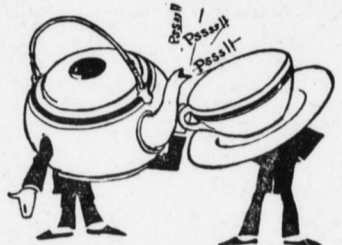

U. S. Food Sales by Post End Tomorrow Washington, Sept. 23. — Sales of Army food through the parcel post system will be stopped on Wednesday, and for a time thereafter all stores of foodstuffs in the hands of the Government will be sold through the retail stores which the War Department intends to open in twenty-four cities of the United States, Thursday.

Belgian Royalty on High Seas, Bound For Shores of United States Ostead, Sept. 23. — King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Crown Prince Leopold, of Belgium, are to-day on the high seas on their voyage to the United States. The steamer George Washington, which had been at anchor near Calais, left her moorings yesterday afternoon shortly after the royal couple went on board from the United States destroyer Ingraham, which took the sovereigns out of Ostead shortly before noon.

Thousands of school children and boys across lined the pier, cheering and singing the national anthem. Queen Elizabeth waved her hand to the children in acknowledgment. Hundreds of bathers along the beach joined in the ovation their cheers continuing until the destroyer had been lost in the mist that hung over the water.

New Jersey Is Nominating Governor Trenton, N. J., Sept. 23. — New Jersey is holding primaries to-day to nominate candidates for governor, the State Senate and the Assembly. Chief interest centered in the contests for the Republican and Democratic candidates for governor. The Republican candidates are Governor William N. Kuylen, State Comptroller Newton A. Bugbee, City Commissioner Thomas L. Raymond, of Newark and Warren C. King, a bound book manufacturer. The Democratic gubernatorial aspirants are State Senator Edward I. Edwards, of Jersey City; James R. Nugent, of Newark and Frank M. McDermitt, of Newark.

The inside story of a Teapot

So long as Tetley's is inside of the tea pot, it makes little difference whether the pot is china or earthenware. It's what's inside the tea pot that counts! Particular people insist on Tetley's Tea. That is because it's the different tea. Different because of the delightful flavor, an expert blend of teas from 15 or more tea gardens. Different because of the refreshing fragrance—it's thoroughly delicious. Try a cup of Tetley's clear amber colored Orange Pekoe Tea.

Recently a committee from the faculty was appointed: George H. Ritchie, Miss Edna Stambaugh and Miss Annie Schlayer for the purpose of conferring with head lieutenants, Graeff and Donmoyer, in the selection of a badge for these student-control groups. Two class guides, a boy and girl, appointed by each home room teacher from the home room class, head each line as it proceeds single file to its various recitations. By virtue of their position at the head of the line, these guides prevent friction with other classes moving simultaneously with their own. These guides are: Elizabeth Paley, Edward Cohen, Thaddeus Carter, Harriet Witman, Sarah Michelovitz, Harvey Klaer, Gertrude Mages, William Shreadley, Richard Delmotte, Mildred Yingling, Helen Stutler, John Bishop, Edith Mann, Beatrice Foster, Hyman Lewis, Harriet Adams, John Warden, Erna Garrett, Dorothy Trout, Harold Smedley, John Burd, Virginia Wert, Lillian Caper, Robert Dobbin, Mary Brayer, Herbert Gardner, Helen Peters, Ebert Klitch, Ruth Allen, Raymond Balsbaugh, Earl Spohn, Mildred Conley, Harry Hartell, Lillian Fritz, Robert Miller, Ma'iste Davis, Gertrude Bowers, Raymond Fogle, Tillie Williams, Merle Laman, Rosanna Gastrock, Otto Hans, Mabel Potteiger, Harry McGann, Stella Reber, William Jacobs, Mildred Pinkerton, Howard Shaffner, John Knipple, Blanche Clark, Lillian Giosser, Howard Pettibone, Mildred Fralick, Ediga Dapp, William Kurtz, Eliza Keeter, Anna Smith, Harry Pelfer.

At present, kindly reminders from the student-officers are the only means usually found necessary in securing the willing improvement of citizens who sometimes tend to go Tom Sawyerwise. The most significant fact concerning the law and order force is the self-evolution of methods of procedure during the council meeting. Stationing of the sublieutenants as traffic officers according to diagram, placing of the exterior sublieutenants as a safety first committee, the framing of a constitution, the creation of a student tribunal, are a few of the excellent ways and means being discovered and used by these two co-operating groups, working under the efficient direction and guidance of their teacher counselor, for the promotion of fine citizenship in the Camp Curtin democracy.

During the home room activities period, the rest of the citizen population are working co-operatively with these groups. At this time the home room president, appointed by the home room teacher, presides. Last week among the discussions that took place at the suggestion of Principal Brehm were the primary elections, chiefly, the qualifications of voters, the United States Constitution, comparative study of constitutions, and betwixt behavior. The faculty are equally interested with the students in learning from the bulletin what will be the topic of discussion for the day. Under the guidance and direction of the faculty, the students during this period, will receive instruction and impressions essential to correct knowledge and wisdom in election, and in holding office. Then when the day for final election in November arrives, the student voters in their respective school wards will rival the enthusiasm and earnestness of their seniors voting simultaneously at the polls.

The home room presidents at this time are: John Jessup, Chauncey Davis, Pauline Hunsberger, William Bodmer, Joseph Bolton, Charles Boyer, Ethel Burd, Rhoda Smith, Samuel Krebs, Harold Smedley, Charles Crowshield, Hugo Schutzenbach, Charles Seligman, Geraldine Watts, Elizabeth Halde-man, Loraine Derick, Clifford Werner, Wilmot Lantz, Garfield Hoffman, James Smith, Russell Upper, James Bachman, Edith Kaufman, Wilson Malick, Paul Ross, Lewis Gordon, Gladys Werner, Edna Hartzell, Mary Downie. EDITOR OF LADIES' HOME JOURNAL RESIGNS Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—After months of persistent rumors, the Curtis Publishing Company yesterday announced that its board of directors had finally accepted the resignation of Edward Bok, as editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, and that H. O. Davis, of Los Angeles, Cal., who has been managing editor of the magazine for the last six months, will succeed him. CIVIL SERVICE INFLUENCING POSTAL AFFAIRS IS DENIED Washington, Sept. 23.—George R. Wales, of the Civil Service Commission, told the Senate Post Office subcommittee, which is considering contested postmaster nominations, that the Post Office Department had not endeavored to exert undue influence upon the Commission. "Since I have been a member of the Commission," Mr. Wales said, "I have seen nothing and heard nothing that would prove any foundation for such a charge."
