INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Roasting corn and toasting marshmallows were special pleasures enjoyed by the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Martin, of 1809 Wallace street, the other evening. Miss Viola Redman, of Zion City was guest of honor and the event was held in Wildwood Park. Japanese lanterns and redlights illuminated the spot where the guests gathered.

In attendance were: Miss Viola Redman, Miss Dorothy Lay, Miss Hellen Minnich, Miss Ethel Minnich, Miss Hellen Knoble, Miss Gladys Bashore, Miss Thelma Stipe, Raiph Saul, Donald Saul, Henry Albright, Herbert Martin, John Bixler, Mr. and Mrs. John Minnich, Vovester Martin, Herbert Martin, John Bixler, Mr. and Mrs. John Minnich, Mr. and Mrs. David Saul.

The Wedding of Miss Mary Bell Corbett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bell Corbett, of this city, to Erhardt Eckstein Rider, of Central Valley, N. Y., was an event of moon to-day in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Dr. J. Bradley Markward, pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Springfield, Ohio, officiating.

field, Ohio, officiating.

A decorative color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in church decorations with large basket of dahlias gracing the pulpit and altar. Miss Agnes Hess played a recital of classics before the service, using the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin's as a processional and the brilliant Mendelssohn "Wedding March" as a recessional for the bridal party. Softly during the service came the strains of "Love's Old Sweet Song." In Bridal Party

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a costume of white satin with chiffon overdress and touches of old lace. Her tulle veil was crowned with orange blossoms and she wore a corsage bouquet of bride roses with shower of tiny buds. Her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift.

With shower of tiny buds. Her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift. Miss Frances Corbett, as maid of honor for her sister, was most attractive in a toilette of turquoise sath with black picture hat and a corsage bouquet of Ward roses with shower of Victory blossoms. De Witt V. Killinger, of Woodbury Falls, N. J., was best man, and the ushers were Dr. A. A. Reynolds, of Brooklyn, and George Albright, of this city.

Following the church ceremonies an informal reception was held at the bride's home in the Locust apartments, North Third street, where golden dahlies grade a few personal friends extended good wishes to the newlyweds and viewed the lovely gifts so lavishly showered on them.

Leaving For East

An eastern wedding journey will terminate in a residence in Punxsutawney, where Mr. Rider is now located as manager of the Frances Supply Company. During the war he was a member of the Six Hundred and Tenth Aero Squadron in Hiddletown. He comes of a musical family and is a singer himself.

The bride is widely known as a soprano singer and an active member of the Wednesday Club. She has been soloist and director of the choir of the First Presbyterian Church of Steelton for some time. She was first a pupil of Mrs. Esther Kendig Rhoads and later of Mrs. Phillips-Jenkins, of Philadelphia. She is a member of the Philadelphia Operatic Society and has taken leading parts in operettas and concerts in the Quaker city as well as in her home town.
