SEPTEMBER 25, 1919.

State Police Remark Upon Number of Arms in Possion of Foreigners

State Police Department officials to-day denied the statements by William Z. Foster that State Police breken erderly and lawful meetings.

In a statement issued at the department it was said "Any state-ment to the effect that State Police have dispersed orderly and lawful meetings is not true. In every case where State Police have acted they have done so after requests for as sistance and co-operation from the a borough or county who said that the situation had passed beyond their control. If the crowds dispersed were intent upon law and order how it is explained that scores of foreigners have been arrested with foreigners have been arrested with firearms in their possession?"

Dr. J. G. Sanders, director of the State Bureau of Plant Industry, returned to-day from Europe where he had made a study of the potato wart disease and will make an extended report upon the situation in Great Britain and Ireland, where
