MISS COPELIN BRIDE THIS AFTERNOON

MISS ELEANOR COPELIN

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Copelin, daughter of Owen M. Copelin, former city treasurer, to L. Francis Simonetti, of this city, was a quiet event of this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the rectory of St. Patrick's Cathedral with the Rev. Father Daniel J. Carey officiating, in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose for the ceremony a handsome costume of brown broadcloth with seal trimmings and smart velvet toque crowned with ostrich feathers. Her corsage bouquet was of white and valley lilies. Miss Elizabeth Boecking of Tyrone was maid of honor, wearing a stylish street suit of dark blue cloth with blue velvet hat. J. Ross Simonetti was best man for his brother.

The young couple left immediately after the service for a wedding journey by automobile for Philadelphia and parts of New York state. They will reside at 228 Emerald street on their return, and will be "at home" to their friends after October 15.

The bride, who has a host of friends throughout the city, was educated at Linden Hall, Latitz, and the Beechwood school, Jenkintown, where she specialized in art. She is an enthusiastic motorist, and served as a lieutenant of the local Red Cross Motor Corps during the war. Mr. Simonetti, a son of Louis Simonetti, 215 Foster street, returned here after two years' service with the One Hundred and Third Motor Supply Train overseas. He is now connected with the new hardware firm of Albright & Simonetti, formerly J. S. Ryder, North Third street.

D. T. Boyd, 709 North Second street, is home after a visit to Stroudsburg.

Don't "Doctor" Your Eyes
Don't "doctor" your eyes with drugs—Don't "dope" them yourself, nor allow anyone else to do so, unless there is distinctly a diseased condition. If you have, or suspect that you have, any eye trouble, the quickest and least expensive way to find out the truth about the matter is to consult a reputable optometrist, who is trained professionally as well as qualified by constant experience to determine the cause of any defect in vision. It is only in rare cases that medical treatment is actually required, and when it is, the optometrist will refer you to your family physician and if necessary will co-operate with him.

In medium-priced garments we will save you $5.00 to $10.00 on a garment, and on the higher-priced ones still more; in fact, a customer saved exactly $30.000 on a suit we sold her this week on what she was asked for the same garment elsewhere, and in this case the suits were identical—material, linings, shade and tailoring—as they both came from the same manufacturer; so we ask you, if you are interested in a Fall garment, to come and see for yourself. The selections are large, the styles and colors the very latest and the materials and tailoring of the best.
