school of this kind. Show Wednesday Night The next big show at Steelton will be Wednesday, October 1. For this offering Billy Angelo and Billy Lo-gan, the two wildcats who put up a great battle at the last show, will meet in a ten-round battle. Another hard fight will be between Kid Richmond, boxing partner of Kid Williams, and Young Fulton of Al-lentown. These boys will go some. Jack Cleaver meets Billy Atticks, the local knockout boy. These boys are built alike, and weigh within a pound of each other, both being about 150 pounds. When Harry Cronick, the York featherweight, got his discharge from the Unied States Navy, only two days ago, he wired Barrett to give him a date. Barrett lost no time in matching him with the tough and game local boy. Hal Shay, which means another slugfest for the fans.

First Boxing Show by New Local Association;

All Stars on Program

All Stars on Program Harrisburg's new organization of boxing promoters, the Harrisburg Boxing Association, is to make its first how to the public to-night in a four-bout show, in which there are to be thirty rounds unless knockouts diminish the number. The event is to be staged in the Chestnut Street Auditorium, start-ing at $.30 'o'clock. The seat sale will open at the hall at 6 p. m. The card is one of the best that has been offered in Harrisburg for some time. Jackie Clark, one of the principals in the ten-round windup event has a national reputation, his feat in winning the middleweight crown of the American Expedition-ary Forces while abroad with the United States Army bringing him into the limelight for a time. Rowland, who is to meet Clark, has gone up against a number of the same men whom Clark has op-posed in this section, and his work to-night can only be conjec-tured upon, but Charlie Ettinger's ability as a matchmaker is well known and it is hardly likely that he would put anything but a good battler up against Jackie.

Moose to Welcome Their Veterans Home

Heir Veterans nome Harrisburg Lodge No. 107, Loyal Order of Moose is making great preparations at the "Moose Home," Third and Boas streets, to give their returned soldiers a royal welcome, Monday evening. The local lodge had sixty-eikht of its members en-listed in the United States service during the World War, four of whom nave paid the supreme sacrifice. Realizing the debt they owe these fraternal brothers, the lodge invites them to a luncheon to be given in their honor at the home. Decora-tors are busy on the interior of the home. The bandstand on the lawn will be decorated for the occasion, and a concert will be given by the Moose Concert Band, under the di-rection of Prof. J. Lewis Sprenger, to which the lodge extends to the public a cordial invitation.
