SECRET WEDDING SURPRISES MANY

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Worth Greenawalt Receiving Good Wishes From Friends

Clyde Worth Greenawalt and his bride, formerly Miss Ruth Boas Hunzberger, are receiving congratulations from a host of surprised friends on the announcement of their marriage, which took place Wednesday evening, September 24, and celebrations on having kept it a secret. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock by the Rev. W. E. Peffley, associate editor of Sunday School Literature of the U. E. Publishing House, this city, and an old friend and neighbor of the bridegroom, at his home. The couple was unattended except by David J. Kreitzer, of Hogs-town, a friend and war comrade of Mr. Greenawalt. Mr. Greenawalt, one of Lemoyne's most popular young men, is the son of the late Harry Greenawalt of Lemoyne. Shortly after the war broke out he enlisted and served eight months overseas in the 112th Regiment, Machine Gun Company. He saw much hard fighting and was gassed and sent to the hospital where he was convalescing when the armistice was signed. He landed in the States February 11, and is enthusiastic for the American Legion. His only brother, Robert Greenawalt, served at the Border during the Mexican trouble several years ago, in the Machine Gun Company of the Eighth Regiment under Captain C. Crow. Mr. Greenawalt is employed in the cabinet shop of the Pennsylvania Railway Company in the carpenter department. His position was waiting for him when he returned, and his good service for the company earned him a promotion since his return. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hunzberger of Lemoyne, and is prominent in the social and church life of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Greenawalt will reside temporarily at 240 Herman avenue, Lemoyne. Last evening the friends too revenge upon them for not inviting them to the wedding and treated them to a serenade of jazz music with the original instruments, and extended to them hearty congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Greenawalt

Charles A. Chene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace A.
