

DEPUTIES SWANBY FIUME MADE AN ITALIAN CITY

Debate Interrupted by Free Fight in Which One Hundred Participate

Par. Sept. 29.—A resolution demanding that Fiume be made an Italian city has been passed by the Italian Chamber of Deputies...

Rome, Sunday, Sept. 28.—Debate in the Chamber of Deputies was interrupted to-day by a free fight which lasted ten minutes and in which about 100 deputies participated.

The correct figures for the vote of confidence given the cabinet were 208 to 148, instead of 208 to 140 as at first reported.

In consequence of the fight in the chamber several deputies were confined to their quarters and between deputies and journalists.

But then protests began to be heard. "We won't stand for hanging the mayor," several men shouted.

Then two officers cut the rope, carried the mayor to the automobile and rushed him to a hospital.

The mayor's law firm is at present defending two negroes charged with assaults on white women.

Courthouse in Ruins The fire which started in the courthouse left that structure a mass of ruins.

For several hours the lives of more than 100 prisoners in the county jail was endangered by the flames in the lower floors of the building.

Throwing a rope around his neck these men, numbering about fifty, dragged him to the ground floor, down stifling stairways and through blinding smoke to the street.

side Old Glory fluttered a welcome to the hosts who had gone out to defend the flag and who just a year ago had been engaged in the most desperate battles ever fought by men.

As column after column of khaki-clad figures swept up the field and counter-marched into positions within hearing distance of the stand, the big audience burst into cheering and handclapping that continued without interruption until the last man was in place.

There was special music at the service last night. Mrs. Florence Ackley Ley sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning." The Star Spangled Banner was played at the end of the service.

William Jennings opened the exercises with a brief welcoming address. "Welcome home" services held in honor of Harrisburg men and women who served with the colors during the war, and by the city and by far the happiest and most enthusiastic.

The exercises, which were held on a grandstand in front of the grandstand, were preceded by a parade in which all the service men and women joined.

SPRING CHICKEN FINDS PLACE OF HONOR ON MENU

Skilled Chefs Busy During Day Preparing Evening Meal For Soldiers

DELICACIES ON THE CARD Potatoes, Cantaloupes, Celery, Peaches and Ice Cream Have Place, Too

Fifteen hundred spring chickens are this afternoon being prepared with the extreme finesse of skilled chefs to be set before some 2,600 service men at the big banquet this evening in River Front Park at 6 o'clock.

A cooking corps of some fifty odd men, including cooks, helpers, stewards and others, working under the efficient direction of Frank F. Davenport, well-known lunch man, are this afternoon using all their skill on other huge quantities of food.

Delicacies in large number are found on the elaborate menu prepared for the returning soldiers, but more substantial articles of diet likewise have an important place.

Some of the many things prepared to aid in appeasing the appetites of the men are fifty bushels of potatoes, fifty cases of cantaloupes, 200 pounds of coffee, 300 pounds of sugar, 400 pounds of butter, 100 dozen bunches of celery, 200 bunches of parsley, fifty bunches of bananas, twenty-five bushels of peaches and finally, 500 quarts of ice cream.

Three thousand boxes of Coca Cola will be supplied through the courtesy of Frank Peace, Coca Cola man of this city.

The "biggest thing of its kind," is the way Mr. Davenport to-day characterized the effort being put forth. Never, to the best of his knowledge, has there been any attempt to feed in the open air for one meal only a body of between 2,500 and 3,000 men.

Efforts in preparation for the "feed" have been going on for four or five days, while the "feed" itself will last not more than fifty or sixty minutes.

Ten kitchens, each including two stoves secured from the State Arsenal, were placed in position early yesterday in preparation for today's activities.

The huge open air dining room, 1,865 feet long, stretches from Liberty to Walnut streets. Included in it are more than sixty tables, all of which were arranged yesterday with the stoves under the personal supervision of Mr. Davenport. Two double rows of tables, each forty feet long, are to be served from each kitchen.

Presiding over each kitchen will be a chef, two cooks and two helpers. Fifty supervisors will preside over the work of the kitchens, each having charge of two; above them will be two managers who will each have charge of work in five of the kitchens, while over all a steward will be in charge.

Arrangements not completed yesterday were rapidly shaped up this morning and this afternoon found only a few matters needing attention. Mr. Davenport was on the ground throughout the greater part of yesterday and to-day.

Three hundred waitresses to serve the needs of the service men. They will work under the direction of Mrs. Herman E. Miller. Each worker will be supplied with a badge. Mrs. E. J. Stackpole is chairman of the badge committee.

Mrs. William Jennings is chairman of the general committee in charge of the arrangements. Tables were decorated by the women's decorating committee of which Mrs. Herman Astich was chairman. Mrs. E. Z. Gross is chairman of the committee which will have charge of placing the dishes and get the tables ready for the service men to sit.

The general oversight of the tables is in charge of a committee of which Mrs. Charles Burnett is chairman.

This evening a light luncheon will be served the men in the Army, Chestnut Street Auditorium and in the evening by Red Cross women. Sweet, iced, doughnuts, cakes, pretzels and apples are to be included.
