

RESTRICT USE OF COAL IN BERLIN

Railroad Service Cut; Cafes and Restaurants Conserve Fuel

Berlin, Sept. 29.—To conserve Berlin's coal supply, a move will be made to change the closing hours for cafes and restaurants from 11.30 p. m. to an earlier hour not yet decided upon. The theaters and restaurants will be restricted in their use of light, and Berlin will have to expect a material restriction even before the winter so that coal can be saved. The railroad service also will be materially restricted—sleeping cars and dining cars will probably be entirely abolished owing to the increasing shortage of locomotives. Germany is now short of 650 locomotives, while 14,000 cars are due to France. There seems no lack of raw materials to the railroad foundries, but the workmen cannot or will not deliver their peace-time quality of quantity of labor. A locomotive in peace time could be built in a week by 115 workmen. Now 213 workmen are necessary to build one. The emergency workers of Greater Berlin have published an appeal to the miners of Germany urging increased production, since they say a catastrophe threatens Berlin through lack of coal which makes it impossible to produce building materials, notably cement. Waterways being used in all possible cases as a substitute for steam transportation.

Wages can't meet high prices if they both are going in the same direction.—Newark News.

Roosevelt Memorial Association Ready For Member Campaign

New York, Sept. 29.—William Boyce Thompson, president of the Roosevelt Memorial Association, has issued the following statement: "With the co-operation of State, county and local committees in all parts of the United States, the Roosevelt Memorial Association is ready for its campaign during the week of October 20-27 to honor the memory of Theodore Roosevelt. The people of the United States are requested throughout that week to contribute to the fund for memorials to Theodore Roosevelt."

"The Roosevelt Memorial Association believes that Americans desire to see two forms of memorials for their dead leader. The first of these forms is one that shall be immediate and that shall enable all Americans to subscribe to and uphold the staunch Americanism of Theodore Roosevelt. The concrete expression of this memorial will be a series of meetings held in every city and town of the United States on Roosevelt's birthday, October 27. All states, county and local committees comprised of representative citizens of all denominations, political parties and social classes, are actively engaged at present arranging for these meetings on that date. ### Marshals of France Not Wearing Uniforms

Paris, Sept. 29.—The three new marshals of France—Joffre, Foch and Petain—have not yet appeared in the regular uniform of marshal, but content themselves with adding a row of golden oak leaves to their caps and four supplementary stars to the sleeves of their uniforms of general. On the 14th of July during the Victory Day parade old Parisians commented upon the fact that the marshals did not wear their uniforms, but one of the younger and callous generation chipped in with: "With 33,000 francs salary a year they probably cannot afford them."

ISSUES REPORT ON STOCKS SOLD

Red Cross Statement Corrects Inaccurate Stories of Big Sales

Paris, Sept. 29.—Because many inaccurate reports of large sales of American Red Cross merchandise have appeared in the past few weeks, Red Cross headquarters in Paris has issued a statement explaining that the only materials which have been sold are certain perishables, second-hand equipment, surplus stocks and articles which can no longer be used for direct relief work, either in France or in Eastern Europe. The total sales of surplus and second-hand material by the American Red Cross in Europe will aggregate not more than 30,000,000 francs, says the Red Cross, while the value of the relief material distributed in Europe during July and August alone will amount to more than 100,000,000 francs.

Operations Widespread. The American Red Cross is now conducting operations in 17 European countries. The relief material distributed in France mainly in the devastated districts, since the armistice, is valued at over 125,000,000 francs, while in the same period other European countries have received more than 200,000,000 francs' worth of similar supplies, including not only medical and surgical material, but also clothing, food, bar-trucks, etc. Such sales as have been authorized in France have been conducted through the American Red Cross Liquidation Board. The official statement says regarding this material: "Unexpectedly heavy expenses of work in Poland and the Balkan States, and the beginning of new relief activities in Western and Southern Russia, made it advisable to turn these stocks into cash to assist the relief work in those areas to save certain of the accumulated stocks from total loss."

"Of all the relief material in the American Red Cross warehouses on May 1, one-third was sent aside for distribution in the devastated districts of France. The distribution of this material is still continuing and will continue for months to come, while the shipments of relief material to the commissions in Eastern Europe are on a constantly increasing scale and will continue thus for many months. "In the meantime the shipment of further relief material from the United States continue in a large way, and we have recently received notice from America of the early shipment of supplies valued at nearly 40,000,000 francs."

Clune, a Knight of Columbus secretary, who just returned from Ireland. Mr. Clune was in Belgium, England, France and Ireland, and in the latter country found that the farmers are heartbroken because they have no practical method to frustrate the invaders. The crows have been arriving in large numbers the past two years, and the Irishmen claim the birds do but drive them out of France and Belgium forests by the heavy cannonading during the war and discovered Ireland. Mr. Clune explained that the farmers cannot use any buckshot on the birds because the country has been heavily garrisoned by the English government with troops. Within the past twelve months every farmer has been deprived of his favorite fowling piece by the soldiers who have seized all kinds of firearms. Some of the farmers of the paris green poisoning, but the birds still kept coming. The crows are very bold and unafraid of the scarecrow figures thrown about the fields.

Harvard Man Finds Comet Speeding to Earth

New York, Sept. 29.—A comet of the eighth magnitude is speeding toward the earth at such a high rate of speed that it will become visible to the naked eye just as the Harvard Endowment Fund campaign for $15,250,000 ends in October, according to Dr. Joel H. Metcalf, chairman of the visiting board of Harvard University, Cambridge. Dr. Metcalf announced today that he had discovered the comet at South Hero, Vermont, on August 20 when it was approximately right ascension 22 hours, 48 minutes west of Greenwich with a declination of 21 degrees north. At present it is very near the sun but is traveling at a high rate of speed on a northerly course and within two weeks will be very near the north star. October 16 it will be approximately 4,000,000 miles from the earth when it will be four times brighter than it is now and may even become a "brilliant" comet.

Court Decides We Have the Right to Give WILLARD SERVICE On Storage Batteries

The case of Troy B. Wildermuth against D. J. Moran for alleged false advertisement was dismissed promptly by Judge Henry as unjustified and lacking in any evidence to warrant a case. In fact, it wasn't even necessary to present our witnesses.

D. J. Moran proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he had taken the instruction course at the Willard factory and been duly authorized by the Willard Company to come to Harrisburg and invest his money in the Willard Service Station, the Court held that Moran was perfectly within his rights when he advertised that he gave service on Willard batteries or bought and sold them.

We do not try to prevent any one else from giving service on Willard or any other battery, but we do claim that we are perfectly qualified to render the best of service on Willard or any other battery. In fact, we have many satisfied customers who will substantiate the statement that we have taken their batteries which were condemned by others and put them into first-class working order.

When you have batteries that are condemned consult us before throwing them away. We will give you expert opinion as to its true condition without trying to influence you to buy a new battery unless absolutely necessary.
