Mission Celebrates Its Twentieth Anniversary

The Episcopal Mission of St. Michael and All Angels, Middletown, last evening celebrated its twentieth anniversary with appropriate services. The mission was founded 20 years ago on the feast of St. Michael and All Angels by the Rev. Dr. Hope, then rector of Trinity parish, Steelton.

The services last evening were attended by a large number of people, among them the commandant of the United States Army, and other officers. The speakers were the Rev. H. T. Seudder, rector of Christ Church, Tarrytown, N. Y., the Rev. Dr. Appleton, priest in charge of the rectory at Steelton, Rev. James H. Darlington, bishop of the diocese. The singing was led by a choir of women from Trinity Church, Steelton.

The mission has been much congratulated on its growth. A large plot of ground adjoining the church building has been purchased by the mission and will be used for the building of a new church. A resident clergyman may be put in charge of the work.

Camp Curtin Democracy Receives New Member

The faculty of the Camp Curtin Democracy received a new member, Clarence Weingartner, on Monday, September 22. Mr. Weingartner was a student at the North East High School, Philadelphia, and is a graduate of the Williamson Trade School. He was a recent employee of the E. G. Budd Company and the New York Ship Corporation. Mr. Weingartner is head of the metalworking department, temporarily in charge of Joseph Guest, with whom he will have a permanent association until his recent departure to the Edison company.

TRAVELING AUDITOR DIES

Attache of the Auditor General's office attended the funeral services of John Davis, one of the oldest traveling auditors of the State government, at his residence in Regina Street, Harrisburg, on Friday. Mr. Davis was a resident of Harrisburg for many years and was long in State service, having an intimate knowledge of affairs of most of the State institutions whose accounts were audited by the State. Mr. Davis' son, Eugene Davis, was killed during the war while serving with the One Hundred and Seventh Machine Gun Battalion.

George S. Reineohl Thanks Committee in Charge of Reception

George S. Reineohl, president of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, to-day expressed his thanks for the manner in which the committee in charge of arrangements for the State Convention of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, to be held at the "come home" celebration of Sunday and yesterday.

"The members co-operated to the fullest and worked unobtrusively," he said. "It is difficult to pick out any one of the number but if I were to mention one individual above another I would say that the city owes a debt of gratitude to the committee, had most of the details on his shoulders. Nobody but those who are familiar with the vast amount of work that was necessary can appreciate what Mr. Jennings did. But the whole thing was so well handled that everybody connected with it is deserving of praise."

County School Head Points to New Law

In letters mailed to teachers, principals and school directors in county districts Professor F. E. Shambaugh, county superintendent, calls attention to the recently approved provisions for competitive state scholarships to aid young men and women to secure college and university education. The county is entitled to one scholarship and examination will be held on Saturday, October 11, at the Technical High School, this city, open to any graduates of four-year high school courses.

STATE MOTHERS' CONGRESS IS TO OPEN THIS WEEK

Dr. Finegan on Program to Open Convention at Lebanon on Thursday

The Pennsylvania State convention of Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teacher Associations will be held at Lebanon, October 2, 3 and 4. Plans have been made for the most successful and interesting convention in the history of the Congress. The State president, Mrs. E. F. Kerman, of Somerset, will preside. Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, new State Superintendent of Education, will open the convention Thursday evening with an address on "How Parent-Teacher Associations May Co-operate With the State Board of Education."

Mrs. Frederic Schoff, the national president, will be present and speak on "Training Young Women For Motherhood." Hugh Macmill, secretary of the N. E. A., will attend the convention and on Friday evening speak on "What School Patrons Can Do to Help Education." Miss Ellen Lombard, head of the home education division of the Federal Bureau of Education, will conduct a round table on program making. Miss Nutting, of Erie, will outline the work she has been doing with the high school girls in Erie. This course the girls, 400 of them, love so much—and, as it is an experiment which the school authorities do not yet finance—they finance it themselves by selling sandwiches at lunch and recess time.

Superintendent S. E. Weber, of the Scranton schools, will talk Saturday morning on "The Kindergarten as An American Institution" and a film made under the auspices of Dr. J. H. Francis, former superintendent of the Los Angeles schools, showing Americanization work in Los Angeles, will be shown. The Parent-Teacher Associations are an effective medium for Americanizing the adult foreigner, especially in the Americanization of the mother.

"We can reach women in their homes less by organization than by personal services, less by system than by quiet talks over the children," said one of the leaders.

The convention will close on Saturday with a picnic and drive through the beautiful country about Lebanon. Mrs. Kiernan issues a personal request that all officers of local associations, members and interested friends attend this convention, as many problems and plans affecting child welfare in the State will be discussed.

All wishing entertainment or names of boarding houses should address Mrs. Edgar Weimer, Lebanon, chairman of the entertainment committee. For hotel accommodations, engage rooms early at the Hotel Weimer. The pre-convention board meeting will be held at the Hotel Weimer on Thursday at 2 P. M.

Members of the State board of Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teacher Associations are: President, Mrs. E. E. Kiernan, Somerset; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William H. Mader, Fenbrook; treasurer, Mrs. L. E. McGinnis, Steelton; Mrs. W. E. Greenwood, Coatesville; Mrs. Charles Long, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. H. Clay Beistel, Greensburg; Mrs. O. D. Finegan, Coatesville; Dr. L. E. McGinnis, Steelton; Mrs. Otis Kiefer, Williamsport; Miss Jane Pressly, Erie; Mrs. E. A. Weimer, Lebanon; Mrs. R. C. Roy, Pittsburg; Mrs. Thomas E. Hope, Coatesville; Mrs. Joseph Strippert, Erie; Mrs. Anna Mount, Oil City.

The national officers are: President, Mrs. Frederic Schoff, Philadelphia; secretary, Mrs. A. A. Birney, Washington; treasurer, Mrs. H. N. Rowell, Berkeley, Cal.

The Lebanon Chamber of Commerce will entertain the convention on Friday with a drive to Mount Gretna. The Woman's Club of Lebanon will also entertain on Friday afternoon with a reception.

Anita Patti Brown to Sing at Concert Here

MADAME ANITA PATTI BROWN

Under the auspices of the Penn-Harris Hotel Waiters' Union, Madame Anita Patti Brown, one of the greatest colored singers in America to-day, will sing at Tech High auditorium, Thursday evening, November 20.

None of Vital Questions Discussed at Conference

Buffalo, Sept. 30.—The fourth day of the wage conference between operators and miners of the Central Soft Coal Field began with none of the vital questions solved and with the strike of 400,000 miners on November 1 still a possibility.

Both sides expressed hope that common ground would be found for an amicable adjustment of disputed questions, including the status of the war-time contract of 1916 while the operators' claim is binding until April, 1920, and which the miners say ceased to be in force with the withdrawal of the United States army from Europe.

Superintendent S. E. Weber, of the Scranton schools, will talk Saturday morning on "The Kindergarten as An American Institution" and a film made under the auspices of Dr. J. H. Francis, former superintendent of the Los Angeles schools, showing Americanization work in Los Angeles, will be shown. The Parent-Teacher Associations are an effective medium for Americanizing the adult foreigner, especially in the Americanization of the mother.

PUBLIC SALE

Of Western Horses and Colts

Saturday, Oct. 4, 1919

AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M. AT JACOB R. KLINE'S STOCK YARDS
MECHANICSBURG, PA.

We will sell one carload of extra good, big Rugged Feeders and All Purpose Western Horses and Colts, ranging in age from 2 to 6 years old and have them weighing from 11 to 15 hundred lbs. each. These Horses and Colts were bought personally by W. M. Grove for this sale, and he advises us that he is shipping a load of Horses and Colts (the best that grow). They consist of the good, big, rugged Feeders, Farm Chunks and All Purpose Western Horses and Colts, with two good ends and a middle and the kind that have the size, Shape, Weight and Bone that belongs to a Real Draft Horse, and a class of horses that mature very fast and feed out to weigh from 12 to 16 hundred lbs. each. Will have several closely Mated Teams and a few good, shapely Mares with Class and Quality all over.

P. S.—If interested you can't afford to miss this sale, as we will certainly have a load of Western Horses and Colts, worth the inspection of any person, and the kind worth owning, as you all know the kind Mr. Grove ships (the best that grow).
