

Happenings of a Day in Central Pennsylvania

FIND BONES OF MISSING BOY?

Farmer Discovers Left Limb Near Where Child Disappeared

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 30.—Interest in the mysterious disappearance of James Douglas Glass from Greeley, Pike county, where he was visiting with his parents, May 12, 1915, has been revived by the finding of the left limb bones of a child aged about four years, a mile or so from where the boy disappeared.

Decorations Begun For Firemen's Convention

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 30.—The main streets of Lancaster will soon resemble a Great White Way. Preparing for the soldiers' welcome home day, and the State Firemen's Convention, the start was made decorating the main streets of the center of the city with electric display lights.

Double Wedding Takes Place at Marietta

Marietta, Sept. 30.—The first double wedding ceremony to take place in Marietta in many years was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Miller, East Front street, when their daughter, Miss Edith, and their son, Horace Raymond, were married.

Ambition Pills For Nervous People

The great nerve tonic—the famous Wendell's Ambition Pills—that will put vigor, vim and vitality into nervous tired out, all in, despondent people in a few days in many instances.

A corporation of national reputation offers opportunities for several young men of good education to learn its business.

The work is mechanical in its nature, the location is out of town.

We prefer young men 20 to 22 years of age who have completed a high school course.

Make application in your own handwriting, stating your age, education, previous business experience, if any, and stating your willingness to be located, if necessary, a considerable distance from this locality.

Adequate salary is paid during the instruction period and there are exceptional opportunities for advancement for earnest, serious-minded young men. We urge others not to make application.

Address Box 7605, care of Telegraph.

Your Dollar Will Go Farther Than Ever Before!

BLITZER'S

Watch This Space The Telegraph—9-30-19.

Soldiers of Marysville and Rye Township Taken at Saturday's Welcome Program

CONTESTS WILL OF HIS FATHER

Son of the Late Solomon Alexander Starts Action Against Codicil

York, Pa., Sept. 30.—A contest involving the validity of a codicil to the will of the late Solomon A. Alexander, for many years a master mechanic of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in this city, was begun before Judge Ross yesterday.

Four Men Burned to Death in Barn

Meadvale, Pa., Sept. 30.—Four men were burned to death late yesterday when they were trapped in a barn which was destroyed by fire at Conneautville. A spark from an engine fired the barn, and the flames soon spread over the top of a silo in which the four victims were. The dead are:

Chambersburg School Director Dies of Cancer

Chambersburg, Sept. 30.—A. Lincoln Solenberger, school director of this place and prominent retired merchant, builder, and owner of Piney Mountain Inn along the Lincoln highway at Graeffenberg half way between here and Gettysburg, died last night at the home of his parents in Winchester, Va., from cancer of the stomach, with which he had long suffered. He established Chambersburg Plumbing and Heating Co., and was interested in various other enterprises.

Another Prediction For a Mild Winter

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 30.—Frank E. Mann, works manager of the William Mann Ax Company, who has been watching the flight of the chimney swallows for years as the gooselike prophet watches the coloring of the fowls' breast, says there has been three weeks interval since the first delegations of swallows started for their haunts in the Orinoco river, which indicates a break in the severe weather about mid-winter.

300 Laborers Go Back to Work

Chicago, Sept. 30.—There were no important changes in the steel strike situation in the Chicago district. No serious disturbances occurred at the authorities at Waukegan, Ill., denied a report that they planned to make another appeal to Governor Lowden for state troops.

Judge Gillan Appoints Woman Probation Officer

Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 30.—On the recommendation of Edwin S. Solenberger, of Philadelphia, active in Children's Aid Society work, Judge W. Rush Gillan to-day named Miss Eda S. Haywood of Philadelphia, to be probation officer of Franklin county, to succeed Miss Elsie Hepler, who married Miss Haywood is a graduate of the New York School of Social Service and assumes her duties to-morrow.

Apple Tree Bears Fruit and Blossoms Same Time

Granville, Pa., Sept. 30.—Charles Watts has an apple tree bearing a large crop of fruit unharvested and which is in full blossom for another crop. This does not mean an apple here and there, with few blossoms interspersed, but the tree is in full fruit and blossom at the same time.

Officers to Lose Rank

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—There will be few promotions and many reductions in rank among regular army officers in the adjustment worked out by the chief of staff in connection with the legislation recently passed by Congress authorizing the Secretary of War to retain 15,000 commissioned officers in service until June 30, 1920.

70 OUT AT READING

Reading, Pa., Sept. 30.—The management of the local plant at the Bethlehem Steel Company, employing 1,000 people, issued a statement at noon to-day that everything is going on at a normal rate. The absence of seventy men and boys who are on strike does not interfere with the operations.

Radicalism Causing Unions to Lose Favor, Declaration of Redfield

Washington, Sept. 30.—Because of "radical action and leadership" organized labor is losing public confidence, Secretary Redfield said yesterday.

Single Robbery Reported to Police During Welcome Celebration For Soldiers

Liberty bonds valued at $50 and $5 in change reported to have been taken from the home of Mrs. Emma Eshenauer, 552 Forbes street, yesterday is the only robbery reported to Harrisburg police during the celebration.

Double Wedding Takes Place at Marietta

Marietta, Sept. 30.—The first double wedding ceremony to take place in Marietta in many years was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Miller, East Front street, when their daughter, Miss Edith, and their son, Horace Raymond, were married.

Another Prediction For a Mild Winter

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 30.—Frank E. Mann, works manager of the William Mann Ax Company, who has been watching the flight of the chimney swallows for years as the gooselike prophet watches the coloring of the fowls' breast, says there has been three weeks interval since the first delegations of swallows started for their haunts in the Orinoco river, which indicates a break in the severe weather about mid-winter.

300 Laborers Go Back to Work

Chicago, Sept. 30.—There were no important changes in the steel strike situation in the Chicago district. No serious disturbances occurred at the authorities at Waukegan, Ill., denied a report that they planned to make another appeal to Governor Lowden for state troops.

Judge Gillan Appoints Woman Probation Officer

Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 30.—On the recommendation of Edwin S. Solenberger, of Philadelphia, active in Children's Aid Society work, Judge W. Rush Gillan to-day named Miss Eda S. Haywood of Philadelphia, to be probation officer of Franklin county, to succeed Miss Elsie Hepler, who married Miss Haywood is a graduate of the New York School of Social Service and assumes her duties to-morrow.

Apple Tree Bears Fruit and Blossoms Same Time

Granville, Pa., Sept. 30.—Charles Watts has an apple tree bearing a large crop of fruit unharvested and which is in full blossom for another crop. This does not mean an apple here and there, with few blossoms interspersed, but the tree is in full fruit and blossom at the same time.

Officers to Lose Rank

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—There will be few promotions and many reductions in rank among regular army officers in the adjustment worked out by the chief of staff in connection with the legislation recently passed by Congress authorizing the Secretary of War to retain 15,000 commissioned officers in service until June 30, 1920.

70 OUT AT READING

Reading, Pa., Sept. 30.—The management of the local plant at the Bethlehem Steel Company, employing 1,000 people, issued a statement at noon to-day that everything is going on at a normal rate. The absence of seventy men and boys who are on strike does not interfere with the operations.

GRACE ANSWERS FOSTER'S LETTER

[Continued from First Page.]

management on the settlement of all differences," said Mr. Grace. "I no case have the employees requested the abolition of the system, nor has there been a strike vote taken in the plant of the company."

NO CHANGES IN STEELTON STRIKE

[Continued from First Page.]

the rostrum, that when the war was over, we were going to realize a real democracy, based upon the honesty, the integrity and the responsibilities of the whole people.

Steel Strike Settling Down to One of Endurance

Pittsburgh, Sept. 30.—To all appearances the steel workers' strike has virtually settled down to one of endurance. Yesterday's efforts for each side to make a breach in the ranks of the other having failed to cause a serious break, the steel companies now are prepared, according to some of the officials, to begin a wearing down process to end the strike.

Union Representatives Claim 80 Per Cent. Are Out at Bethlehem

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 30.—The second day of the strike at the Bethlehem Steel Company's plants brought conflicting statements from the two sides to the controversy, union representatives claiming that eighty per cent of the men were out and officials of the company declaring that the situation was satisfactory and that all their plants were operating virtually at full capacity.

Farmer Must Pay Tax on Cider He Sells

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 30.—Farmers who attend the local curbstone market, which is one of the largest in the State, learned something to-day, and that is that they must pay a government tax of ten per cent on all the cider they sell. It is an internal revenue tax, and a severe penalty attaches to failure to pay up, according to deputy revenue collector W. Fred Jacobs. No matter in what stage of alcoholic content the "stone" juice might be, this tax must be paid, if any is sold. Cider for home use is not taxable, it was said.

GRACE ANSWERS FOSTER'S LETTER

[Continued from First Page.]

management on the settlement of all differences," said Mr. Grace. "I no case have the employees requested the abolition of the system, nor has there been a strike vote taken in the plant of the company."

NO CHANGES IN STEELTON STRIKE

[Continued from First Page.]

the rostrum, that when the war was over, we were going to realize a real democracy, based upon the honesty, the integrity and the responsibilities of the whole people.

Steel Strike Settling Down to One of Endurance

Pittsburgh, Sept. 30.—To all appearances the steel workers' strike has virtually settled down to one of endurance. Yesterday's efforts for each side to make a breach in the ranks of the other having failed to cause a serious break, the steel companies now are prepared, according to some of the officials, to begin a wearing down process to end the strike.

Union Representatives Claim 80 Per Cent. Are Out at Bethlehem

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 30.—The second day of the strike at the Bethlehem Steel Company's plants brought conflicting statements from the two sides to the controversy, union representatives claiming that eighty per cent of the men were out and officials of the company declaring that the situation was satisfactory and that all their plants were operating virtually at full capacity.

Farmer Must Pay Tax on Cider He Sells

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 30.—Farmers who attend the local curbstone market, which is one of the largest in the State, learned something to-day, and that is that they must pay a government tax of ten per cent on all the cider they sell. It is an internal revenue tax, and a severe penalty attaches to failure to pay up, according to deputy revenue collector W. Fred Jacobs. No matter in what stage of alcoholic content the "stone" juice might be, this tax must be paid, if any is sold. Cider for home use is not taxable, it was said.

GRACE ANSWERS FOSTER'S LETTER

[Continued from First Page.]

management on the settlement of all differences," said Mr. Grace. "I no case have the employees requested the abolition of the system, nor has there been a strike vote taken in the plant of the company."

NO CHANGES IN STEELTON STRIKE

[Continued from First Page.]

the rostrum, that when the war was over, we were going to realize a real democracy, based upon the honesty, the integrity and the responsibilities of the whole people.

Steel Strike Settling Down to One of Endurance

Pittsburgh, Sept. 30.—To all appearances the steel workers' strike has virtually settled down to one of endurance. Yesterday's efforts for each side to make a breach in the ranks of the other having failed to cause a serious break, the steel companies now are prepared, according to some of the officials, to begin a wearing down process to end the strike.

Union Representatives Claim 80 Per Cent. Are Out at Bethlehem

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 30.—The second day of the strike at the Bethlehem Steel Company's plants brought conflicting statements from the two sides to the controversy, union representatives claiming that eighty per cent of the men were out and officials of the company declaring that the situation was satisfactory and that all their plants were operating virtually at full capacity.

Farmer Must Pay Tax on Cider He Sells

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 30.—Farmers who attend the local curbstone market, which is one of the largest in the State, learned something to-day, and that is that they must pay a government tax of ten per cent on all the cider they sell. It is an internal revenue tax, and a severe penalty attaches to failure to pay up, according to deputy revenue collector W. Fred Jacobs. No matter in what stage of alcoholic content the "stone" juice might be, this tax must be paid, if any is sold. Cider for home use is not taxable, it was said.

GRACE ANSWERS FOSTER'S LETTER

[Continued from First Page.]

management on the settlement of all differences," said Mr. Grace. "I no case have the employees requested the abolition of the system, nor has there been a strike vote taken in the plant of the company."

NO CHANGES IN STEELTON STRIKE

[Continued from First Page.]

the rostrum, that when the war was over, we were going to realize a real democracy, based upon the honesty, the integrity and the responsibilities of the whole people.

Steel Strike Settling Down to One of Endurance

Pittsburgh, Sept. 30.—To all appearances the steel workers' strike has virtually settled down to one of endurance. Yesterday's efforts for each side to make a breach in the ranks of the other having failed to cause a serious break, the steel companies now are prepared, according to some of the officials, to begin a wearing down process to end the strike.

Union Representatives Claim 80 Per Cent. Are Out at Bethlehem

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 30.—The second day of the strike at the Bethlehem Steel Company's plants brought conflicting statements from the two sides to the controversy, union representatives claiming that eighty per cent of the men were out and officials of the company declaring that the situation was satisfactory and that all their plants were operating virtually at full capacity.

Farmer Must Pay Tax on Cider He Sells

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 30.—Farmers who attend the local curbstone market, which is one of the largest in the State, learned something to-day, and that is that they must pay a government tax of ten per cent on all the cider they sell. It is an internal revenue tax, and a severe penalty attaches to failure to pay up, according to deputy revenue collector W. Fred Jacobs. No matter in what stage of alcoholic content the "stone" juice might be, this tax must be paid, if any is sold. Cider for home use is not taxable, it was said.

NIGHT SCHOOL OPEN NOW ENTER ANY TIME

Two Separate Night Schools: The One on Monday, Wednesday, Friday—The Other Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday

BECKLEY'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

(Opposite Senate Hotel)

121 MARKET STREET CHARLES R. BECKLEY, Principal

Shell's Schleisner Stores

28-30-32 North Third Street.

Store Closes Ever Saturday at 6. P. M.

Schleisner Coats For Women and Misses Are Distinguished

Now that the weather is crisp enough for coats, let us say that we have the most extensive assortment of coats for all purposes we have ever been privileged to present to a critical clientele.

The smart, youthful lines of Schleisner coats will appeal most strongly to those who appreciate the really exclusive and strictly fashionable.

Unlike the usual form of pricing high-class garments at a stiff figure Schleisner coats are priced extremely moderate, giving you a most unusual choice of fine coats at

$45, $55, $65, $75

—And comprising very luxurious and exceptionally fine coats, ranging in price up to $195.

The materials of which these coats are developed are the modish Silvertone, Silvertip, Velour, Bolivia Cloth, Frostlog, Chameleon Cord and Velour de Laine. The tones best adapted to these materials are featured.

Address Box 7605, care of Telegraph.

Your Dollar Will Go Farther Than Ever Before!

BLITZER'S

Watch This Space The Telegraph—9-30-19.