Reorganize the Music at Messiah Lutheran

Abner Hartman, choir leader of the Messiah Lutheran Church, announced this morning that the music of the church for this season will be a special feature of the services. The choir has been entirely reorganized with the following soloists: Soprano, Mrs. Lee S. Izer; contralto, Mrs. Ernest Keys; tenor, William Watson; bass, Abner Hartman. The choir will have a chorus of thirty voices which promises much of interest in a musical way. Mrs. Emma Hoffman, organist for many years, has resigned and her place will be taken by J. Stewart Black who comes from the Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

Well-Known Young People Marry in Parsonage of Messiah Lutheran Church

The marriage of Miss Pauline E. Brinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Brinton, 2136 Penn street, and Luther W. Hose, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hose, of Steelton, was solemnized this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the parsonage of the Messiah Lutheran Church, the Rev. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson officiating. The bride wore a beaded gown of dark blue Georgette crepe with hat to harmonize and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, Victoria flowers and gardenias. Miss Valida E. Koffer, the maid of honor, wore a frock of blue crepe with a large picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of La France roses.

Maurice J. Leaman, of this city, was best man. He served during the war in Battery E of the 108th Field Artillery, with the bridegroom, and was his closest pal. This unit was the former Governor's Troop in which both young men enlisted May 28, 1917, each being promoted to non-commissioned officers while serving in France. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Hose left on a southern wedding trip which will include stops at Baltimore, Washington, Richmond and Augusta, Ga. At the latter place they will visit Camp Hancock where Mr. Hose trained for overseas. The bride is a graduate of Central High school, class of 1916, and is well known throughout the city. The bridegroom is connected with the Pennsylvania railroad offices at Steelton. The young couple will return to Harrisburg about November 1 and will reside temporarily at 2136 Penn street.

Miss Nelle Payne, of Front and Muench streets, has taken up her studies at the Misses Shipley's school, Bryn Mawr. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Alden went home to Elmira, N. Y., this morning after spending a week in this vicinity. Howard R. Faber went home to Brooklyn to-day after spending a fortnight among relatives in this vicinity. Miss Hazel Belle Clark, of Annapolis, Md., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Leo M. Jackson, of Penn street, for a few days.

CENTRAL HIGH NOTES

The sophomore prizes, gift of the class of '18, were presented this afternoon by Ben Wolfe, president, to the four sophomore girls having the highest averages. Until the class of '18 was graduated there was nothing beyond a desire for knowledge to excite an interest in the studies of the lower classes. Now a keen sense of friendly rivalry is felt until the winners are announced who receive respectively ten, seven and a half, five and two and a half dollars. The girls who received the prizes this afternoon are as follows: Miss Elizabeth Hartman, with an average of 83.9; Miss Mildred Shirk, with an average of 83.1; Miss Florence Davis, with an average of 82 and Miss Blanche Raine, with an average of 82.9.

Miss Jessie E. Bowers, Latin teacher, who did not return to school in September on account of ill health is expected to return about the middle of October. During the absence of Miss Bowers her place has been filled by W. Harry Musser, attorney. There will be a meeting of the D. S. Society to-morrow evening at the home of Miss Mary Bevard, 1323 Green street, when Miss Margaret Spenser will be initiated into the society. At the same time the club will arrange for a dance to be held on Halloween. The society comprises: The Misses Winifred Tripner, president; Eva Irving, vice-president; Sylvia Gingrich, secretary; Mary Bevard, treasurer; Mary Rodney, Doris Billet, Helen Notestine, Margaret Schwab, Ruth Marks, Adela Smyser, Anna Porter, Mildred Kreider, Mildred Rowe Beatrice Bogar, Frances Caton, Cordelia Morgan, Margaret Spenser.
