There is an elevator boy in a New York office building who is among a large number of public servants who resent needless questions. One day there entered his car a rather fussy old lady, and garrulous as well.

Don't you ever feel sick going and down in this elevator sil lay?" she asked.

The Methodist Headquarters team which is holding Christian activities conferences in all the Methodist districts of the country, last Sunday held one of the most successful young people's meetings in Ridge Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church ever held in the Harrisburg District. The team consists of Chaplain J. V. Thompson, Secretary of Young Peoples' Work of the Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Epis-copal Church; Miss Dorothy E. Mead, of Chicago, in charge of the

Auditorium Filled
The spacious auditorium of Ridge Avenue Church was filled to overflowing at the morning service. This large audience heard Chaplain Thompson preach a sermon taken from the text concerning the wise and foolish virgins, that portrayed great necessity for preparedness and training of Christian young men and women so that when the opportuntity for real service for the Kingdom comes they will be ready to respond.

Between four and five hundred people attended the afternoon service, which was in charge of the young people of the district, with Leon Simonetti, President of the Teen Age Union of Harrisburg, presiding. The young people who spoke were William Ray Chapman, Educational Director of Grace Church; Charles Baumeister, of York; Miss Miriam Brown, Junior League Superintendent of the Harrisburg District Epworth League, and Miss Dorothy Rishel, of Camp Curtin Church.

Adjourns For Fellowship Chaplain Thompson brought to the delegates some of the materials and methods that could be used in young peoples' work and Miss Mead very forcefully portrayed what relation the young people should have to the local church program. The conference adjourned at 5.30 for a Fellowship Period of one-half hour, when the delegates from the various charges were introduced to each other, and due to the certain seating arrangements, practically everyone got an opportunity to shake hands with each of the delegates and learned their names and their location.

was served to the delegates with Mr.

The tables were artistically decorated by the local Ridge Avenue Decorating Committee, as was the main church auditorium.
Promptly at seven o'clock Miss Mead took the young women into a conference on subjects pertaining to their particular lines of action, and Chaplain Thompson took the young men in for a separate conference. Both of these leaders of young people gave straight-fromthe-shoulder talks on the physical relationship of young people towards each other and towards the church and community.

Make Forceful Addresses
At 7.30 o'clock the conference reconvened, and a large number of visitors joined with the convention delegates in listening to an address by Chaplain Thompson on "Americanizing America," followed by an address by Dr. J. Franklin Ream, on "Life Service."
Both of these addresses were forceful and no thoughtful young person could attend especially this session of the conference without effecting a great desire to studiously look himself or herself in the face and see if there was any possibility of them really being of any service for the Kingdom either in the Home or Foreign field.

Every play was given close attention and it was just like being at the game to see this board in operation. Every game will be played this way.
