WHITE SOX HOPE FOR COMEBACK IN SECOND GAME--WILKES-BARRE HIGH TO PLAY HERE

CICOTTE TO TRY COME BACK: MAY PITCH AGAIN FRIDAY; CINCINNATI HAS CELEBRATION

Cincinnati, Oct. 2.—Eddie Cicotte. The master pitcher of the American Le-gue who was driven out of the cening game of the world's cories yesterday under a broadside of hits, to-day expressed confidence in his ability to come back at the Reds whenever called upon by Manager Gleason.

Clootte, with nearly thirty victories to his credit this season, is carrying the hopes of Chicago fans on his shoulders and they have every confidence that he will pitch the Sox to victory in two and possibly three of the remaining games. The master of the 'shine' and 'knuckie' ball declared to-day that he was completely unnerved when he hit Rath, the first man up in the game yesterday and lost all control of the lin the fourth inning.

Went to Pieces

"It is hard to explain," Cicotte said, "but I was in no condition to pitch the game that I had expected. I felt perfectly confident before the game started and appeared to have 'everythins' when I was warming up, but when I hit Rath, it seemed to have a strange effect on me. I felt so badly about it that I trotted with him along the first base line to see if the ball had hurt him. When Rath assured me that he was all right I went back to the pitching mound, but I did not seem to be right." Supporters of the White Sox to a world's champtonship, is convinced that Cicotte the White Sox to a world's champtonship, is convinced that Cicotte the White Sox to a world's champtonship, is convinced that Cicotte due to work and beat the Reds before the series ends. A grand total of 197 balls were pitched during to-day's game, 88 by Reuther in nine innings and 109 by Chicago pitchers in eight innings.

The record for fewest balls pitched

The record for fewest balls pitched in any one inning went to Reuther, who in the seventh inning tossed only four times. One of these was a ball, two were high flies out and one was a grounder on which the batter was thrown out.

the White Sox were no better than even money in the betting on the world's series here to-night. Several wagers, ranging from $500 to $2,500, were made on to-day's contest. Previous to the opening game, odds were given that the White Sox would win the series.

Scalpers reaped a rich harvest selling tickets for the opening contest, but an hour before the game was called the speculators slashed their prices and were apparently anxious to dispose of their tickets at face value. Box seats for three games, costing $19.80 were snapped up at prices ranging from $40 to $60 early in the day. One visitor paid $125 for three $5.50 seats for to-day's game.

Persons having seats to sell circulated among the baseball crowds thronging the hotel corridors, peddling their wares. The speculators also were busy on street corners and other places where baseball crowds gathered.

Federal authorities made one ar-

Federal authorities made one arrest and held one witness in connection with the ticket selling. Under the law, speculators selling tickets for more than face value are obliged to pay Federal war tax of fifty percent. of the amount received.

Revenue agents were stationed in hotel lobbies to watch for violations and a score of suspected scalpers were questioned.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 2. — Tabulation of the pitching record of yesterday's game shows that Reuther, winning Cincinnati pitcher, pitched 21 strikes and 29 balls, while the three White Sox pitchers — Cicotte, Wilkinson and Loudermilk — sent over 21 strikes and 46 balls. The record shows that Chicago batters found Reuther's pitching thirty-eight times, mostly for high flies and fouls. The hard-hitting Reds connected with 42 balls pitched by the three White Sox hurlers, 14 of them for safe hits. Twenty-one flies and seventeen grounders were hit off Reuther, while 16 flies and 26 grounders were knocked from balls pitched by Cicotte, Wilkinson and Loudermilk. BENNIE LEONARD WINS ed a virtual knockout over scored a virtual knockout over Charlie Metrie, of Milwaukee, in the seventh round of what was scheduled to be a ten-round go here last night.

Mount Union Team Is Winner in County Series

Mount Union, Oct. 2.—Before a large crowd Harbison Walker, of Mount Union, defeated Robertsdale 6 to 1, making eighteen wins for the season, and only four defeats. They won the county championship and, in fact, the champions of several counties, having defeated Port Royal of Mifflin County League two out of three games. In yesterday's game there was some fine pitching, but Howard had the edge on Ballor, especially in pinches. Mount Union also outhit Robersdale, getting seven against three, cries of left for our feetiner, "Wait on it Heine" and "Oh you Daubert" rang through the hall during the afternoon and when Dutch Reuther pounded out his second triple the great throng went wild. Anyone on the outside would have lose at hand.

So complete is the Ritter board that every possible play of the game is shown. It was a great sight to watch the Cincinnati players running the bases in that eventful fourth inning when five runs were registered. Mr. Ritter has made arrangements to reproduce every game of the great series at Chestnut street hall and the baseball fans will make it a mecca during the remainder of the series. A wire running direct to the playing fields in stantaneous service and the play is start here at 3 o'clock.

Of course you must have warmth on cool autumn days.

But that's no reason for lighting the furnace in the morning and then opening the windows at noon to let the surplus heat out.

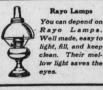

A Perfection Oil Heater bridges the heating gaps between summer and winter. Its radiant heat quickly warms a room and you can carry it to any part of the house.
