TELLS PREACHERS NOT TO MARRY

Conference Superintendent So Advises the Young Men Given Licenses

Reading, Pa., Oct. 3.—At the 120th annual United Brethren Conference here, Conference Superintendent the Rev. Dr. S. C. Enck, of Philadelphia, presented his second annual report. It was a full account of the work done by the conference throughout the year.

The evangelism of the churches is to be continuous throughout the year and the young men who are licensed to preach are urged to enter Lebanon Valley College, where courses are offered to best qualify them, but as the superintendent said, "Remain single." Seven young men were recommended for license to preach, and they are advised not to wed for the present.

Bishop W. M. Bell, of Washington, D. C., in an address said:

"Jesus Christ is insistent that the church address itself to the rampant immorality of this day.

"The church and the ministry this year 1919 must get in touch with the social conditions that are going on. We must mix up in things political."

THREE AGED PREACHERS AT U. B. CONFERENCE

All of Them, Well Known Throughout Central Pennsylvania, Are Taking Part in the Sessions Being Held in Reading This Week

Reading, Pa., Oct. 3.—Three of the ministers of the East Pennsylvania United Brethren Conference, although not in the active work, are present at the sessions and take a deep interest in all the deliberations. They are the Rev. James Shoop, of Elizabethville; the Rev. J. B. Funk, of Mountville; and the Rev. W. Gambler, of Lebanon.

The Rev. James Shoop is a native of Dauphin county and is a member of the Conference since 1867. While in the active pastorate he served the following churches: Belligrove, Valley View, Sinking Spring, Pinegrove, Lebanon Salem, Tower City, Allentown, Avon, Lykens Circuit and Elizabethville. He also served as presiding elder for a number of years.

The Rev. J. B. Funk is a native of Lancaster county and was received into the Conference in 1871. He served a number of churches in the early years of his ministerial career, the last being Florin, near Mt. Joy.

The Rev. W. Gambler is one of the oldest ministers of the Conference, having been admitted in 1879. On account of failing health he was compelled to relinquish the active work several years ago. He served the following churches as pastor: Pinegrove, Middleburg, Susquehanna Circuit, Lebanon Salem, Grantville, Mt. Carmel, Tower City, Reading Zion and St. Paul's, Lebanon. For a number of years he has resided at Lebanon.

CLEAN SLATE AT LANCASTER FAIR

Officials Suspend Gambling After Notice of Law and Order Society

Lancaster, Oct. 3.—This, the last day of the Lancaster county fair, is going through on a clean cut basis, according to officials of the fair association. Action is causing immediate suspension of all questionable devices and shows on the Midway, came following notice from the Lancaster Law and Order Society.

The fair officials were informed by the law and order society that thirty or more gambling devices were wide-open and that a woman show of questionable character was being run.

The letter of the society was turned over by the fair management to Captain Smith, of the State Police, whose troopers have been policing the fair, and later a conference was held between representatives of the Law and Order Society and the captain and his lieutenant. After a full discussion and the position of the Law and Order Society made clear, the officer of the State Police declared that they were ready to enforce the law, and that they would make all arrests on warrants served out by the Law and Order Society.

The representatives of the Law and Order Society then stated that it was not their desire to prosecute the fair, but that they would agree to discontinue all gambling and any show that was indecent or immoral, and would notify the society.

The fair management acceded to the demand of the Law and Order Society.

Reading Has Good Continuation Schools

Reading, Pa., Oct. 3.—Continuation schools of Reading are the best in the State and are held as a model for the United States, according to Miss Claire Snyder, of Harrisburg, State inspector of continuation schools, who is in Reading. Details of the work here were explained to Miss Snyder by George D. Stoeckel, supervisor of continuation schools.

"Reading," Miss Snyder declared, "is further advanced with its continuation schools than any city in Pennsylvania. The corps of teachers is an excellent one and Reading may well be taken as a model throughout the United States."

Helped to Thrash at the Age of 82 Years

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 3.—Cyrus Rathbon, 82 years old, to-day said he feels good over the work he performed several days ago when he helped Frank Smith to thrash. Young men in the neighborhood said the work was too hard. Mr. Smith then called upon Mr. Rathbon.

Strike Cripples the Berwick Car Plant

Berwick, Pa., Oct. 3.—The local plant of the American Car and Foundry Company is seriously crippled by a strike called by the Central Labor Union. Labor leaders declared that many departments were completely tied up while in the others from 35 to 90 per cent of the employees were said to have answered the call.

The company claimed that about 26 per cent of its 4,500 employees reported for work as usual this morning, but that many others returned during the day.

Among the demands of the strikers are recognition of their union, seniority rights and the reinstatement of discharged men.

Rabbi Haas to Assist in Cornerstone Laying

Lewistown, Pa., Oct. 3.—The Hebrew congregation of Ohev Shalom issued invitations to-day for the cornerstone laying of the new synagogue at 20 East Third street, which will take place Sunday, at 2:30 o'clock. The committee in charge of the ceremony are H. J. Cohen, Jacob Hurwitz, Harry Sherman, S. Hallem and De Hous.

On the program are selections by the Burnham Community Band, prayer by Rabbi Haas, of Harrisburg; lecture by Dr. Hutchinson, addressed by Dr. F. A. Rupp; lecture by Rabbi Haas. This is the first synagogue in Lewistown.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 3.—William Landis, late of Pike township, in his will, which was filed for probate at the office of Register Wertz, makes provision that his daughter Mary Jane Strauser, is to receive all his household effects and "the choice of one of my cows."

NEW NURSE TO ENTER THE ARMY

York Haven, Pa., Oct. 3.—York Haven is gaily attired to-day for the community Welcome Home celebration to be held here to-morrow in honor of the returned soldiers, sailors and marines of this borough and community. With favorable weather existing, hundreds of out-of-town people will come here for the festivities. Residents were busily engaged to-day decorating their homes and business places with bunting, American flags and banners. Ten gaily decorated arches have been erected at intervals along Main street, this being done at the expense of the finance committee.

One hundred and seventy-four invitations have been mailed out to returned soldiers, and fully 90 per cent of these are expected to participate in the affair. Following a march over the principal streets of the town, the parade will disband at the community flagpole, where patriotic exercises will be held and a large new American flag, 12 by 20 feet in dimensions, will be unfurled. The speakers for the occasion will be Judge Moore, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Attorney Walter B. Hays, Congressman Edward S. Brooks, of York, and H. W. Stokes, of Philadelphia, president of the York Haven Paper Company.

The addresses will be made from the porch of the Haven Hotel, a historic place, Lafayette having feasted and lodged there during the Revolutionary War. Immediately after the exercises at the community flagpole, the soldiers, sailors and marines, their mothers and wives, will be tendered a banquet in St. Paul's Hall. During the banquet the Starview Band will furnish music.

CLEAN SLATE AT MATRIMONIAL TANGLES AIRED

Woman Said to Have Two Husbands; Another Man Two Wives

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 3.—Some peculiar tangles in Lower End matrimony were aired in a session of Surety Court held by Judge Sadler. One woman said to have two husbands was seeking support from the second, and a common-law wife wanted support from her husband who has lately been married with due legal formality.

Charles B. Sanders, West Fairview, was charged with nonsupport by his wife. It was claimed that they were married in 1904 and that he left home in 1915. The defense stated that Mrs. Sanders was married to a man named Forney, who resided four years after the marriage. Forney had formerly been reported dead in a letter to his mother, it was claimed. Sanders had also agreed to pay his wife $25 per month, it was stated. Judge Sadler held that he had no jurisdiction, but that Sanders ought to provide for his wife. A civil case will probably result.

Mrs. David Erney, of New Cumberland, charged her husband with not supporting her and three children, and will be allowed to remain at home until she can get a divorce, and attacking her. Erney claimed that his wife had refused to provide meals. He was ordered to pay $40 per week.

Claiming that she was his common-law wife, Mrs. Edward Bomgardner claimed that her husband had given nothing to her support since 1915. The Lower End, but said they had formerly been in Philadelphia and for a time in Perry county. When Bomgardner took out a marriage license she brought suit. Bomgardner is now married and living in West Fairview. The case was continued.

Washington Visited Carlisle 125 Years Ago

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 3.—Sunday will mark the 125th anniversary of the visit of George Washington to Carlisle, and will be observed with special ceremony. Washington's visit to Carlisle for several days and worshipped at the First Presbyterian Church here. This church still stands and is one of the oldest edifices in the country. The Rev. N. Hagerty, the pastor, in his sermon Sunday will use excerpts from the sermon delivered at the time of Washington's visit by the Rev. Dr. Davidson, then the pastor. The incident occurred at the time of the Whiskey Insurrection, and the First President directed, and the First point where Dickinson College buildings now stand. A feature in the observance Sunday will be the attendance of the United States Army members. This company, 60 years old, and the Rev. Dr. Davidson, who delivered the sermon, was the first president.

Saves Girl Caught in Railroad Track

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 3.—Charles Mentzer, a Pennsylvania railroad car inspector at Columbia, saved a young girl whose foot was fast in a railroad track at the Lemon street crossing, in time to prevent what might have been a fatal accident. The girl was crossing the tracks when her shoe caught in the rails. Several women were near at the time, but their approach of the girl, and their shouting, caused her to turn her head and, losing presence of mind did not attempt to release her. Mr. Mentzer called the call. He saw that the girl was in danger, and, running to the scene, unlaced the shoe, pulled the girl's foot out, and then with his hammer knocked the shoe out before an east-bound train thundered along over the spot.

New Cigar Factory Planned For Ephrata

Ephrata, Pa., Oct. 3.—L. Rupp, residing near Akron, proprietor of what is known as the Rupp Cigar Factory, near that borough, rented the large building at H. M. Gerhart on Chestnut street, west of Park avenue, this borough, where he will open a cigar factory, on or about October 15. It is expected that about 30 hands will be employed in the new industry. John Eck, of Akron, who has been manager of the Rupp factory near Akron, will be manager of the new factory in this borough.

Mediators Try to End Silk Mill Strikes

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 3.—In an effort to end the silk workers' strike which has closed about a dozen mills in Lackawanna county, State mediators are here trying to bring about a conference between the strikers and the mill owners. At present about 8,000 workers are out and so far all efforts towards a settlement have gone for naught. Meanwhile, the work of the union is being pushed by officers of the textile workers who are threatening a general silk strike.

"Cure Your Rupture Like I Cured Mine"

Old Sea Captain Cured His Own Rupture After Doctors Said "Operate or Death."

His Remedy and Book Sent Free.

Captain Collings sailed the seas for many years; then he sustained a bad double rupture that soon forced him to not only remain ashore, but kept him bedridden for weeks. He tried doctor after doctor and truss after truss. No result! Finally, he was assured that he must either submit to a dangerous and abortive operation or die. He did neither! He cured himself instead.

That patch of eruption is not necessarily a serious matter! Even in severe, well-established cases of eczema, ring-worm or similar affections, Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap quickly relieve the itching and usually overcome the trouble completely. How much more, then, can this simple, inexpensive treatment be relied on to dispel skin troubles in their earlier stages.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold at all druggists. For samples of each, free, write to Dept. I-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This Jad Salts is made from the acid and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
