"THE RED LANTERN" BRIGHTEST PHOTOPLAY

Nazimova has what is in effect a triple personality to interpret in "The Red Lantern," which comes to the Colonial Theater, on Monday next. She appears as Mahlee, a Eurasian girl (that is, half white and half Chinese), in which the racial traits of the Oriental and the Anglo-Saxon conflict in moments of elemental passion; and also as Blanche Sackville, an English girl, the natural daughter of the father of Mahlee. As Blanche, Nazimova, for the first time on the screen appears as a blonde.

LAST DAY OF HARA IN "LA BELLE RUSSE" A remarkable photoplay, interpreted with fine artistry, and the departure from the Victoria Theater when "La Belle Russe" ends its run there to-night by David Belasco stage drama of the same name, from which the William Fox photoplay was adapted, made its author famous years ago; and credit must be given to Charles J. Brabin—who made the screen version of the play—because of dramatic values, but by an exquisite taste in the purely pictorial phases of the production.

TRIPLE ATTRACTION AT REGENT The triple attraction which scored a triumph with audiences at the Regent Theater yesterday will be exhibited for the last time to-day. Residents of this city will have their last chance to see themselves in motion pictures before the scenes of Monday's Welcome Home Celebration will be shown. This film has been created by a keen sense of city, and in all probability the theater will have capacity houses to-day.

"FATTY" ARBUCKLE appears again to-day in his newest comedy, "Back Stage," which has kept the audiences at the Regent laughing for the last two days.

The new Paramount Picture, "Hay Foot, Straw Foot," starring Charles Ray, made a great hit at its first showings yesterday. With charming Doris Lee, Mr. Ray has produced an exceptionally fine picture.

"VICTIMS OF THE WORLD" (Yiddish) Mr. David Meyerovitz, the well known author and composer of the Yiddish stage, will appear in this city for the first time on Monday evening and will present his own popular success "Victims of the World." Mr. Meyerovitz needs no introduction to lovers of the Yiddish drama, his sweet music and writings are known in every Jewish home. Mr. Meyerovitz will be supported by an exceptionally strong company of well known players. The seat sale is now open.
