THE FINANCIAL GIANT Oil is far more valuable than gold. No capital—free—no experience. 600 of the yellow metal annually, it was heralded a world beater and scores of investors became rich. But what was known as Bonanza Camp at that time fades into insignificance in comparison with the production of oil in the vicinity of Fort Worth, Texas. Taking no account of the new wells already ready to be brought in, the oil production of this area yields $125,000,000 per year. Other fields equally as rich in oil. Read the "Oil Press," containing a full account of this tremendous oil boom and fortunes that are being made on little capital. Each issue contains authentic information and analytical reports of scores of companies, some good, bad and indifferent, operating in the great Mid-Continent and Texas fields. A late copy together with the "Market" containing the quotations on listed, unlisted, active and inactive oil stocks may be had free on request. Also and indifferent, operating in the Texas just out, featuring the oil fields in Louisiana and Oklahoma and Texas. Write for details. Address, Oil Press, 707 Republic Building, Kansas City, Mo.
