St. John's Reformed Church Observing 20th Anniversary

Both Former Pastors of Congregation to Speak During the Week's Services, Which Opened Last Evening; Perry County Reunion on Tuesday

THE REV. G. W. HARTMAN

Last evening St. John's Reformed Church began the series of services arranged to celebrate the Twentieth Anniversary of the founding of the church, with a service preparatory to the Holy Communion to be held to-morrow morning and evening.

Ten members were added to the congregation. The solo was by Mrs. Vesper Smith, "Come Unto Me." The first pastor, the Rev. James Rauch Stein will be here and speak at the Holy Communion services on Sunday morning and evening. He will also be the preacher at the service on Monday evening, when he has been asked to give some recollections of the early years of St. John's. A social half hour in charge of the Ladies' Aid Society will follow. This part of the week's program is arranged to give a large chance for members and friends to get better acquainted and to repair old friendships, and will be in charge of the various organizations of the church each evening.

Dr. James W. Meminger, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church, Lancaster, will deliver the address to the Sunday school on Tuesday evening. He is originally from Perry County, and a Perry County reunion is planned for that evening. Seats will be reserved. The Lower School will conduct the social half hour.

THE REV. J. R. STEIN

With the general awakening of the churches since the war the Reformed Church has formed the Forward Movement Program. This will be explained on Wednesday evening by one well able to bring us that vision. The Upper School will have charge of the Social Half Hour.

This congregation has been helped largely by the Mission Board of the denomination. The secretary of that board the Rev. Dr. C. E. Schaeffer of Philadelphia, will preach on Thursday evening. The Women's Missionary Society will have charge of the Social Half Hour on that evening. The former pastor, the Rev. George W. Hartman, who but recently was released from overseas service will deliver his first message on Friday evening. He will also speak at the Feast of Ingathering to be held on the following Sunday morning and at the Sunday evening service, but that will be announced more fully later. The Christian Endeavor Society will take care of the social half hour on Friday evening. The congregation was organized, October 5th, 1899, and for a number of years worshipped in the Kelker Street Market House. The first pastor, the Rev. James Rauch Stein served from 1899 to 1910, the second one, the Rev. George W. Hartman from 1911 to 1918, and the present pastor began with December last.

Pine Street Church High in Communicant Membership

Ranks 25th Among Presbyterian Churches With But Four State Churches of Denomination Leading It; Ranks Fourth in Parish Membership in Denomination

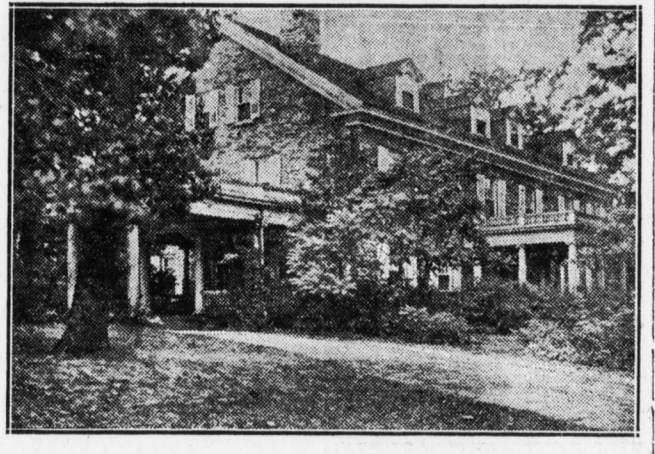

In communicant membership, the Pine Street Presbyterian Church ranks twenty-fifth in the denomination, according to an announcement issued by officials. In Pennsylvania it ranks fifth, one church in Pittsburgh and three in Philadelphia being larger in communicant membership. In Sunday School membership Pine Street stands third in the denomination, only two churches having a larger Sunday School enrollment, the First Church, of Seattle, Wash., and Bethany Church, Philadelphia. In parish membership Pine Street stands fourth in the denomination, the First Church, of Seattle; Bethany Church, of Philadelphia, and Central Church, of Philadelphia, being larger. The parish membership of the church is its communicant membership plus its Sunday School membership. A knowledge of the parish membership of a church is valuable, as it gives a fair estimate of the number of individuals in direct relation to the church.

Such duplications as may occur between the communicant membership and the Sunday School membership are usually made up by others associated with the church who are not on either roll. At the Pine Street Presbyterian Church on Sunday, October 5, the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seyour Mudge, will preach at both services. At the morning service, at 10:30 o'clock, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. New members will also be welcomed. The short sacramental sermon will be on "Lessons in Loyalty." In the afternoon the church Sunday School will hold its annual promotion day exercises, children being promoted from the kindergarten, primary, junior and intermediate grades to the grade next above. Suitable recognition will be given to children who have satisfactorily completed the graded courses in the several departments.

At the evening service the pastor will present the first of a series of evening sermons, the general title of which is "Common Things Christ Used." The sermon to-morrow evening will be centered around "The Scourge Christ Made." The following are the subjects of the other sermons in this course, which will be presented as far as possible on successive Sunday evenings: "The Clay Christ Mixed," "The Ship Christ Saved," "The Penny Christ Asked," "The Colt Christ Rode," "The Towel Christ Took," "The Bread Christ Broke" and "The Cup Christ Shared." On Monday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society will be held in the church parlor, with a helpful program. On Tuesday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Guild will be held, at which matters of great and immediate interest in the missionary world will be considered. On Monday the indoor activities associated with the Boyd Memorial Building will be renewed in accordance with the usual fall schedule. The full program with its varied interests will begin about November 1. On Wednesday evening, at the mid-week service, the pastor will present the first of a series of addresses, the general title of which will be "The Christ We Forget." There will be 20 addresses in this series, which will extend throughout the fall and winter months. The subject of the first address next Wednesday will be "His Biographers." The purpose of these addresses is to bring a fresh study of the life of Christ into contact with the problems of the present day.

On Friday evening the Boy Scouts will hold their usual meeting at the Boyd Memorial Building. At the Women and Girls' Building preparations are being made for the usual interests and activities of the fall and winter, and a detailed program will be ready for publication shortly.
