

PLANES TUNED FOR LONG RACE

Aviators in Mineola Prepare For Transcontinental Flight

New York, Oct. 6.—Mechanics were kept busy at Roosevelt Field to-day tuning up the airplanes entered in the Army's coast-to-coast race, which will start next Wednesday. They were also testing out the gasoline and oils which will be used in the long flight. Much discussion is going on as to the probable winners of the race. The experts center their hopes on two of the fliers who will start from Roosevelt Field. They are Captain Field E. Kindley, second senior American ace, who won the British and American Distinguished Service Crosses for gallantry during the war, and Lieutenant Belvin W. Maynard, the "flying pastor," winner of the recent Mineola-Toronto race. Kindley will pilot a SE-5 and Maynard will probably fly a De Havilland machine. The starting point was being marked out at the field to-day. It will be a wide white circle and it is planned to send all the aeroplanes off as nearly together as possible, but it is believed that the starting of the planes will stretch over a period of an hour or more. The race is expected to require three or four days.

TO CAUTION CAPTAIN

Paris, Oct. 6.—The Duke of Aosta has gone to Fiume, being charged by the government to ask Captain D'Annunzio not to extend his operations about the city, but to await a decision by the Allies relative to the situation according to advices from Rome.

CONGRESS WANTS TO END SESSIONS

Leaders Plan to Speed Legislation Through in Time For Month's Rest

Washington, Oct. 6.—With disposition of the Peace Treaty expected by November 1, Congressional leaders are discussing prospects of closing the extraordinary session, which began May 19, so as to have a month's rest before regular December session begins.

Pressure is planned this week in the Senate to dispose of Treaty amendments. That relating to Shantung was taken up to-day with a vote expected in a few days. Amendments by Senators Johnson, Callahan, and Moses, New Hampshire, Republicans, to equalize votes of the United States and Great Britain in the League of Nations are to follow. Leaders hope that by the middle of next week all amendments will be disposed of. Reservations then will be considered.

President Wilson's illness may have an effect on the Treaty situation. It is not expected to cause any substantial delay in considering the pact while the amendments are before the Senate, but when reservations are reached the President's counsel is deemed highly necessary, as Democratic leaders have not had opportunity to discuss with him what reservations would be acceptable. Debate on other Treaty considerations will continue while the pending amendment is under consideration.

Three important bills—for enforcing prohibitions restoring pre-war rate making authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission and to penalize hoarding and profiteering—are in position for final enactment by Congress this week. It has been suggested, however, that transmission of the bills to the President be deferred until his condition improves.

WARNS OF PROPAGANDA

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson, who left here last night for Portland to continue his speaking tour against the League of Nations Covenant in its present form, issued a statement before departing alleging that in addition to the sincere advocates of the League there was an organized and well financed propaganda endeavoring to create sentiment in its favor and also another element—the Anglo-Japanese propaganda and press.

ASIA MINOR SITUATION GRAVE

Copenhagen, Oct. 6.—The downfall of the Turkish cabinet following the occupation by Turkish nationalist troops of Koniah an important city of Asia Minor, connected by railroad lines with Scutari and Smyrna, is considered in French circles as creating a grave situation in Asia Minor and the development of another difficult problem for the peace conference. The young Turks are thought to be regaining the upper hand in Turkey.

DR. J. A. HEARST DIES

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—Dr. John A. Hearst, for many years prominent in medical circles in this city, died at his home, Saturday night of heart disease. His health had not been good for some months and three weeks ago his condition became serious, when he contracted a severe cold.

Open Shop an Aid to Liberty and Bourne Says

Washington, D. C., Oct. 6.—Defense of the "open shop" on the grounds of personal liberty and in view of the need of greater production of all the necessities of life, was made by Jonathan Bourne, Jr., president of the Republican Publicity Association.

Mr. Bourne also scored radical labor leadership for its "organized intimidation" on the part of a small part of the population for the purpose of infringing upon the personal liberties of the greater part of the country, said Mr. Bourne, "demonstrate the desirability of immediate enactment of drastic laws making it a crime with heavy penalty for any person or group of persons to coerce or undertake, through violent resistance to law, impairment of interstate commerce, destruction of life or property, or overthrow of the established form of Government."

D'Annunzio Holding Triangle Six Miles on Each of Its Legs

Piume, Oct. 6.—(By Courier to Paris.) Gabriele D'Annunzio's army at present holds territory forming an equilateral triangle with Piume on the base and with the apex located at Clana, to the north. Each side of this triangle is approximately six miles long, and one is formed by the sea coast. The western angle is at Preclusa, about two miles from Abbadia, and the eastern angle is at Ursini, which is between Sussak and Bucurati. The line from Preclusa to Clana passes through Castua, while the stretch to Clana to the coast traverses Crobnica.

Five Noted Lawyers Declare Congress Can Fix Rail Earnings

Washington, Oct. 6.—Former Senator Elihu Root, John G. Miller, of New York; John S. Miller, of Chicago; Hugh L. Bond, Jr., of Birmingham; and Forney Johnston, of Birmingham, have expressed their opinion that the Congress has the Constitutional power to regulate excess earnings of railroads over and above a fair return upon the value of their property. This opinion states that such excess earnings are the result of rates made to meet the actual necessities essential to the preservation of the life of the transportation system of the country. They take decided issue with the opinion recently announced by Charles E. Hughes.

English Rail Strike Settled Suddenly

London, Oct. 6.—With dramatic suddenness in the quiet of the London Sunday afternoon it was announced to a knot of people waiting in Downing street that the great railway strike which appeared to have brought the country almost to the brink of revolution, was settled, and that the strikers would resume work as quickly as possible. The terms of the settlement are in the nature of a compromise. The National Union of Railwaymen agrees to end the strike, and the government consents to a renewal of the negotiations, the continuance of the existing wage scale for another year, instead of six months, as previously offered, and the establishment of a minimum wage of 51 shillings while the cost of living is 110 per cent. above the pre-war level. The settlement was the result of a long conference between trade union delegates, including representatives of the railwaymen's union, and Premier Lloyd George and Andrew Bonar Law.

Five Killed, Thirteen Hurt in Train Crash

Jamestown, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Five are dead, and thirteen injured, three seriously, as the result of a rear-end collision which occurred Saturday evening on the Buffalo Lake Erie traction line, between Dunkirk and Fredonia.

Irvin Fick, motorman on the car running between Buffalo and Fredonia, and which collided with the rear end of a local running between Fredonia and Dunkirk, stated that he did not see the car ahead of him, which was taking on passengers because of rain on the window of the car and the blinding lights of an approaching automobile.

Killed Before Bride Showing His Prowess

Trenton, Oct. 6.—While showing his prowess to some friends by climbing a telegraph pole in front of his home near the city yesterday, Alessandro Propetti, 23 years old, touched a public service corporation wire, at the top of the pole, which was charged with 26,000 volts and was instantly killed. His body was flung against the charged wire and was burned nearly in half as his burning clothing dropped to the roadside. The accident was witnessed by the young man's wife whom he married about a year ago. The body was taken down by public service employees after the current had been stopped.

Bishop Bell Sees Need of League

Reading, Pa., Oct. 6.—That the "tremendous upheaval and destructive force of the great war cannot be overcome and eradicated by a less powerful instrument than a suitable League of Nations," and that "such helplessness" as civilization evidenced in being unable to avert the terrible catastrophe of a war that was "moderately vicious and despicable," must not continue, was declared by Bishop William M. Bell, of Washington, D. C., head of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren Church, now in session in this city. Bishop Bell preached the conference sermon in Rajah Theater.

Beautiful Russian Girl Lured Victims to Death

Stockholm, Oct. 6.—Hadji Lashed, one of the sixteen Russians arrested here charged with belonging to a political murder band with at least three murders to its credit, made an unreserved confession of guilt during the re-hearing of the case yesterday. Various of the story current here in which the name of a beautiful Russian girl was mentioned as the lure by which the victims were enticed to the scene of their death, differed as to whether the murder band was acting under Bolshevik or anti-Bolshevik colors. But Hadji Lashed in his confession adhered to his previous statement that the murders were of a political character and were directed against Bolshevism. According to the police, General Arasjoff, one of the victims was a Bolshevik commercial agent and spy who had received 68,000,000 rubles for use in Sweden. They charged that the murders were committed for money.
