

EAGER TO ERECT MEMORIAL SHAFT

Residents of Dauphin and Middle Paxton Back of Project

Dauphin, Oct. 9.—Meeting at the home of F. Gerberich last evening, enthusiastic boosters of the proposed memorial shaft for Civil and Great Wars veterans organized the Dauphin Memorial Association and discussed ways and means of bringing the project to materialization.

Dr. W. P. Clark was elected chairman of the association. Other officers are Charles E. Shaffer, secretary, and Dr. A. C. Coble, treasurer. Others in attendance were: W. B. Gross, who first broached the idea of a memorial shaft; Dr. M. Reed, Daniel F. Seltzer and F. C. Garberich.

According to present plans a rugged boulder, weighing in the vicinity of ten tons, will be brought from the slopes of Short Mountain by the W. P. Zartman Lumber Company, aboard their narrow gauge. Mr. Seltzer and Dr. Coble are the committee to secure it. The rock will be brought into the town early next week, depending upon the difficulties attending its loading and transportation.

Middle Paxton Boys, Too

In the meantime Mr. Gerberich and Mr. Shaffer are securing estimates on the prices of bronze tablets. These will contain the names of all veterans of the Civil War, numbering more than fifty, and of the Great War, numbering nearly seventy, and will be attached to the boulder. In each instance names of men who resided in Middle Paxton township, which includes Clark's Store and Fishing Creek valleys will be included, as the committee is eager to make the shaft representative of the community rather than limiting it to the borough.

Early Contributors

As soon as the price of the bronze tablets is ascertained, a campaign will be waged to raise the necessary funds. While no plea has gone out, Dr. A. C. Coble to-day received two contributions from patriotic citizens, one in the borough and another a Middle Paxton farmer. Others are expected to follow their example.

Red Cross Approves Step

The local Red Cross unit has expressed its heartiest approval of the project and members have volunteered to aid in the campaign for funds. A third plate on the marker will contain a list of welfare contributions and Liberty Loan purchases in Dauphin and vicinity.

G. A. R. Endorses It

Among the heartiest supporters of the movement are the few remaining survivors of the Civil War. They have never been appropriately recognized and the eagerness with which John Bricker, George Sellers and Samuel Maurey are swinging in back of the movement shows how they feel this lack.

"It isn't matter much for us, because we won't be here very long, but we do want to see a permanent record of the boys in this war and a permanent record of this section's war welfare work," said John Bricker to-day.

"Dry" Enforcement Bill Is Adopted by Senate; Now Goes to the House

Washington, Oct. 9.—The bill for enforcement of war-time and constitutional prohibition as agreed to in conference was adopted by the Senate without discussion. It now goes to the House for final action.

Absence of debate on the measure occasioned much surprise. Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, called up the conference agreement and after a pause to learn if any discussion was desired, Vice-President Marshall put the motion on adoption and it was carried viva voce without an audible vote.

Quick action on the conference report in the House is expected. As soon as the House acts the measure will go to the President and the section enforcing war-time prohibition will become effective as soon as he signs it.

With any beverage containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol defined as intoxicating under the law the sale of 2.75 per cent beer would be prohibited.

Mishaps to Midshipmen at Annapolis Academy Stirring Naval Cadets

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 9.—Naval circles have been stirred by three unfortunate incidents at the Naval Academy within a week of the opening of the new scholastic year. To the cases of Philip H. Selzer, of Lebanon, Pa., who on Sunday afternoon slashed his chest with a pen-knife and drank iodine and ink, and Oliver H. Marvin, of New Crin, N. D., who has suffered a nervous collapse, has been added that of Henry C. Wetherstine, of 124 East Upsal street, Philadelphia, who also drank iodine. All three belong to the new fourth class.

Rear Admiral A. H. Scoles, superintendent of the Naval Academy, definitely denied that having had anything to do with the cases of Selzer or Marvin, though the former stated that he had received light hazing or "running" from upper classes.

Bolshevism to Be Smashed, Mid-West Society Pledges

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Addressing a home meeting of the Mississippi Valley Association, President Harry H. Merrick, of Chicago, pledged the entire power of the organization, backed by 50,000,000 population, including 32,000,000 farmers, to smash Bolshevism and the Soviet idea in this country.

"We are going to get the people back to the Constitution of the United States as interpreted in the light of the Ten Commandments," shouted Mr. Merrick, after telling of the great growth of the farmers' organizations in the valley. "We are going to get away from individualist trucks and political self-seekers, and return to government by law, instead of government by force in mass form."

"We are going to stand by the Constitution and see to it that it is maintained by each man and every man, no matter who he is. We are going to see to it that the Soviet and what it stands for is smashed so flat you can't pick it up with a scoop shovel."

Mr. Merrick outlined the plan of the farmer interests as represented by the conference with the manufacturers to organize with the industrial interests of the valley.

Corroborates Story of Ford Steamship Line to Ireland

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 9.—A report from London that Henry Ford is considering the establishment of a steamship line to Ireland, was corroborated here by Charles E. Sorenson, superintendent of the Ford Tractor Company.

Mr. Sorenson declared that a number of American industrial concerns having Irish branches have been asked to provide means of shipping to and from Ireland. The Ford interests with a branch at Cork, he said, were asked to do so, and Mr. Ford promised to consider the request.

Cablegrams to that effect, he said had been sent to Cork.
