Following is a list, which may later be extended of the countries which will be represented at the conference: Great Britain, Canada, Poland, Finland, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Czechoslovakia, Belgium, Holland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Greece, India, China, Japan, Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Chile, Peru, Colombia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Guatemala, Mexico and Persia.

The delegates will represent billions invested in the cotton industry and allied interests. There will be the grower, ginner, seed crusher and manufacturer of seed products, compressor, cotton merchant, transportation and insurance agency, banker, spinner, manufacturer, textile merchant, converter, finisher and every recognized branch of the cotton of the cotton industry.

Men familiar with the subject of cotton in all its phases will address the conference and participate in the business sessions during the four days' meeting. Experts will deliberate on the problems confronting the cotton industry and will outline plans for improvements which it is expected will eliminate waste and have a strong tendency to develop the growth of the industry.

Germans See Hope in New Toy Boom

Berlin, Oct. 10.—The "made-in-Germany" toy industry will come into its own again, according to the hope and belief expressed by Economic Minister Schmidt following his visit to the Leipzig industrial fair.

Schmidt pointed out that this branch of industry was particularly well represented. Porcelain and glass lines were likewise displayed extensively, but everywhere the Minister heard the complaint that lack of coal, lack of rawstuffs and unfavorable exchange were making the German industrial position difficult.

One big American shoe house was represented at the fair, and closed many orders despite the high prices—in marks—demanded for the product.

Canadas' Victory Flagstaff Erected

London, Sept. 10.—Canada's victory flagstaff has been erected on victory mound at the victory gate entrance to Kew Garden—a straight Oregon pine 215 feet high and almost three feet in diameter at the base. It is the gift of the people of British Columbia to London and ranks with the tallest structure in London. Nelson's monument in Trafalgar Square being only 142 feet high, Bow Church 222, St. Stephen's clock tower (Big Ben's home) 320, Victoria tower (House of Lords) 326 and St. Paul's Cathedral 365.
