

The Day's News in Cities and Towns of Central Pennsylvania

MACHINES CRASH NEAR DILLSBURG

Trip of Blain Family to York Fair Ends in Automobile Smashup

New Bloomfield, Pa., Oct. 10.—On their way to the York fair in a Buick automobile, H. H. Hench and family, of Blain, this county, were injured in an automobile accident near Dillsburg and were compelled to return home. The Hench machine collided with a Ford car and was overturned. All of the occupants were thrown out, Gaylord Hench, a son, and Banks Rohm, of Blain, being the most seriously injured.

Harrisburg Couple Weds in Maryland Parsonage; Others Get Licenses

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 10.—Miss Dorothy Borton and Walter M. White, both of Harrisburg, were married yesterday at the parsonage of Christ Reformed church in this city by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Conrad Clever.

Tablet in Honor of Dr. Rothrock Unveiled

Chambersburg, Oct. 10.—A bronze tablet, imbedded in a monolithic boulder weighing 50 tons, was unveiled yesterday at South Mountain by Health Commissioner Dr. Edward Martin. Its inscription tells that Dr. Joseph Rothrock established the great camp for the treatment of tuberculosis patients at that point and recites facts of his great work in that direction.

SEES SON ALIVE IN HER DREAMS

Maryland Woman Believes Soldier Reported Dead Is Only Wounded

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 10.—The belief entertained by Mrs. Lettie V. Michael, near Boonsboro, that her son, Private Austin G. Michael, reported killed in action in France, is still alive is strengthened by dreams she has been having nearly eight months since news came of his death. The mother says she sees her son alive and dressed in civilian clothes in her dreams and thinks he was only wounded and has wandered off with a deranged mind and is unable to make his identity known.

Church Worker Dies at Mechanicsburg Home

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Addie Mowery, wife of Dr. S. E. Mowery died on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Keller street, a lengthy illness of a complication of diseases. She was aged 56 years and a member of St. Paul's Reformed church, in which she was an active worker.

Dauphin Mite Society Hold October Meeting

Dauphin, Pa., Oct. 10.—The Ladies Aid Society of the United Evangelical Church met at the home of Mrs. Charles Walker on Tuesday evening for devotional exercises and a short business meeting, a social time was enjoyed by all.

THREE MEHRINGS DEFY A BOROUGH

Woman With a Revolver Threatens to Shoot Workmen Removing Trees

Hagerstown, Pa., Oct. 10.—A D. Mehring and his wife and son were arrested yesterday for interfering with and threatening workmen removing trees from the street in front of their dwelling preparatory to laying an asphalt paving. Mrs. Mehring had a revolver and defied the men, threatening to shoot the first one who touched a tree.

Elizabethtown Soldiers Forming Post of Legion

Elizabethtown, Pa., Oct. 10.—The soldiers of Elizabethtown met in the Crescent Club rooms on Wednesday evening and organized Post No. 329 of the American Legion with forty members. The following temporary officers were elected: Chairman, Bayard King; secretary, J. Thomas Heistand; treasurer, Aubrose Plummer.

Carlisle's Chamber of Commerce Will Start Series of Luncheons

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 10.—Interest centers in the annual noon luncheon meeting at the Chamber of Commerce to-morrow when Hon. Newton W. Gilbert, former acting Governor General of Philippines, will deliver an address on "Americanism." This will be the start of a series of important luncheons in which particular stress is to be placed upon the present industrial unrest in the country, its cause and remedies.

PRISONER LEAPS OUT OF WINDOW

Asks to Speak to Wife and Makes Escape From Maryland Sheriff

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 10.—Leaping from a second-story window of his home upon the roof of a porch and then to the ground, A. M. O'Connell, a Western Maryland Railroad freight conductor, escaped from Sheriff Starliner and several deputies after he had been arrested on the charge of robbing box cars.

But Three of Thirteen Company Survivors at Reunion of Regiment

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 10.—But three of 13 survivors of Company A, 209th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, responded to their names at roll call yesterday when the first session of a reunion of the company was held in G. A. R. Hall.

Newville's Garment Makers Have Started

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 10.—The new garment factory on Monday opened its doors for the first time at Newville and began operations with a force of 10 women as operators and with bright prospects for the future.

53 Students Take Up Violin Study When Low Rate Is Offered Them

Chambersburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Susanne Snyder, musical director of the Chambersburg schools, offered instruction on the violin to the pupils at a reduced rate and the result is that she has on the roll of future Yaaves 53 pupils, of whom 24 are from the high school and 11 from the rural districts, attending town schools.

BOY IS DRAGGED BY UNRULY COLT

Clothing Catches in Harness as He Jumps From Animal

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 10.—Dragged 200 yards by a runaway colt, Raymond Whitmer, 16 years old, is in the Chambersburg hospital with a fractured arm and numerous bruises. Young Whitmer had been harrowing a field near Roadside and was no his way home in the evening when the team.

George Dietz Dies at 93 After Week's Illness

Hallam, Pa., Oct. 10.—George Dietz, aged 93 years, and a life-long resident and farmer of Hellam township, died at the residence of his son, George Dietz, at Dietz's Mill, after a week's illness of paralysis.

Sure Relief

BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION
6 Bells Hot Water Sure Relief
FOR INDIGESTION

ENGINE STRIKES AUTO ON TRACKS

Witnesses Expected Driver Would Lose Life at Mechanicsburg Yesterday

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—A serious accident was narrowly averted yesterday morning shortly before the 6 o'clock train, eastbound, pulled into the station. George Burgett, of Shepherdstown, who works in Harrisburg, attempted to cross the tracks at the station in his automobile, ahead of a freight train, the engine of which caught his machine and threw it over on the sidewalk in front of Hade's cigar store, almost into the large plate glass windows.

AUTO SKIDS AND MAN IS INJURED

50 Years Old, John Shellhamer in Carlisle Hospital With Fractured Skull

Dillsburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—John Shellhamer, aged 50 years, is in the Carlisle hospital with a fractured skull, the result of an automobile accident which happened near here while Shellhamer and his son, Charles H. Shellhamer, Roy McKincle and William Miller were on their way home yesterday from the York fair. The younger Shellhamer was driving the machine.

FIVE ACCIDENT VICTIMS BURIED

Funeral Services Held For Family Wiped Out in Automobile Crash

Chambersburg, Pa., Oct. 10.—Funeral services were held this morning over the remains of H. C. Cree, his wife and their three children at the home of Mrs. Cree's father, William Trout, 303 East Washington street.

MANHATTAN SHIRTS
FORRY'S, Penn-Harris Hotel Bldg.
OPEN EVENINGS

STORE CLOSURE EVERY SATURDAY AT 6 P. M.
Shellm. B. Schleisner Stores
28-30-32 North Third Street.
Among the Many Distinguished Models In Very High Class Suits For Women and Misses Are Three Ultra Exclusive Suits at $125

The perfection of fit and grace of line which have been developed in these extremely fine models are quickly discerned by the woman of fashion.
Three particularly fine models are:
A striking blouse back model developed in French Velour, Beaver shade with Beaver tabs and finished with a sash which ties in front.
Another suit of Navy Velour de Laine is a long coat model with Nutria collar, hand embroidered.
The third model is a suit of Navy Duvet Cashmere, a flare model with Squirrel collar and the bottom of the coat is embroidered with silk braid.

There is a Certain Distinction About Schleisner Suits Which is Quickly Noted Even Though the Price Be Extremely Moderate
Among these very unusual suits are new models in Velour, Tricotine, Silvertone, Silvertip and Tinseltone, as well as in checks, in all the leading shades and a full range of sizes. Some of these suits have collars of self material, many of them are finished with fur collars and cuffs.
$55 $65 $75 $85

LITTLE LINES FROM NEARBY

Carlisle—Luther L. Landis is the new manager for the Postal Telegraph Company in this place.
Hagerstown—The Hagerstown fair will open here next Tuesday and continue for five days.
Waynesboro—Girl friends tendered Miss Meda Stone a birthday surprise party at her home in this place.
Waynesboro—J. Norman Snider, son of P. M. Snider, of this place, died at Franklin, Pa., following an operation. He was 34 years old.
New Oxford—The automobile driven by S. L. Wolfe, of this place, struck and killed a cow near Granite Station, a short distance from here.
Huntingdon—Mrs. Lewis Irwin is unconscious here, following a stroke of paralysis. Recently she returned from visiting relatives at Waynesboro.
Gettysburg—Fifty former Gettysburg College soldiers and sailors met in the Sigma Chi fraternity house here to organize the Active Men's Service Club.
Carlisle—John R. Bixler, editor and publisher of the Curwensville, Pa., Herald, died Friday morning, October 3. He was born in Carlisle, August 22, 1852.
Greencastle—A five-passenger touring car belonging to Walter Harbaugh, of Waynesboro, took fire on the pike near Middleburg and was completely destroyed.
Shippensburg—Shippensburg's civic club will try to raise $1,000 with which to purchase Shippens-

burg's historic landmark, Fort Morris, better known as "Bull's Eye."
Pen-Mar—John Sheldon's ox-heart cherry tree is heavily laden with blossoms and attracts the attention of passengers on the trolley line which runs by his place near here.
Waynesboro—There is a report here that the Emerson-Brantingham plant here may be removed to Columbus, Ind., and merged with the establishment of the company there.
Shippensburg—A typewriter, stolen from the office of Dr. S. G. A. Brown was delivered to police headquarters at Chambersburg by a resident of the town who bought the typewriter from a stranger for $12.
York—Samuel McDonald Weaver, of Waynesboro, and Miss Christine Hoke, daughter of the late Rev. George M. Hoke, were married here and will reside at Waynesboro on their return from a wedding trip.
Newville—After 10 years of faithful service as teacher in the public schools, Miss Carrie Stewart, teacher of the primary school here, has resigned and her place is filled by Miss Charlotte Dougherty.
Rouzverville—Jacob J. Coons, a farmer living near here, will take six cars of white corn to theagerstown fair in the hope that they may take prizes. The longest ear measures 14 inches.
Gettysburg—Without knowing it, Leo H. Gargan, a State highway inspector, rode from McConnellsburg to Chambersburg with a thief who abandoned his automobile on the Biglerville road when his supply of gasoline became exhausted.

Mission Workers Hold Session at Firestone Home

Washington Heights, Pa., Oct. 10.—About forty members and friends of the Women's Missionary Association and the Otterbein, United Brethren Church, enjoyed a hike to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Firestone, Trindle Road, on Tuesday evening, where a joint meeting of the societies was held. An interesting program was given. The following were present: Mrs. William Fortney, Mrs. G. Weigle, Mrs. D. W. Miller, Mrs. J. Swisher, Mrs. John Mumma, Mrs. T. J. Ensminger, Mrs. W. K. Klugh, Mrs. C. Voglesong, Mrs. E. Otto, Mrs. H. Todd, Mrs. J. W. Snyder and daughter, Mrs. I. P. Dearborn, Mrs. D. S. Eshleman, Mrs. Charles Seiser, Mrs. H. L. Wagner and son, Miss Louise Steinmetz, Miss Edna Seiser, Miss Laura Wrightston, Miss Ruth Wrightston, Miss Maud Peffer, Miss Goldie Naylor, Miss Isabelle Fuller, Miss Helen Weigle, Miss Thelma Klugh, Miss Gladys Dearborn, Miss Anna Mumma, Miss Rosanna Ensminger, Miss Gladys Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Firestone.

Bride Wears Symbol of Good Luck at Wedding

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 10.—John Morris Steck, Fredericksburg, Pa., and Miss Mary Hunter McCloy, of Yokohama, Japan, were married at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. John Steck, of Smithburg, Md., by Rev. Ferdinand Heese. The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. Thomas McCloy, a medical missionary of Japan. She was handsomely gowned in white silk, erage meteor, embroidered in cherry blossoms, the Japanese symbol of good luck. Her veil was caught by a wreath of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth McCloy, sister of the bride, from Oberlin, Ohio.

Waynesboro People to Have Free Trips in Air

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 10.—Waynesboro people are to have airplane rides. Photographer Charles D. Karns is making arrangements toward that end. He is negotiating with Lieutenant Hagner, former Lafayette Escadrille member, who will fly the ship in Waynesboro the latter part of next week. Lieutenant Hagner expects to allow citizens of Waynesboro go up with him in the air and make a charge for the honor. Quite a number of persons have already signified their intention of accompanying the bird man in his flights.

West Shore Pastor Is Attending Conference

Washington Heights, Pa., Oct. 10.—Owing to the absence of the pastor, the Rev. P. R. Koontz, who is attending conference at Hanover, there will be no preaching services in Calvary United Brethren Church on Sunday morning. In the Women's Missionary Association will give the following program: Song; Scripture Lesson, Mrs. Fortney; song; prayer, Mrs. Naylor; reading, Mrs. Witman; song, "Mrs. Pickett's Missionary Box," Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Weigle, and quartet; "A Sam Shut Out," Mildred Rishel and Mrs. Voglesong; address, Mrs. W. C. Klugh; offering; song; benediction.

It is Time to Buy Winter Clothes
The good dresser can depend on the quality of Schleisner clothes.
The good dresser naturally looks to Schleisner's for the correct styles.
And the good dresser can tell at a glance or by a close examination that the tailoring of Schleisner clothing is the finest produced.
The little details in tailoring which you do not see are just as important and just as carefully done in Schleisner clothes as the outside parts which you can readily see.
Take these points into consideration and you will agree with all others that for real economy
Schleisner's New Fall Suits For Men and Young Men Are the Utmost in Economy
$30 to $65
Schleisner's MEN'S STORE
28-30-32 North Third Street