Jay Gould Is Winner in

Match With London Star

Philadelphia, Oct. 10. — Jay Gould, world's champion court tennis player, made a hurried trip to Philadelphia yesterday morning to play a practice match with "Punch" Fairs, the noted London expert. They met in the courts of the Racquet Club.
Mr. Gould conceded Fairs half fifteen and won in two straight sets. The play at times was dazzling. The eye could scarcely follow the ball as it whizzed around the court.
Mr. Gould seemed in exceptional form and when he defends his title at the Racquet Club against Walter Kinsella on December 2, 4 and 6 it is likely those whose good fortune it may be to be present will witness some exceptional tennis.

His Mind

Marietta, O., Oct. 10. — Ever since he played with the clincinnati Reds, when the cam won its first championship in 1869, the Rev. F. M. Woesman, pastor of St. Mary's Cath-olic Church, here vowed he would never witness a world's series contest until the Reds were contenders for the championship of the world. He played with the old champions fifty years ago, as utility fielder, during scole glayed with the old champions fifty years ago, as utility fielder, during she college days at Cincinnati.

When Cincinnati won the National League pennant, Rev. Woesman set aside $50 and eagerly anticipated seeing as many of the world's series contest until the Reds were contenders for the championship of the world. He played with the old champions fifty years ago, as utility fielder, during the contest.

For Penn State Battle

State College, Pa., Oct. 16. — In spite of the driving rain and a slimy gridiron, the Penn State eleven was put through a gruelling practice. The scrubs were given the ball and the coaches devoted their time to perfecting the varsity defense which will be used in the Bucknell and Dartmouth game. Another shift has been made in the line and the new combination seems to be working a little more smoothly. Rauch has been placed at center-and his work has been very pleasing to Coach Bezdek. Sims and Henry, the two guards, showed great improvement to-day, as did also Cubbage and Conover at tackle. Killinger has finally won a place in the backfield. He is the scrappiest man on the squad. McCullum looks like the running mate for Higgins at end.

WHAT RIVAL MANAGERS SAY ABOUT WORLD'S BATTLES

"If "Mourns the Kid

"If Williams had shown some 'stuff' in the first inning there would have been a different story to tell to-day." but he didn't have a thing except said manner path said manager Path highly. They played remarkable ball, fought every minute to win, and there never was a time when they lost confidence.

"Eller got himself in a couple of bad holes yesterday, but he recovered quickly and had the Sox at his mercy, I want to say that the Sox are not quitters. They are a game lot of players. They fought to win, but were outclassed, in my opinion. The series ended as I though it would, but I must admit that the Sox gave us a scare."

"If "Mourns the Kid

Successful Men Are Always Well Dressed

Good dressing does not follow success. It precedes it, introducing the good dresser to the very opportunities whch make for success.

The well dressed man usually gets an audience on his appearance alone. You can prove this, and we can help you.

We specialize in producing and reproducing perfect personal appearances, and we do this with Hirsh, Wickwire Clothes and other style-famed makes of clothing. These clothes are hand tailored.
