THOMAS-STAMM BRIDAL TODAY

Wedding Solemnized at Noon, at Home of Bride, the Rev. Dr. Bagnell Officiating

A war romance, beginning in France, culminated at noon today in the marriage of Miss Julia Montgomery Stamm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Carson Stamm to George Comyns Thomas, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas, of Elizabeth, N. J.

The marriage service was read in the living room before a panel of green. The walls were completely covered with festoons of greenery.

The Souther string orchestra played the "Lohengrin" "Bridal Chorus" as a prelude to the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a Harris gown of white satin, with narrow, draped skirt, and a round neck finished in a bertha of rose-point lace.

Miss Katherine Stamm and Miss Maude Stamm were their sister's only attendants. The former wore a gown of draped orchid chiffon with a broad ribbon sash of the same shade and the latter wore a similar gown of peach chiffon.

Met While Overseas. The bride, who returned from overseas where she was located at Cannes in canteen work, is a graduate of the Ely Court School, Greenwich, Conn., class of 1915.

The bridegroom, a Princeton alumnus, class of 1911, served overseas as a captain with the Three Hundred and Fifteenth Field Artillery.

Out-of-Town Guests. Among the out-of-town guests who were present for the event are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas, of Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Freeman, of Lebanon, and their house-guests, Mr. and Mrs. VanVechten, of Elizabeth, Mrs. Donald MacMurray and Mrs. Edward J. Winters, of Chicago, Mrs. Harvey Pond, of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grundy and little daughter Miriam, of Elizabeth, Miss Katherine VanDuser, of Elmira, Miss Noeline Westervelt, of Englewood, N. J., Miss Marian Rice and Miss Katherine Corson, Earl Rice, and Billie Brooks, all of Scranton, Norman Charlock and Frederick Williamson, Jr., of Elizabeth, Lee Barroll and Albert Walter, of Baltimore, James Roberts, of Alexandria, Va., Frederick Seltman, of New York City, and Lottie Laughlin, of Pittsburgh.

OLD-TIME RIDE BY H. H. S. ALUMNI

Big Halloween Event Is Arranged by the Committee With Surprises

An old-fashioned Halloween straw-ride will be held by the members of the Harrisburg High School Alumni Association on Thursday evening, October 30.

Several large auto trucks will be secured and will be made comfortable by the use of more straw than what is used on a local straw-ride.

The time and place of meeting will be announced in the newspapers of Monday, October 27. The time will be early in the evening and the place will be a central location.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a Harris gown of white satin, with narrow, draped skirt, and a round neck finished in a bertha of rose-point lace.

---do you dread cleaning the house?

Does it take too much of your time and energy to keep your house clean? Do you feel tired and "all in" after you've cleaned a room or two? Do you often feel that things are not quite so clean as you would like them to be? Then—you need an Electric Vacuum Cleaner! You'll find it an energy, time, and money-saver, and it'll keep a smile on your face. The cost of operation is but a fraction of a cent per hour.
