Deaths

ENDRES—Died October 12, 1919. Harold T. Endres, in his 30th year, at his late home, 110 North Third Street. Funeral services will be held at the above address Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our boy, Harold T. Endres, died October 12, 1919. You've smiled when days were gray, You've smiled when days were sunny, You've made folks mighty happy, As you've traveled on life's way, But this glad thought we have of you, Just as you smiled on other folks, God now smiles on you.

In memory of Mrs. Ida Barbour Kline, who died October 12, 1919. One year ago yesterday, gone but not forgotten. Softly now the light is falling, on a quiet grave, Where there sleepeth without dreaming, One we loved but could not save.

In sad but loving remembrance of Samuel Luederich, who departed this life October 12, 1919. Precious one who is gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is waiting in our home, Which never can be filled.

In sad but loving remembrance of my soldier son, George D. Leonard, who died October 14, 1918. Gone but not forgotten. Softly now the light is falling, on a quiet grave, Where there sleepeth without dreaming, One we loved but could not save.

In loving remembrance of our dear son, Blair E. Smith, who died October 12, 1918. Blighted in manhood's bloom, Gone from the hearts that loved him, To sleep in the Book of Life, In dear son we tried to save you, Human efforts were in vain, We wish to meet again.

In loving remembrance of Dr. Work A. Streeter, who died October 14, 1918. He lives again in the Book of Life, His name may be raised as noble monuments to his memory, inscribing his name in honor and service.

CARD OF THANKS

James L. Morgan wishes to thank his neighbors and friends for their sympathy and aid in the death of his wife, Margaret Morgan. Also for the floral tributes.
