Committee Discusses Advisability of Putting on a Strenuous Campaign

Harrisburg Burial Case Company this morning in a letter to George S. Reineohel explained that while it had no employees in Army or Navy service during the war it wished, however, to help pay for the proposed memorial to be erected at Thirteenth and State streets by citizens of Harrisburg.

"Our employees were mostly older married men and women," said the company, "but we want to aid; and we are enclosing our check for $49.00 which you kindly suggest the names of two soldier boys, preferably those having no relatives."

The committee to-day is still discussing the advisability of putting on a strenuous campaign, with teams of workers. A decision will be made within a day or so.

NEW MEASURES ARE DISCUSSED

Sealers of Weights and Measures Open Seventh Annual Convention

The Seventh Annual conference of the Inspectors of Weights and Measures of Pennsylvania opened this morning at the Capitol, with W. Blair Dunn, of Altoona, presiding.

Mayor Keister was to have made the address of welcome, but owing to an illness he was unable to be present and in his absence James Sweeney, chief of the state bureau of standards welcomed the inspectors. The roll was called by the secretary, Harry A. Boyer, Harrisburg.

Owing to the lateness of many of the inspectors in reaching the city, the regular program outlined for the conference cannot be adhered to, and this morning Theodore A. Seraphin, of Philadelphia, who was not scheduled to speak until the last day of the conference, made his address on "Automatic Liquid Measuring Devices."

Mr. Seraphin, who is special inspector of weights and measures for Philadelphia, explained that because of the enormous increase in the sale of gasoline during the last few years, the attention of the department was called to liquid measuring devices. He went over some of the devices in use at present, suggesting improvement and criticizing the work of some, and then explained the most recent invention in the liquid measuring line, the automatic predetermined stop, which permits the gauge to be placed at the number of gallons desired and a free flow of gasoline to the tank, the stop automatically shutting off this flow when the required number of gallons has come forth.

Mr. Seraphin likewise explained a test measure device which he had invented.

James F. Woodward, secretary of Internal Affairs, welcomed the inspectors and assured them of the hearty co-operation and interest of his department. He told them of the law which his department had assisted in getting through the Legislature giving more jurisdiction to the bureau of standards.

Following a discussion on the relative merits of wagon and automobile truck scales by Charles F. Borgnell, of York and Ira M. Long of Bedford county the conference was adjourned until this afternoon.

New York Faces Food Shortage Made Imminent by Number of Strikes

New York, Oct. 14. — With at least 230,000 workers either on strike or idle as the result of strikes, according to union estimates, New York to-day viewed with increasing concern the prospect of a serious food shortage rendered imminent by the refusal last night of the longshoremen to return to work and the continuance of the teamsters' strike.

The only ray of hope was the announcement by President T. V. O'Connor of the International Longshoremen's Association that the various locals would take a referendum vote on the question of returning to work.

The walkout of the 11,000 teamsters, chauffeurs and helpers has caused the American Railway Express Company to place an embargo on all express packages entering and leaving the city. Virtually all the fish, vegetables and other perishable food are shipped here by express.

The strike of the longshoremen, harbor and ferry workers has caused food to rot on the docks and in ships. No coal has reached here for several days. Some milk and vegetables have reached the city by circuitous routes.

The industrial unrest in the city is shown in a statement by Ernest Bohm, secretary of the Central Federated Union of Greater New York, in which he says 120,000 workers affiliated with the American Federation of Labor are on strike. In addition Mr. Bohm states that there are 50,000 "unclassified" strikers and 50,000 non-strikers thrown out of work.

The principal strikes here and the number of men affected, according to Mr. Bohm are: Marine workers, 2,000; cigarmakers, 15,000; millinery workers, 7,500; shipbuilders, 3,000; printers, pressmen, etc., 5,000; piano workers, 10,000; builder trades, 25,000; sailors, 3,000 and laundry workers, 20,000.

An interesting development in the strike of pressmen and other workers in book and job concerns was a letter sent to Samuel Gompers by the heads of three international unions affected by the strike, in which expulsion was demanded of the Central Federated Union of New York from the American Federation of Labor, unless its "sympathy and moral support" was withdrawn immediately from the "outlawed" pressmen and press feeders unions.
