Reeves expressed his appreciation and that of the directors for the opening night of the social season which the social committee put on last Friday evening. Mr. Reeves said that in his two years' experience as the secretary of the Harrisburg "Y," he had never seen a bigger, better or more suc-cessful evening than last Friday. The committee discussing the "Wood Chopping Afternoon" for this year, decided to hold it on Saturday, October 25, a week from this Saturday. Our reductions are far greater than they appear, as our prices are so much lower than elsewhere at regular prices that it will make your saving in many cases 50 per cent. on what you would be required to pay for the same suit elsewhere. So we can only say this, if you are interested in a suit that is distinctive and different, that is tailored as good as the best and made of desirable materials and colors; if this class of a suit will interest you, then you owe it to yourself to attend this sale Friday and Saturday.
