COLONEL GROOME IS BACK IN U. S.

Declares Future Is Undetermined; Warns of Germany in Years to Come

Philadelphia, Oct. 16. - Warning of possible dangers from Germany wenty years hence and expressing doubts as to his future position in the public life of the State, Colonel John C. Groome, U. S. A., returned to his home in Bryn Mawr last night. He went to Washington to-day to report in person the results of his recent labors in Russia, where, under the direction of Food Administrator Herbert C. Hoover, he had been in charge of American Relief work. Colonel Groome arrived in Hoboken yesterday on the transport Matoika and was met by his son, John C. Groome, Jr.

Of one thing Colonel Groome was absolutely certain. That was that he will not be the Director of Public Safety in the Cabinet of J. Hampton Moore, if the latter is elected Mayor of Philadelphia. There have been repeated rumors that he was slated for this place.

Congressmen Get Behind Mr. Moore

Washington dispatches tell of a "get-together dinner" held by the Republican Congressmen at Washington yesterday at which they all got behind Congressman J. Hampton Moore and arranged for lively campaign work for next year.

Mr. Moore made addresses and so did Congressmen Graham and Costello, of Philadelphia. Mr. Moore said he proposed to carry out his plans and go straight ahead with speech making next week. Murdoch Kendrick, chairman of his campaign committee, says that the committee will make arrangements and the upshot may be that the regular city committee will co-operate with it.
