D. A. R. MEETS IN BELLEVUE PARK

Large Gathering Hears Interesting Program of Reports and Music

Charming in its simplicity, making a direct appeal to the heart, was the informal talk given yesterday by Miss C. Wynne Cassel, a local "Y" worker overseas, to members of Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gathered for the first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Voorhees Bellevue Park. Miss Cassel, full of enthusiasm of the "Y," saddened by the devastation of countries and people, radiant with her love of the helpful work, carried the audience with her, intercepting the direct information with songs that she sang with gusto. "Mother Machree" sung unaccompanied and "Dear Old Pal of Mine" to guitar with mandolin obligato, were exquisitely sung by Miss Cassel, whose lovely voice seems to have gained much by her experience abroad.

The Regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, presided and after the usual opening exercises, Mrs. Mary Berry McCrean, recording secretary, gave interesting minutes of the annual meeting held in May. Mrs. Rudolph K. Snyder, treasurer, made a brief report and Miss Ellen K. McCulloch, assistant registrar, was given permission to have the second hundred original papers of chapter members bound in leather with gold embossing, to match the first hundred. Mrs. Anna Hamilton Wood, historian, spoke of the chapter's co-operation with the Thrift Movement and Mrs. Frederick L. Mogenhalter told of the Child Welfare work outlined by the Chamber of Commerce in which the D. A. R. is to take an active part.

Some Announcements The Regent announced that the chapter had answered the request of Miss Elsie Janney, club worker, to send telegrams of greeting to General Pershing on his arrival; that at the August reception in the Penn-Harris Hotel, the chapter, under the Berry Schools, Georgia, a contribution of about sixty dollars had been made for the education of the southern children; that the essays sent in by senior girls of the High School on "Over the Old Post Road," in the D. A. R. competition for gold prizes, were the finest received in many a day and that the December meeting will be given to the "Americanization" problem with talks by prominent speakers.

The chapter endorsed the action of the Governing Board, on October 6, taking $100 from the treasury for five twenty-dollar subscriptions for soldiers in the City Memorial, the names chosen at random from the files; it also endorsed the "Harrisburg Speech Week" November 2-8.

Delegates Elected

The annual state conference, D. A. R. will be held in Pittsburgh November 11-13 and the Regent showed the photographs of candidates for various offices, the chapter, unanimously endorsed Mrs. Edwin E. Sparks wife of President of State College for State Regent and Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, retiring State Regent for Vice-President General, Pennsylvania of the national organization.

The chapter elected the following delegates to represent the chapter: Miss Snyder, Mrs. Samuel Dunkle, Mrs. Alvin I. Miller, Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, Mrs. B. F. Blough, Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr. and Mrs. John A. Shergar with the Regent empowered to add to this list from alternates to complete the chapter's quota.

A special committee to arrange for the twenty-fifth celebration of the chapter was appointed, including: Miss Pearson, Mrs. Edward Z. Gross, Miss Elsie K. McCulloch, Mrs. Henry C. Holloway, Mrs. John Fox Weiss and Mrs. A. Boyd Hamilton.

Delightful Music The music was thoroughly enjoyable including two numbers sung by Mrs. Walter E. Dietrich in beautiful voice and clear enunciation. "History of Our Flag" by Miss and "There's No No Like Our Soldier" by Mrs. Earl Miller and Rose Miller accompanying on the mandolin and harp-guitar. During the tea that followed, with Mrs. Edward Z. Gross presiding, assisted by Mrs. Voorhees and Miss Russ, the Messrs. Miller played various selections from their wide repertoire, to the delight of everyone. The chapter solved Garden flowers in profusion with American flags, were used in decorating the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson and daughters, the Misses Mabel and Harriet Wilson, of Jacksonville, Fla., left home this afternoon after spending a week with friends here on the way home from New Holland.

Miss Percilla Youngman, of Schneecastle, N. Y., who has been in this vicinity for a month, will, it is reported, start for Pittsburgh and Chicago this morning.

Howard B. Anderson, of Baltimore, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Brown, of North Third street.

Miss Callista Owen and Miss Sara Maude Owen, of Baltimore are stopping for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wiemer Watson, of Penn street. Mrs. Frank Stauffer, of Camp Hill, has returned after a two weeks' visit in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.
