Local Revenue Officers Told to Be Ready to Act at Once

SALOONMEN UNCERTAIN Have No Plans For Future if New Regulations Are Put Into Force

DOOM OF 2.75 APPARENT Beverages Sold Must Contain Less Than One-Half of One Per Cent. Alcohol

That they are to be ready to act immediately on instructions which will be issued for the enforcement of the Federal prohibition measure now before President Wilson, is the message that has been sent to officials of the Harrisburg Internal Revenue Office.

No detailed instructions have yet been received at the local office, and it is not expected that any will be received until the measure becomes effective, either with or without President Wilson's signature, which will be not later than next Tuesday.

2.75 Apparently Doomed Barring loopholes, the measure will spell the doom of 2.75 per cent. beer and all its near and far relatives.

The burden of the enforcement of the measure will be with the Internal Revenue Department, with Collector Ephraim Lederer, directing the work in this territory.

Harrisburg liquor dealers have not formulated any definite plans for the future. It is not believed, however, that there will be any attempt on the part of city dealers to evade the law.
