Difficult to Keep Your Hair Wavy? Read This

If you have not yet tried the new way, the silmerine way, by all means do so. You'll never again use the ruinous heated iron. The curliness will appear so perfectly natural and the hair will be so beautifully lustrous, instead of dried and parched. Thus liquid silmerine serves also as a beneficial dressing for the hair. It is neither sticky nor greasy, but quite pleasant to use. It should be applied at night with a clean tooth brush, drawing the latter through the hair from root to tip.

Don't Live in Utter Misery

Many people endure pain without complaint, believing there is no remedy for the other extreme, experimenting with "cure alls." Both are wrong. There is relief for every man, woman or child suffering from kidney trouble and its consequences. In the last forty years, Dodd's Kidney Pills have helped thousands to good health. They will help you. Your symptoms can be quickly relieved by Dodd's Kidney Pills. The remedy—three D's in the name—and a flat, round box. If your dealer can't supply you, send 5c. in stamps to Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

For a mild cathartic, Diamond Dinner Pills. Mild, harmless—just a gentle touch.

Nursing Mothers

There is nothing so good for You and Baby as Vinol, our Cod Liver and Iron Tonic.

To impart the life giving and body growing elements to your baby, you must be in good condition yourself—you must be strong and vital, you must have real red blood, and your own food must be well digested and readily assimilated.

Vinol will give you all this. If you need strength and your baby is not doing as well as he might try a bottle of Vinol and see how baby will improve and how much better you will feel yourself.

NOTE:—Your leading druggist has for many years specially recommended Vinol because he knows there is nothing better than this famous Cod Liver and Iron Tonic to create strength and build one up. The formula of Vinol is on every label. Your money back if it fails. GEO. A. GORGAS, J. NELSON CLARK, KEENEY'S MEDICINE STORE, KETZELBERG'S PHARMACY, C. E. KRAME, AND DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

CHARITY BOARD GAVE AID TO 249 FAMILIES

Found Homes For 19 Children Made Orphans by Influenza Epidemic

The Associated Charities of Steelton, at its meeting last evening, heard reports of a most active year. The reports showed that 249 families had been helped in time of distress, that 176 grocery orders had been issued, in addition to thirty-five pairs of shoes, more than ten tons of coal, and the supplying of fifty-two families with clothing. These children were given eye examinations and furnished with glasses.

Its greatest work, however, was shown in connection with the influenza epidemic. The epidemic in Steelton left nineteen children full orphans. The report last evening showed that the Associated Charities had found good homes for nineteen orphans. Work of this kind should arouse the enthusiasm and secure the support of all. What appears so little in a report really represents many hours of patient labor and kindly thought on the part of those in charge of this necessary work of relief.

The following were elected as members of the board of managers: Mrs. Charles A. Alden, J. A. McCurdy, W. H. Nell, Mrs. Darby, Mrs. Solomon Hiney, Miss Bertha Hess, C. A. Alden, Mrs. B. M. Rutherford, Mrs. F. A. Robbins, Jr., Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Nell, T. T. McIntosh, E. C. Henderson, W. F. Housman, Walter L. Guyer, E. P. Guyer, E. P. McNear, J. P. Detweiler, the Rev. J. C. Thompson and the Rev. W. C. Heilman. The following officers were elected: Mrs. C. A. Alden, president; J. A. McCurdy, vice-president; W. H. Nell, treasurer; Mrs. Darby, secretary; Mrs. Hiney, financial secretary.

Dr. Mudge to Speak on "How to Kill and How to Make Alive"

The Rev. Dr. Mudge of Harrisburg will be the chief speaker at the rally of the Men's League to be held this evening in the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Mudge will speak on the subject, "How to Kill and How to Make Alive." The address is to be followed by a social hour and refreshments are to be served.

The Ladies' Mite Society will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. James Zimmerman, 25 South Second street. The program is in charge of Miss Viola Helm and Mrs. C. B. Segelken. The meeting will probably be transformed into a Halloween party. On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock a mother's meeting is to be held in the lecture room of the church. Mrs. C. S. Davis, Prof. L. E. McGinnis and the pastor, will speak. An effort will be made to show what is being done in the Sunday School for the children.

The Light Bearers will meet in the church parlor Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. C. B. Segelken will be in charge of the meeting, assisted by Miss Margie T. Grimes.

A Revelation of All That Is New In Fur Fashions

The influence of Furs is greater to-day than it has ever been in any other season and the furs themselves are more luxurious in appearance and to the touch than ever before.

Not at any other time have we shown so interesting a collection of Fur fashions as you will find grouped in this complete gathering.

$20,000 Worth of New Furs At Decidedly Favorable Prices

We do not believe that furs of equal quality can be found in any other Harrisburg store at such satisfactory prices.

In this exclusive showing we offer a range of choice wraps, coats, coatees, scarfs and muffs in all of the most favored modes. The workmanship in each instance is the best and the styling of the smartest.

Choose from the finest peltries in fox, skunk, raccoon, beaver, nutria, Hudson seal, Kolinsky ring tail opossum, lynx and mole. Prices of individual fur scarfs range from $35 to $250.00.

Coats and coatees are shown in handsome peltries at $250.00 to $750.00.

Charmingly Simple Are Many of the New Suits

Styles for Women and Misses: $39.50 to $150

While the superior smartness of these Winter Suits is obvious it is so cleverly achieved that one finds it difficult to define. Whether the secret lies in their snugness or in the modish stitching matters not, for taken all in all the whole effect is one of individuality and charm.

In many of the notably good looking styles rich fabrics and simplicity, rather than elaborate ornamentation, are important factors as aids to smartness. You will admire the excellent taste and the exquisite workmanship which lifts them from the commonplace to the plane of exclusiveness.

Tricotine, Velour, Duvet de Laine, Tinseltone, Peach Bloom

They are fashioned of the handsomest fabrics America has seen in many a day, and their colors are soft and serviceable looking. Complete sizes for misses and women, $39.50 to $150.00

A Coat of Warm Soft Wool—Wholly Indispensable to Winter Comfort

Admitted to our displays because of their good tailoring, these handsome Winter Coats are more than ordinarily desirable. For one thing they represent the last word in up-to-the-moment styling—and, besides, they are developed of the highest quality sturdy woolens procurable.

Some Fur Collared, Others Without Fur

Where fur is used an all-enveloping impression prevails, while those without fur suggest the use of one's own scarf. Huge buttons often hold gracefully shaped collars about the throat, and linings are either of fancy colored patterns, or plain sturdy silk, as one's fancy might dictate.

Choose from velour, wool velours, duvet de laine, tinseltone, chameleon cord, and sturdy mixed woolens. Prices begin at $39.50.
