POPE URGES LEAGUE OF WOMEN TO FIGHT THE "INDECENCY OF FASHION"

Reme, Oct. 23.—"On the domestic hearth woman is queen," said Pope Bonedict yesterday in answering an adddress presented to him by the Women's Unions.

The Pontiff added that changed times had given woman functions and rights she did not possess in former civities, but that no alteration in man's opinion or no novelty of things or of events could separate woman, conscious of her high mission, from the family, which was her natural center.

Pope Bendict praised the growing determination of the Catholic woman to dedicate herself to the education of a league of Catholic woman for dedicate herself to the education of a league of Catholic woman to dedicate herself to the education of a families who approach them.

It is pointed out that the large crop of beet sugar in the West, which is just beginning to be harvested, may be readily made available to relieve the shortage of cane sugar in the East. According to the figures of the Sugar Distributing Committee, there will be approximately 800,000 tons of beet sugar produced in this country before January 1, and the population of the territory to be supplied is about 50,000,000. On the other hand there are 32,000,000 people in the cane sugar district, but only 250,000 tons of sugar available from the usual sources.
