Strasbourg, Wednesday, Oct. 22.—
The conspiracy for a revolt in Alsace-Lorraine, having for its object the establishment of an autonomous republic here, is assuming greater proportions than at first anticipated. Koessler, the man alleged to be the arch conspirator, who has been placed under arrest, has, according to military authorities, made a confession, admitting that he has received 500,000 francs from Germany since last May. The funds were sent to him from Baden Baden, it is said. Acting as intermediary between the Berlin foreign office and the conspirators here, according to Koessler's revelations to the police, was Herr Von Gruenellus, a relative of former Imperial Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg.

Literature seized at the home of Koessler bore the caption "The Neutral Republic of Alsace-Lorraine" and called upon the population of the two provinces to separate from France as well as Germany.
