Opportunity for Young Women Young women of Harrisburg have an exceptional opportunity to secure profitable employment under ideal working conditions with The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania. Not only do telephone operators find the work clean and the surroundings pleasant, but there is an unusual attractiveness in their duties, either in establishing local connections, or in connecting Harrisburg telephones with New York, Chicago, Washington or other distant points.

During the four weeks of her training period an operator is paid nine dollars a week. Her first increase comes at the end of four weeks, and thereafter her pay is increased at short intervals as she becomes experienced. Promotions to positions of responsibility are made from the ranks, on merit, and every operator can be sure of receiving consideration for those positions with their higher rate of pay. Appilications are being received by

Report of Conference

Mrs. James B. Carruthers, the club delegate to Scranton last week for the sessions of the Federation of Pennsylvania Women, told briefly of the wonderful program of lectures, music and social events provided for the Federation. "Americanization" is the theme of most of the helpful work planned by these brainy women for their efforts in the near future. Mrs. Rufus McCord, Mrs. Walter E. Dietrich and Mrs. Morrison interpreted state songs for the club and Mrs. Carruthers served refreshments as they were given at a luncheon by the Woman's Institute of Scranton to the Federation. The decorations were of yellow and white with chrysanthemums and marigolds in the flowers.
