

KIWANIS CLUB HOST TO G. A. R.

Bolshevism of Some Foreign-Born Workers Scored at Weekly Luncheon

At the weekly Kiwanis luncheon in the Penn-Harris to-day, the local post of the G. A. R. was present as the guest of the club. More than a score of veterans of the Civil War turned out for the occasion.

After a few words by Dr. Silas C. Swallow, President Neefe introduced the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge, who made a stirring address on Americanism. Dr. Mudge scored the intrusions and insurrections of foreign-born "Americans," who, after tasting of the fruits of America, turned on her and endeavored to imbue her with the spirit of the Reds, the Bolshevistic spirit. He closed with a tribute to the 100 per cent Americanism of the old G. A. R. veterans.

Almost before Dr. Mudge had ceased speaking, Captain Francis H. Hoy was on his feet and called for a volley of appreciation from his veteran comrades. The old soldiers stood up and faced the captain, who called: "Attention! Aim! Fire!" and the volley of applause sounded like the crackling of musketry.

The silent boost was presented by Edgar Marks, in the shape of a little American flag pin, and Frank Neely won the membership prize, a ticket to the Kiwanis Club ladies' night, presented by the entertainment committee. The ballroom of the Penn-Harris was decorated with the national colors, while a huge flag nearly covered the wall behind the speaker's table.

Al K. Thomas presented a motion, which was unanimously passed, that the Kiwanis Club go en masse to the woodchopping after-noon which the "Y" will put on in Woodmont Park on Saturday. There was quite a little discussion about the personnel of the chopping team, as last year the Rotary Club was declared the winner, and the Kiwanis woodsmen are determined not to let it happen again.

who went to the Conference room after a talk with the President during which Mr. Wilson was informed not only of the events in the Conference, but also of the views of the Conference leaders.

Chargers Nature Secretary Lane told the delegates that the withdrawal of the labor group had changed the nature of the Conference. He said he had been commissioned by the President to explain to the employers' group the changed nature of the Conference and to say that the President desired the public group to remain in session to carry on the work, inasmuch as the burden of the results of industrial disputes fall ultimately on the public.

"I know that the people of the United States are greater than any part of that people," said Mr. Lane, and as a body they will move forward regardless of clashes between the interests. The public group will be asked to make suggestions and to give advice as to the industrial policy of the country, these to be presented to the President."

After the Conference was adjourned Mr. Lane said the President probably would increase the membership of the public group, so as to make that body more representative.

Organized labor may be asked to participate through delegates to be named by the President. The public representatives probably will name subcommittees to study and report on various phases of the industrial situation and then consolidate their findings into the pronouncement of the Conference, Mr. Lane said. The old soldiers urged on the original Conference by the chairman.

Deaths and Funerals

LEAH WIER Leah Wier died at her home, 215 Crescent street, yesterday morning after an illness of six days. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Nannie Wier and one brother, Stewart. Funeral services will be held at her late home to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Burial will be at Flax's Church, York county.

BARRED FROM DRY TICKET Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 23.—Judge Woodward has refused to direct the County Commissioners to substitute the names of Republican nominees on the prohibition ticket for the offices of County Commissioner, Sheriff and Coroner. The prohibition nominees had withdrawn and the prohibition Executive Committee, or a part of it, had substituted Ambrose West for Commissioner, John MacLuskoe for Sheriff and D. R. P. Thomas for Coroner. The Court held that the certificates of substitution were improper because they had not been signed by all members of the Executive Committee of the prohibition party.

FIGHTS TO RETAIN SEAT Washington, Oct. 23.—The fight of Representative John F. Fitzgerald, of Mass., former mayor of Boston, to retain his seat opened to-day in the House, which had three recommendations before it for determining the contest brought by Peter F. Tague, former representative. Both are Democrats. Unseating of Fitzgerald in favor of Tague was proposed by a report of six members of the Elections Committee, which investigated the case. Two committeemen favored Mr. Fitzgerald's retention of the seat, while one proposed that a new election be ordered by the House.

KILLED IN LYKENS Lykens, Oct. 23.—Henry A. Campbell, 64, was instantly killed in No. Three slope this morning when a "collar" fell on his back. His neck was broken. He leaves five sons and a daughter.

80,000 OUT OF WORK By Associated Press. Lille, France, Oct. 22.—A general strike of men employed in the building trades has been declared, higher wages and better working conditions being demanded. Eighty thousand persons have been thrown out of employment by the walkout.

General Has Narrow Escape Constantinople, Oct. 23.—Major General James G. Harbord, head of the American mission to Armenia, was congratulated upon his arrival here on his escape from capture by Kurds, Tartars and Turks, who fired upon the automobiles carrying the Americans, several of the mission narrowly escaping death.

The attack came while the caravan was proceeding through the valley of the Araxes, but fortunately General Harbord's car had reached the plain leading to Erivan before the attack was made. It is believed that had he been captured he would have been held for ransom by the bandits.

Doubted Nationality The original reason for the attack appears to be that bands who are warring with the Armenians doubted the nationality of the prisoners were really Americans. They were released, their automobiles were restored and most of their property which had been stolen was given back to them. The chief declared they desired peace, but asserted that peace was possible only if some strong outside power intervened. They expressed the fear that thousands would die of starvation this winter owing to unsettled conditions in Armenia.

What happened to the mission is an almost daily occurrence in that section, where raiding bands are almost constantly destroying prosperous villages, both Armenian and Moslem. Where the mission's automobiles were detained was formerly an Armenian village. Ten days before the mission reached there a Moslem band bore down on the place, wrecked the buildings, drove out or killed the male inhabitants and held the women captives.

Two Fliers Burned When Airplane Falls in Flames San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 23.—Lieutenants Edward R. Kuller, of Chicago, and Cornelius J. Kenney, of Boston, were severely burned yesterday afternoon when an airplane in which they were flying fell in flames and landed on a mess hall at Kelly Field. The machine and building were destroyed by fire.

HINES DENIES THREATS By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 23.—Director General Hines to-day denied published reports that he had threatened to have troops sent to New York to take the place of express strikers. "This report is entirely without foundation, and to avoid a misunderstanding I desire to deny it immediately," Mr. Hines said. "There was never any mention of the use of troops."

Baruch Goes on Strike Against High Prices Washington, D. C., Oct. 23.—Bernard M. Baruch has gone on strike against the high cost of clothing and, as his way of doing his bit, proposes to make his present wardrobe last a while longer. Notice from his boot-maker that $45 would be the price of his winter footwear was the last straw.

"It is years since I bought any clothing. I have a man who does that for me," said the ex-chairman of the War Industries Board. "He knows what I want, buys it, and I pay the bills. The other day he came to me and said that I ought to know the shoemaker was charging $45 for new shoes and the tailor $160 for a business suit. I told him I would have to try and struggle through with what I have."

King Alfonso Taken Over Historic Verdun By Associated Press. Verdun, France, Wednesday, Oct. 22.—Over the historic and tragic battlefield of Verdun, King Alfonso, of Spain walked to-day with Marshal Petain, the chief defender of the citadel during the tremendous struggle that was fought in February and March, 1916.

Along roads lined on either side by thousands of white crosses marking the last resting place of warriors who fell during the battle, and those subterranean passageways, where the defenders were marshaled preparatory to counter attacking the foe, the king walked, and as he went he piled his distinguished guide with questions.

Upon his arrival at Verdun, King Alfonso was met by Marshal Petain, whom he greeted affectionately and congratulated. He then turned and saluted the French general head-quarters officers who made up the marshal's party, and reviewed the One Hundred and Thirty-second regiment of infantry, all Moroccans, who made a fine appearance. The king at once proceeded to the military cemetery, where he deposited a wreath of orchids tied with wide ribbons forming the Spanish colors, upon which was printed a tribute from the royal visitor.

The party then turned to the battlefield, reaching Fort Douaumont at 10 o'clock. Great interest in the fort was evidenced by King Alfonso.

The king and Marshal Petain walked over what was once No Man's Land, and which now shows no sign of life. Upon reaching Fort Vaux, Marshal Petain, with a large staff man explained to the Spanish sovereign the general aspect of the whole Verdun region. The party then returned to Verdun shortly before noon.

The men, it is alleged, were in an extensive conspiracy together to "shake down" saloon and cafe proprietors and to accept sums of money from them to defeat the operation of the Federal prohibition law. Two of the defendants, Charles P. McCarver and William J. Pollins, have been considered among the most zealous investigators for the Government in obtaining evidence against liquor law violators, and were held in the highest esteem by their brother agents.
