CENTRAL STAR IS WITH JIM THORPE

Roscoe Gougler, Harrisburg, Wins Game For Massillon, Ohio

Roscoe Gougler, who was a big Central High star and later won prominence on the Pitt team is with Jim Thorpe's aggregation and making good. He was a big star yesterday. A dispatch from Akron, Ohio, says:

With seven all-American stars in their lineup, headed by the great Starback of Notre Dame, the Massillon Tigers again demonstrated their class to-day when they defeated the Akron Indians in a sensational battle by a score of 9 to 6.

All scores were made by the placement kick route. Gougler, former Pitt star, doing the booting for the Tigers, placed the ball three times in a position for Gougler to kick a goal.

The field was slippery and muddy and made anything but the old style line-smashing play difficult. The line of each team held so well that both teams had to kick whenever opportunities were offered.

Sensational line smashes by Coffall and J. Miller of the Tigers, placed the ball three times in a position for Gougler to kick a goal.
