CAMPAIGN IS ENTERING UPON ITS LAST WEEK

Republicans of City Will Hold Rallies; Very Quiet in the County

The last week of the fall campaign finds Republicans all over the county confident of big majorities for the entire city and county ticket.

"It is all a matter of getting out the vote," said County Chairman Horner to-day, "and there is no question of a falldown in that direction."

Anticipating the effect of big Republican majorities in this city and county will have on the vote at the Presidential elections next year, the workers and men of the party in general are determined that the vote shall be one of the largest polled in years in a local election.

The party is absolutely harmonious everywhere. Not a district reports any dissatisfaction either with the ticket or with the party management.

So confident are the candidates that they have decided not to hold any mass meetings throughout the county this year. The nominees have been getting about quietly and meeting the voters, but there will be no rallies outside the city. Up to this time the Democrats have displayed no activity. Their organization is badly split and there is no acknowledged leadership. This has aroused deep discontent among Democrats who are determined that those who ought to be leading the campaign this year shall not seize the reins of power at the primaries next spring when delegates are chosen to the national convention. A big fight is brewing in the party for that time. Meanwhile the rank and file of the local Democracy will be found voting for Republican candidates.

The campaign will be actively waged in Harrisburg this week, two big meetings being on the schedule. Wednesday evening Tenth ward Republicans will meet in Woof's Hall, in Forest street, and Thursday evening there will be a meeting of the city and county committees and the Republican League in the Courthouse.

SON BRINGS AID TO MOTHER IN DISTRESS

Less than a month ago Mrs. M. J. Staley, 2613 N. 18th St., Phila., had such poor blood circulation that her fingers became numb and useless. To-day, after taking Tanlac, she can use her hands freely, her nerves are much stronger and she feels years younger. She says:

"I'm certainly glad I took Tanlac, which my son brought me, as my appetite increased, my food digests right and I haven't felt so vigorous in years. Tanlac is really marvelous."

The stomach regulates the condition of the blood. Tanlac tends to act directly on the stomach, expelling from it the impurities and restoring it to a strong, healthful condition. Tanlac is called the "Master Medicine" because it masters when others fail. It is now sold here by all leading druggists.

FINE FOR FUN, BUT HARD ON B ACKS

SCENES SNAPPED BY THE PHOTOGRAPHER

The second woodchopping afternoon put on by the social committee of the "Y" is a thing of the past and the choppers are nursing stiff muscles and waiting for next year to come 'round so they can go to it again.

On Saturday afternoon a big crowd of members of the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, and the "Y" left in machines for Wildwood Park, where Grant Forrer had the wood all ready for the cutting. As the cars pulled into the places reserved for them, they saw several long tables, guarded over by figures in white aprons and caps, which turned out to be Frank Covert, Sholl Rutherford, Frank Foose, and Walter Dietrich. Al. Thomas, who was a casualty, also assisted in passing out the sauerkraut, "hot dogs" rolls and coffee. Corn cob pipes and a big box of tobacco were also on the table, the gift of Ed. S. Herman, and every one was soon puffing on the fatal weed.

The teams soon lined up and went at it, while wood and chips flew in all directions and the Park Commissions squad of octogenarians had a hard time keeping up their part of carrying and sawing. These five old fellows are more lively than youngsters of sixteen, and hauled the lumber around in great shape. They are E. M. Hassler, 70; Henry Hopple, 77; John Wagner, 74; Frank Shultz, 65; M. Eichenauer, 71. The other park assistance came from three generations of Shutts, V. L. Shutt, Henry Shutt, and Truman Shutt, doing the sawing by machine.

The winning team was said to be that one captained by Art Bacon and Doc Miller, and the personnel was Curtis Fisher, H. L. Smith, Ross Swope and Frank Davenport.

Other teams were Frank Musser's, who had Ed. Herman, George Reily, Ed. Frazer, Charles McNaughton, and Doc. Kahn, Cameron Baer, with Charley Reeser, W. M. Kline, Fred Rowe, Charley Burns, Bill Logan, and C. H. Lindey. Bob Reeves had the biggest and probably the hardest working squad, which was first on the scene of action and included in its ranks, Ramsey Black, Rufus McCord, William Young, Ires Crowell, Frank Ricker, C. C. Crispen, Chet Robeson, R. G. Reber, Ed. Baum and Doc. Hazen.

As they finished the last of the "dogs" and sauerkraut, the tired and blistered choppers agreed sadly that it was tough on the back but wonderful for the conscience, for enough wood was hauled away to supply the Nursery Home, Children's Industrial Home, and "Y" for the entire winter.

Two loads of wood were hauled to the Children's Industrial and the Nursery Home, one to the Sylvan Heights Home, and five to the "Y."

Those who furnished trucks were Charles Burns, the Harrisburg Manufacturing and Boiler Company through C. Linford Scott; the Selden Truck Company, the School Board through Frank Foose, and the Swift Company through Frank Covert, B. T. Barnes was the official photographer.

FIVE MORE DAYS REMAIN IN NATION NO-ACCIDENT DRIVE; URGES GREATER ACTIVITY

Five more days remain for the Nation-wide No Accident Drive. Beginning to-day extra efforts are to be made to keep down the average for deaths and injuries. This far an excellent record has been made. Officials this week will reach the employes through new circulars and posters. One was posted yesterday reading, "Don't You Get Hurt." Others called attention to the reasons for some accidents.

It is also known to the safety workers that there is some opposition. It was said to-day that some employes are belittling the efforts to keep down accidents and laughing at the efforts. These men, it is said, claim knowledge where accidents may be prevented but are not coming forward to let the officials and safety committee know. One official said: "We would like employes to come to the front with any kick they may have. Now is the time. This is a Nation-wide drive and not confined to the Pennsylvania Railroad only. It is orders of the Railroad Administration."

Some of the information handed out is in several languages so that the foreign employes may read and practice what is preached. Here is one notice that is posted and to which the attention of the foreign laborers and workmen has been called:

"The Philadelphia Division Safety Committee is counting on you to do your part and to get not less than two other fellow employes to do their part in the National Railroad Accident Prevention Drive between October 18th and 31st, to the end that there will be no accidents or personal injury to railroad employes during that period."

Become A Safety Booster

One of the hardest workers in this drive is E. R. Keller, a blacksmith employed in Lucknow shops. He tells home to overcome carelessness and become a safety first booster. He says, in part:

"Carelessness is not only a dishonorable habit but also a dangerous one and you should never cease in your efforts to cast it from your practices until you have succeeded in doing it thoroughly. Get rid of it regardless of what the efforts may cost you. Carelessness is what you cause to happen. Accidents do not stumble to happen. Carelessness may always be largely under our control. Life is a movement—nothing stands still. The mind never rests, not even when the body is lost during its period of oblivious sleep. The brain keeps directing, the heart pumping, and the lungs perform their function. Carelessness comes about, but it must be directed, if you want to make yourself safe from injury. SAFETY FIRST will aid in destroying the one great menace in our country today.

Human Element.

"SAFETY FIRST is merely a human element originating from the simple words "caution" and "thoughtfulness" and has been in actual activity for five or more years. Great results have sprung up from all parts of the world since its origin. We all know that caution and thoughtfulness won for us the greatest war in the world's history. Through these two elements we succeeded in placing ourselves upon a sphere of appreciation. Why not consider well the words "caution" and "thoughtfulness" and forever free ourselves from the habit of carelessness? By so doing we can also win the battle for SAFETY FIRST.

Some Figures

"According to the figures of the Division of Safety Engineering of the Department of Labor eighty-eight per cent. of the industrial accidents reported are due to carelessness and the failure of the human element and are not at all directly chargeable to machinery. Of the 38,000,000 working men and women in the United States, according to the report, 700,000 every year lose limbs or are disabled for an average of four weeks each.

"It is important that employes fully realize and clearly understand the element of danger surrounding the occupations in which they are engaged and how it may be avoided. Films and slides make a more effective presentation of the case than any speaker can offer.

"According to a newspaper, a large motor company has made a specialty for some time of showing a safety film to its employes in groups of about 175. When films are shown they advise that the safety films be only one of a program. They also suggest a comedy film to start the program—a safety film and a drama for the finale."

Germany Thought Well of Theodore Roosevelt

Roosevelt Memorial Day brings to light many interesting anecdotes in which the name of the late Colonel Roosevelt was associated. A Harrisburg woman, the widow of a Civil War veteran told this one to a Telegraph reporter, to-day:

Eleven years ago while in Cologne, she sought a picture of the Royal family in one of the little shops of that city. The storekeeper spoke very good English, and in her conversation with him, she remarked that she desired a picture of the royal family, because she was an ardent admirer of Princess Cecelie. The storekeeper replied, "Yes, we all love her, but many of us Germans admire your President more than we do our own Kaiser, and as for the Crown Prince, we despise him." Theodore Roosevelt was President of the United States at that time.

State Department Seeks Redress For Deaths of Americans

Washington, Oct. 27. — At the direction of the State Department an intensive search is being conducted for the murderers of Lieutenants Cecil H. Connolly and Frederick B. Waterhouse.

Owing to the often expressed friendship of the Lower California administration of Governor Cantu, it is considered in unofficial quarters here that the prospects of apprehending the slayers of the Americans were more hopeful than had the murders been committed in other portions of Mexico.

No dispatches reached the State Department during the day in reply to the demand made on the Mexican Government that it obtain the release at any cost of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, who is being held by bandits for $150,000 ransom.

EDISON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Pupils of Section 7B-8 held the election for permanent home room officers last Friday. Thomas Harvey proved to be the successful candidate for president while Miriam Patterson was elected secretary. The other officers elected are: Vice-president, Luella Anderson; assistant secretary, Isabell Wright; treasurer, Anna McBride; assistant treasurer, Sara Comp; captain for boys, Ralph Jacobs; lieutenant for boys, Martin Duey; captain for girls, Elmira Weaver; lieutenant for girls, Dorothy Cuddy; parliamentary critic, Della McNally; assistant parliamentary critic, Esther Gilbert; watch your speech critic, Alice Hart; assistant watch your speech critic, Leroy Robinson; reporter for the Edison Guard, Martha Douglass.

Professor C. F. Seidel, supervisory principal of the seventh and eighth grades of the Allentown schools on a visit to Edison complimented Harrisburg because of her splendid junior high school buildings. He was especially pleased with the junior high schools of the city plan and care for special activities. The chance that these periods give to the student for self expression seem to him to be one of the vital things in the education of the child.

The "watch your speech" movement is arousing interest among the students of the school. This is especially true in the English classes. The students of section 7A-5, during the recent class period, debated the question, Resolved, "That the use of poor English keeps you a private in the ranks while the use of good English opens the way to an officers' commission." The question was debated with much spirit.

Section 9B-6 has elected the following permanent officers to serve during the remainder of the present semester. The officers are: President, Malcolm Graeff; vice-president, Kathryn Anderson; secretary, Myra Shadle; treasurer, Wilmer Powers; captain for girls, Susan Eyde; captain for boys, Stanley Hardy; lieutenant for girls, Emma Fritz; lieutenant for boys, Harold Osmar; watch your speech critic, Helen Grove; parliamentary critic, John Tolmie; program committee, Margaret Lebo, Kathryn McKloskey, Harold Osman.
