P. R. R. Employee Able to Work Full Time Now

Says the Man-Heil Kept Him on the Job and Gave Him More Relief Than Anything Else He Ever Found.

W. F. McNaughton, 328 Main St., Steelton, Pa., says: "I have used the Man-Heil Inhaler two months for Hay Fever and tightness in the throat, having been a sufferer for two years. The Inhaler is the only relief I have ever found, although I have tried many remedies. I have been able to go to work every day during the extreme Hay Fever season. This I consider has paid for the Inhaler many times, as well as prevented much suffering. I was off from work in 1918 just 21 days suffering from Hay Fever; sat up all night, could not lie down, was so short of breath. This year the Inhaler has allowed me to go on just like the rest of the family. I will always be glad that I read the advertisement of the Geo. A. Gorgas Drug Store and investigated the Man-Heil Automatic Inhaler. This letter can be published, as I want to help others as I have been helped." The MAN-HEIL AUTOMATIC INHALER is relieving thousands who have been unable to obtain any other relief. It is really the most logical and practical way of treating Catarrh, Asthma, Colds, Lung Trouble and all other forms of disease located in the Air Passages. It relieves while you sleep. Is sold and guaranteed by the Geo. A. Gorgas Drug Stores. For free booklet, write Frederick Hillman Co., Johnstown, Pa.

speaking force. The group will include Dr. Francis Tyson, of the University of Pittsburgh; Gilbert Barnes, of Carnegie Institute of Technology, and B. F. Terry, superintendent of the Children's Bureau. The meetings are a part of the National Budget Committee's campaign to organize 10,000 Fortnightly Budget Clubs by the first of the year. The campaign is under the direction of Captain Stanley H. Howe, of New York. Captain Howe and Charles F. Nestle, of Washington, are directors of the committee in charge of organization work, were busy here last week getting the drive under way. From Pittsburgh the campaign will be extended throughout the State. A chairman from Allegheny county will shortly be named. Pittsburgh will not be the second large city in east to organize budget clubs. New York's drive started on October 15 when 21 meetings were held.

Many Accidents Due to Mountain Climbing This Season

Geneva, Oct. 28.—Mountain climbing brought about an unusually heavy crop of accidents this season. One of the most sensational occurred on the Pic Col a few days ago when two women slipped and fell into a crevasse 100 feet deep. Their male companion, unable to help, rushed for guides and, after seven hours' imprisonment, the women were extricated, one dead and the other unconscious.

On the same day three young couples had just reached the summit of Lulsin Peak, above Xalvan, when a girl 21 years old collapsed and fell 500 feet. After an all-night search guides found her body and carried it with great difficulty to the village of Martigny. A climber named Durisch died at St. Moritz, after a fall on Mount Rosatch.

GIVE UP WOMEN FOR U. S. FLOUR

Bolshevists Holding Wives of Polish Officers Surrender Them

Warsaw, Oct. 28.—Captain Leo J. McGuire, of the American Red Cross returned to Warsaw from Odessa yesterday with 56 repatriated Polish families, having fulfilled his mission to repatriate wives and children of Polish officers, left behind on the evacuation of the city by General Zeligowski and his Polish troops in April last.

Early in September, the French Military Mission at Warsaw learned that the Bolshevik officials at Odessa were holding for ransom wives of Polish officers. The Bolsheviks offered to give up the women for a ransom of one sack of American flour per woman but stipulated that they would trade only with an officer of the American Red Cross. On the request of the Polish Government, the Red Cross Commander to Poland detailed Captain McGuire to make the trip.

Accompanied only by an interpreter, Captain McGuire attached his two box cars of ransom to a military train leaving Warsaw for Lemberg. From Lemberg, by dint of bluff, bribery and the prestige of the American uniform, he travelled south through the Ukraine and Rumania to Galatz, and thence to Odessa. General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik commander of the Cossack army had captured the city before Captain McGuire arrived. The captain found the Polish women living in conditions much resembling those of a town in Northern France after an attack proceeded by heavy artillery preparation. The Bolsheviks had destroyed whole blocks of houses, first riding them with amazing thoroughness. Terrorist Commissions had executed 5,000 persons during the two months of occupation. Eventually the American was able to get his charges out of the city and back through Rumania and the Ukraine.

Captain McGuire comes from Tulsa, Oklahoma. A volunteer in the French army, he enlisted in the American army in France and was decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross. He is twenty-two years of age.

BELGIAN KING PAYS HOMAGE TO ARMY

the entire nation and his sincerity in expressing the thanks of Belgium to Americans for their aid was plainly evident. Deeply Moved "I salute," he said to the Senate, "not only the eminent men who received me here during the day, but I salute the memory of your great predecessors who during 120 years have sat in this place and given to the world an example of the highest civic virtues. This welcome of the Senate seals that reception, so warm and so spontaneous, I have never elsewhere witnessed. My journey across this magnificent country, I am deeply moved by the expressions of sympathy that the name of Belgium evokes from this noble American people."

"Nothing could better characterize the reign of universal democracy than that friendship which unites the great republics of the world. One hundred and ten million citizens and the realm which I am the constitutional head, with its seven and a half million inhabitants. If there is no equality of power, riches between them, there is equality in the love of liberty and in aspiration toward social progress. On both sides of the Atlantic the same ideals inspire us. Exchange of ideas, the commercial relations, the visits to Belgium of eminent American citizens, of whom many are of our own race, are so many means of tightening the bonds between the two nations."

"I hope with all my heart that these relations which go back as far as memory, which have been fortified during the war as well as by the admirable assistance which you rendered Belgium by feeding her people and by fraternity in arms, will never cease to tighten the bonds of the great good of the two peoples."

Addresses: House The visit to the Senate of King Albert and the King's eldest son, half an hour and they went immediately to the House. In his address there, His Majesty said: "I am happy to be able to bear to this chamber, the emblem of the living spirit of the American people, the greetings of Belgium, a democratic and parliamentary state created by the vote of the popular assembly of 1830, which proclaimed the independence of our provinces. It is a pleasure to recall that many of the provisions of our constitution were taken from your fundamental law, so that at the outset of her career Belgium was indebted to you."

Sincere Homage "Our two peoples have fought and triumphed together. The intervention of the American Army was the decisive factor in determining the victory. I pay my respectful and sincere homage to the officers, soldiers and sailors, who fell for a great cause on the battlefields of Europe and in the defense of the seas. "The hearts of Belgium and those heroes helped to liberate from the domination of the enemy go out in profound gratitude to the wounded. In their names, I address to the wounded of the great war assurance of our affection and sympathy. I express the gratitude of Belgium to those distinguished American citizens who gave themselves with much a spirit of sacrifice to the task of lightening the sufferings of the Belgian people. "In this noble assembly I solemnly thank the members of the commission for relief and the innumerable committees that helped it in its admirable efforts. I salute in particular the names, graven forever in our memories, of Herbert Hoover and Brand Whitlock. "May this splendid American nation, so richly endowed by nature, so magnificently served by its people, pursue in the serenity of its power, its work of accomplishment, of culture and of progress."

SENATE DRIES ARE HOPING FOR REPASS

The President's veto meant that the sale of liquor would not be permitted again in the life of this and many other generations. Message to Congress The reasons for vetoing the act were set forth by the President in the following message to Congress: "To the House of Representatives: "I am returning without my signature H. R. — 6810, "an act to prohibit intoxicating beverages, and to regulate the manufacture, production, use and sale of high-proof spirits for other than beverage purposes, and to insure an ample supply of alcohol and promote its use in scientific research and in the development of fuel, dye, and other lawful industries. "The subject matter treated in this measure, deals with two distinct phases of the prohibition legislation. One part of the act under consideration seeks to enforce war-time prohibition. The other provides for the enforcement of which was made necessary by the adoption of the constitutional amendment. I object to and cannot approve that part of this legislation with reference to war-time prohibition. "It has to do with the enforcement of an act which was passed by reason of the emergencies of the war and whose objects have been satisfied in the demobilization of the Army, and Navy and whose repeal I have already sought at the hands of Congress. Where the purposes of particular legislation arising out of war emergency have been satisfied, sound public policy makes clear the reason and necessity for repeal. "It will not be difficult for Congress in considering this important matter to separate these two questions and effectively to legislate regarding them; making the proper distinction between temporary causes which arose out of war-time emergencies and those like the constitutional amendment of prohibition which is now part of the fundamental law of the country. "In all matters having to do with the personal habits and customs of large numbers of our people, we must be certain that the established processes of legal change are followed. In no way can the salutary object sought to be accomplished by great reforms of this character be made satisfactory and permanent. "(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON, "The White House, "27 October, 1919."

STEPS TAKEN TO OPEN NEW STREETS

WOMEN EXCEED MEN IN PRUSSIA

Estimated There Are 1,107 Females to Every Thousand Males

Berlin, Oct. 28.—The war has left Prussia with a surplus of women over men, there being now, it is estimated, 1,107 females for every thousand males. This, it would be generally assumed, correspondingly diminishes women's matrimonial prospects in Prussia.

Dr. Robert Behla, a government expert on vital statistics, expects, however, an increase over the normal percentages of marriages in Germany, contending that such increase is a natural consequence of all wars. He says that wage earners generally marry more rapidly than do others after the war because of the improvements in their economic condition due to their increased wages. "The number of marriages in Prussia last year was about 100,000 less than took place in the last peace year when there was a surplus of only five women to every thousand men. COLUMBIA TO CELEBRATE Marietta, Pa., Oct. 28.—The celebration for the returned soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses of Columbia, will begin on Friday next, and last three days. Columbia lost twenty-four men at the front, and over 700 in the various ranks of the service.

Belgian Furnaces Handicapped by the Lack of R. R. Cars

Brussels, Oct. 28.—The Belgian steel industry is greatly handicapped by lack of transportation. About 20 blast furnaces which have been repaired since the withdrawal of the German forces could start work within the next six weeks if the necessary coke could be obtained. The taking over of 400 American locomotives is being negotiated with a view of relieving the situation. Belgium is supplying Rumania and Switzerland with coal in exchange for food and is arranging with Argentina for the shipment of 50,000 tons of coal to that country monthly against returns of wheat cargoes.
