TUESDAY EVENING,

$18

UNION

SUITS

FORRY'S PENN-HARRIS HOTEL BUILDING

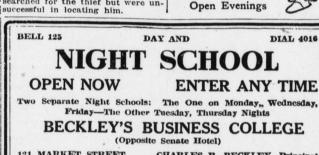

121 MARKET STREET CHARLES R. BECKLEY, Principal

FORRY'S, Penn-Harris Hotel Bldg OPEN EVENINGS

Store Closes Every Saturday At 6 P. M.

28-30-32 North Third Street

Very Extraordinary News Tomorrow We Inaugurate Our First Winter Coat Sale

who sustained the body. Miss Krall was rendered unconscious. Horse's Leggs Cut Off Both she and Diller were occu-pants of the Jenny Lind, which was wrecked and tossed over a fence into a field. The horse had its two front legs cut from its body, it is said, while a third was broken. The to Harry R. Leonard, of Harrisburg, and was occupied at the time of the accident by Russel Shaffer and Vance Wolf, of Shiremanstown, and Ethel Lerew and a second girl from Mechanicsburg. The accident oc-curred when the Leonard car at-tempted to pass another, while rac-ing, it is said. Diller and Miss Krall were on their way home from the Farmers' Day celebration heid here when the accident occurred.

Fifteen Bands to Be in Columbia's Parade

In Columbia's rateset Columbia, Pa., Oct. 28. — The Caledonia Scots Band, of Philadel-phia, heading Cyrene Commandery, No. 34, Knights Templar, will be one of the features of the welcome nother bands will be in line with nearly every civic and fraternal so-ciety in the place. The service men will parade separately in the after-noon and following the demonstra-tion there will be a banquet in the biate chapter of the Red Cross. A mardi gras in miniature form under the auspices of the More Light As-sociation will precede the event on Hallowe'en, in which several hun-donated people are expected to partici-pate.

Widow Dies of Stroke in Carlisle, Aged 69

In Carlisle, Ageu OJ Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Me-hinda Richards, widow of William Richards, died yesterday as the re-sult of a stroke of paralysis sus-tained Thursday last. She was 69 years old and a life-long citizen of Carlisle. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Frank Kelly, Mrs. Isreal Stringfellow and Charles Richards, of Carlisle, and Thomas Richards, of Pittsburgh; also by her brother, Daniel Stout, of Chicago, and three sisters, Mrs. Ella Germeyer and Mrs. Catherine Harlan, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Luther Yeingst, of Carlisle. Fu-neral services will be held at the Stringfellow home, 174 East South Street, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30; interment in the old grave-yard.

Jamed as Red Cross Seal Leaders by McCrea Chambersburg, Fa., Oct. 28.—M. C. Chambersburg, Fa., Oct. 28.—John Chambersburg, Fa., Oct. 7., Hawen United Chambersburg, Fa., Oct. 7., Ha

Lebanon, Pa., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Sal-lie McElroy, wife of Aaron McEl-roy, a freight conductor on the Leb-anon branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, had her shoulder fractured and was otherwise seriously hurt when she fell from a Pennsylvania Railroad train on the Philadelphia division on Sunday evening. She was en route to Conewago, on her way home, and when she heard the conductor announce the station name she got up immediately and made her way to the platform of the coach. In the darkness she was not aware the train was still in mo-tion.

Chambersburg, Pa., Oct. 28.—Five of the six tracts of land comprising the real estate of the late Congress-man Thaddeus M. Mahon were sold at public sale here for $55,873. Among the tracts sold was that of the noted country estate, "Battin-Moore," near Scotland, which brought $17,358.

Greencastle, Pa., Oct. 28.—Henry C. Barr, a well-known resident of Antrim township, died very suddeniy Sunday morning. Mr. Barr was ap-

OF JUNK DEALER

Wollins Ago at OrechsolaryWaynesboro, Pa., Oct. 28—Some months ago a Buick touring car from the garage on his premises,
east of this city.
Yesterday Frantz received, word through two young men that they had used what they thought was his gwhose it was as they came upon it in an odd manner, and it could be found at Greensburg, Pa.
To-day Mr. Frantz and Garage
To-day Mr. Frantz and Garage
to identify and get the car.David Kreiser, Aged 77, Run Down by Stone Train on Reading Railway
Lebanon, Pa., Oct. 28. — David Kreiser, known throughout the city as a junk dealer, was fatally hurt on the Reading railroad tracks, near the old Meily furnace plant on Sunday evening, shortly after 6 o'clock.
He made a business of buying up day evening, shortly after 6 o'clock. He made a business of buying up rags and funk, which he disposed of to Joseph Grosky, a junk merchant near Twelfth and Brandywine streets. Kreiser kept his horse at streets. Kreiser kept his horse at the Grosky place, and it is supposed that after feeding the animal on Sunday night, he took a circuitous route home, and thus chanced to cross the railroad, Hit by Stone Train It was stated that he crawled un-der a freight car, and had just got-ten to his feet when the stone train, going east, drawn by locomotive No. 1009, ran him down. The train was stopped and the crew plcked up the mangled remains, and took them to the local station. Alderman A. M. Snyder telephoned for the Good Samaritan ambulance, which arrived at the station and took the injured man to the hospital where he died. One leg was cut off and the other hadly lacerated. One arm was broken and there was a deep gash in the man's head. Kreiser was aged about 77 years.

Farmer Dies Suddenly of Apoplexy at Antrim

Months Ago at Greensburg

Auth Dies Auth Auth Dies Auth D

clety for the Prevention of Tubershe entrusted a total of about $1,600 Brethren circuit. The ceremony to him. The money, she says, was was performed at the bride's home, part of death benefits she received There were no attendants. They when her husband died. will reside at Cly. (Other State News on Page 4.)

> It takes just about an "instant" to make a delightful cup of Postum -a teaspoonful in the cup with hot water added. sugar and cream to taste.

INSTANT POSTUM

is a snappy drink, healthful and economical. Good for every member of the fam-There's a Reason" ily.

Made by the POSTUM CEREAL COMPANY, Battle Creek, Michigan. And Frankliness and a statement of the stat

Mannangununananangununang Casanananananananananananan

sunday morning. Sur, barr was ap-parently in his usual health when he around his farm. About 8 o'clock he was stricken with apoplexy, and death came two hours later. Mr. Barr had always been a man of unusual strength and vigor, and his death coming so suddenly was a great shock to his family and friends. He was born in Virginia and for a number of years lived on a farm near Harpers Ferry. After he removed to Antrim town-ship he built a new home on the farm he purchased about three miles west of town, which he afterwards sold to Henry Sword. He then bought a farm near Clay Hill, where he had resided ever since.

Little Lines From Nearby

Hagerstown—Carlton Moller, of this city, paid $10 fine and costs for violating Waynesboro's traffic or-Waynesboro—Ruth May Smeltzer and Lupton L. Kaylor were married here by the Rev. Dr. Wilford P. Shriner.

Shriner. Gettysburg—The drive for funds for the Annie M. Warner Hospital here has raised $15,000 up until the time his time.

Waynesboro—Quite a number of ocal mechanics left here for Roa-loke, Va.; on Sunday evening to take obs in factorics noke, Va. on Sunday evening to take jobs in factories. Waynesboro—From 3.30 in the afternoon until 9 o'clock on Satur-day evening, 12 clerks at the store of Brown and Miller here sold sugar to break the famine in this place. Waynesboro—The Rev. W. C. Bein-shoff, of Altoona, will be the leader of revival services to continue for three weeks at the First Brethreu Church here. Fort Loudon—The body of Henry Hopple, who was killed by a train at Pittsburgh, was brought here for burial yesterday. His widow, who was a Miss Burkholder, of this place, survives him. Fayetteville—John D. Muses and was a Miss Burkholder, or this place, survives him. Fayetteville—John D. Myers, aged $2 years, is dead at Blake's Gy, near here. Mrs. Elizabeth J. Gyo and Adam L, and Austin F. Myers, Markholms, and Austin F. Myers, of Harrisburg, are amous the viving daughters and sons.

For Women and Misses

This Event Is Purposely Arranged to Offset Any Impression Which Might Prevail That Fine Coats Are Not Procurable at Moderate Prices.

Right at the threshold of the coat season when cold weather will be upon us any day and when you will have the most use for your coat, we hold this important sale in the face of advancing prices. You might perhaps think it inadvisable for us to name these special prices, but, as we realize there is an impression prevalent that all fine merchandise is high priced now, we hold this sale to give you convincing proof that Schleisner merchandise is really sold at the very lowest prices.

We have selected from our regular lines of the new Winter Coats a large collection of smart fashionable models in Silvertone, Velour, Polo Cloth, Tinseltone and Velour de Laine, many of which have fur collars and cuffs and many have the self collar in the large draped model. The belted models are represented.

14.

This is one of those rare opportunities that requires immediate attention. Whilst our stock of coats is large and includes a big variety in the various fashionable models, the special prices which are named for this occasion are so tempting that we look forward to a very busy week. We urge those who can make selections tomorrow to do so while the assortments at this price are the best.

$35, $39.75, $45, $49.75, $55, $59.75, $65