Talk of Coal Strike Causes Scramble For Coke; Steel in Demand

New York, Oct. 30.—The order of the soft coal miners' union for a strike of 500,000 workers November 1, whatever may be done to avert actual stoppage, has sharply accented the market conditions produced by the steel strike, says the Iron Age to-day. Pig iron has been bought on a large scale at advanced prices...

Says Population of East Galicia Faces Extinction

Washington, Oct. 30.—The entire population of East Galicia faces extinction during the coming winter unless assistance can be obtained from the outside, according to dispatches from Warsaw by the Ukrainian National Committee. Four million people are threatened with death as the result of the rapid spread of "hunger typhus" through East Galicia...

In Rags and on Knees, He Pleads to Support Wife

New York, Oct. 30.—In tatters—his bare feet showing through the holes in his worn-out shoes—David Goldhaber, member of New York's famous "Alimony Club," knelt before Justice Kendrick yesterday and begged to be freed from a "debtor's prison," that he might go to work and earn alimony for his wife. Mrs. Goldhaber, in a silk dress and wearing furs, asked that he be kept in jail until he could produce a bond of $500 for back payments due her.

No Farmers' Union, Says Dairymen's Head

New York, Oct. 30.—The American farmer is not in sympathy with the movement initiated by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, to bring producers and organized labor to a close alliance, political and otherwise, according to R. D. Cooper, president of the Dairymen's League, incorporated. The league has a membership of more than 65,000 farmers in New York and New England and other nearby states.

DIES AT 96

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Matilda Gaugler died at Shamokin Dam at the age of 96. She was hale and hearty up to the eve of her passing away. She was sister to

"You always have that same waitress in the restaurant, don't you?" said the businessman. "Always," replied his friend. "She's very careful to bring me clean food."

Will Go on Stage After Winning Fight For His Sanity

New York, Oct. 30.—John Armstrong Chaloner, recently victor in a 22-year fight to be declared sane in New York, is to go on the stage, to appear in a Broadway production in his own play, "Robbery Under Law," written five years ago as part of his crusade for lunacy law reform. Mr. Chaloner will take the part of the hero, Hugh Stutfield. "The character and adventures of Hugh Stutfield," Mr. Chaloner said, "are mere photographs of myself and my experiences at the hands of the present iniquitous lunacy law of the State of New York and some 40 per cent. of the other states of this enlightened union."

Bowman's Sale of Beautiful Georgette Blouses. Continues Friday and Saturday. Special $5.69. Special $6.59. These Georgette blouses represent a special purchase which we were advised by wire to take advantage of as an extra good "Buy." We would, therefore, suggest the same to you—buy one or more if you know good values, as we could not offer them at these prices if we had been obliged to pay the price asked for them ordinarily. One lot of Georgette crepe blouses in ten different styles, including beautifully tucked, embroidered and beaded models. Combination color effects and the plain ones with contrasting trimming. Pleated fronts with hemstitched trimming and small round collars. Others with small tucks with bands of embroidery and beading down front. Some with lace yoke. Colors are white, flesh and suit shades in bisque, brown, French blue, navy and black. Blouses that represent substantial savings at $5.69. These are beautiful Georgette blouses, some daintily trimmed with French val lace, tucks and peplum front. Others with pleated frilled collars, three-quarter length sleeves with frilled cuffs; collarless and tastefully trimmed with beads of contrasting colors. Two More Days of Demonstration and Special Sale of Domestic Science Fireless Cookers. We say "Special Sale" because the new price list goes in effect Monday, and orders placed for the Domestic Science Fireless Cookers before Saturday evening at six o'clock will be delivered at the old price. Elsewhere these cookers are now selling at the new price. A deposit will reserve one for Christmas delivery. The Domestic Science Fireless Cook Stove cooks flavor INTO THE FOOD and not out of it. There is no evaporation of precious food value and flavor. Fireless cooked meat and fowl melt in one's mouth, they are so tender and juicy. Built of the best materials, is most handsome in appearance and performs most efficiently. It roasts, steams, bakes, stews or boils perfectly. You will not have to come into the kitchen to baste, turn or stir the food. When the family is ready there will be ready to serve the most delicious food that has ever been brought to your table. You may be gone for hours, motoring or shopping without fear of burning. See it and have Miss May Alrich show how simple the operation and how efficient.
