

ART EXHIBITS TO BE RESUMED

Painters Throughout Europe Are Invited to Show at Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Oct. 31.—John W. Beatty, director of fine arts of the Carnegie Institute of Pittsburgh, has announced that the Institute's international art exhibitions, which were interrupted by the war, will be resumed next spring.

said to be the only American exhibitions which represent the art of all nations. Pictures have been received from every producing nation, except China and Japan.

Jap Capitalists to Oppose 8-Hour Law

Tokio, Oct. 31.—The Japanese press says that Yamaji Muto, who will go to the international labor congress at Washington as the delegate representing the interests of capitalists, will strive for the postponement of the eight-hour working day, so far as Japan is concerned.

FINDS AMERICANS IN MUCH DISTRESS

Captain McGuire Meets Women Whose Husbands Are in United States

Warsaw, Oct. 31.—Captain Leo F. McGuire, of Tulsa, Okla., of the Red Cross Mission to Poland, found many Americans in distress in Odessa when he was sent to that city recently to bring out the wives and children of Polish army officers and men who had been left there when the troops withdrew last April.

Dance Levels All Ranks, English Justice Holds

London.—The Justice of the Peace of Witham, Essex, is really democratic. He recognizes that when the metallic triangle tinkles one forgets caste, when the guitar twangs, the ukulele wails and the snare drum sounds, a young woman drops class which, says the Justice, is only a cloak.

BELGIANS BITTER AGAINST GERMANS

Traitors Being Tried; Enemy Sympathizers Are Being Heavily Taxed

Brussels, Oct. 30.—Although it is now many months since peace was signed, there are indications each day in Brussels and elsewhere that the Belgians are not yet ready to "forgive and forget" the German invasion and occupation. There is a demand that the German words on the numerous German passenger cars which one sees on Belgian lines be changed and replaced by "French-occupied city" and also receiving government contracts, and they want a stop put to it.

Sugar Board Will Resign, the Senate Committee Hears

Washington, Oct. 31.—The United States Sugar Equalization Board yesterday telegraphed Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, in charge of the Senate sugar investigation that it was preparing to "wind up its activities" in view of inability to obtain sufficient sugar from Cuba to warrant further Government control.

British Government Gets Confidence Vote on Financial Policy

London, Oct. 31.—The Government secured a vote of confidence in the House of Commons last night on its financial policy by an overwhelming majority of 355.

Dr. Muck Tells of Secret Code

Berlin, Oct. 31.—Dr. Karl Muck, the former leader of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, is back again. His arrest and imprisonment in the United States he blames on his bad hand, or rather note, writing. The innocent score of Johann Sebastian Bach's venerable "The Passion of St. Matthew" was the cause of Dr. Muck's imprisonment, according to his own statement made here.

"Backyard" Plane Is Here, Is Belief

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Officials at the McCook Aviation Field, near here, announce that successful tests have been made with a reversible airplane propeller, invented by Seth Hart, of Los Angeles. They say the day of the "backyard" airplane has arrived. By creating resistance to the gliding force of an airplane when it lands, the invention will enable flying machines to come to a full stop within 50 feet of the point where they first touch the earth in landing. It is also said the device increases the climbing ability of an airplane 40 per cent and makes possible an altitude of 50,000 feet.

Coaled by Crew, Savoie Gets Away

New York, Oct. 31.—The largest number of trans-Atlantic liners to leave this port since the strike of longshoremen began sailed yesterday afternoon. The French liner Savoie got away shortly after 6 o'clock with 1,200 passengers for Havre.

Urges City Build Its Apartments

New York, Oct. 31.—To relieve housing conditions in The Bronx, rent profiteering and dispossessing of tenants, Alderman Alexander Braunstein of the Thirty-second district, is forwarding resolutions in Albany to have the city authorized and empowered to build municipal apartment houses.

Airplane Hits Sleigh, Killing Two Children

Moorhead, Minn., Oct. 31.—Clifford Lomsdak, 8, and Elsie Moe, 14, were killed and three others were injured yesterday when an airplane alighting from a flight crashed into a sleigh taking children to school at Hitterdale, near here.

Mollie Steimer Gets Six Months' Sentence

New York, Oct. 31.—Molly Steimer's hunger strike at Ellis Island was a waste of time after all, for she is not going to be deported for six months, at least. Instead, she will spend that six months in the workhouse on Blackwell's Island for throwing circulars from the roof of the building on September 17, Constitution Day.

Teach Flying in Penn Military School

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—Twenty students have been given their first instruction in a new course in aerial observation which has been inaugurated at Pennsylvania Military College.

AUTO CAR DIVIDEND

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—The board of directors of the Autocar Company declared a 3 per cent dividend payable November 7 to stockholders of record November 5.
